CITY TO RAZE BUILDING.

The following statement has been issued concerning the razing of Dock square property by city:

The agreement between the City of Boston and the Federal Development Company to settle for the sum of $30,780 the suit of the company against the City of Boston on account of a property-taking in the widening of Dock square is based upon the appraisal of the city real estate expert who estimated the total damage to be $515,133.

An award in the sum of $482,220 had been made by the Street Commissioners, which was accepted by and paid pro tanto to the company on December 23, 1925. The amount of the settlement plus the pro tanto award amounts exactly to $513,000. This has been passed by the Street Commissioners and the Law Department after due notice to the Finance Commission as required by law and after consultation with the Finance Commission.

In regard to the cost of razing the building, it is provided by General Laws, chapter 79, section 13, that where the structures are on land taken by eminent domain, the owner may remove them, but the damages shall include the value of the structures so far as to enhance the value of the land, and the value of the structures for purposes of removal shall be deducted. In other words, the salvage value of the structures is considered and diminishes the damages.

In case the owner neglects or refuses to remove the structures, the statute provides that such may be sold at public auction, and the proceeds of such sale shall be held for the benefit of the owner and the cost of the sale shall be deducted from the damages, unless the estimated expenses of such sale exceed the value of the structures. If no sale takes place, or if at the sale no bid is obtained, the owner is held to have relinquished his rights therein.

In view of the above provisions of law an examination into the facts of the Federal Development Company case discloses that the owner neglected or refused to remove the building, that a sale was held and the building sold, but later the buyer forfeited his deposit and repudiated the sale. This establishes the fact that there is no salvage value to the building, a conclusion concurred in by the city real estate expert.

As the statute applies to the facts, it would appear that since the owner has relinquished his rights in the building, the city is the owner thereof and must now proceed to do with it whatever is necessary to carry out the improvement.

UNDERGROUND RAPID TRANSIT IN BOSTON.

The Boston Transit Commission, consisting of five members, two appointed by the Governor and three by the Mayor, began its official existence, July 1, 1894, and ended it July 1, 1918, after seven extensions of the original term. It constructed, under the authority of Acts of the Legislature, the following subways and tunnels, the ownership of which is vested in the City of Boston, and all costs to be covered by revenue from same, not by taxation; Tremont Street Subway, from Broadway and Tremont St., South End, to North Station and from Boylston St., near Charles to Park St., 1.68 miles, opened to Park St. September 1, 1897, and to North Station on Sept. 3, 1898, costing with subsequent alterations, $4,416,000, the first transportation subway in the United States; East Boston Tunnel, from Maverick square, E. Boston, under Boston Harbor and State St. to Scollay square, Boston Proper, 1.42 miles, opened December 30, 1904, costing $3,336,000, the first all-concrete underwater transportation tunnel in the world; Washington Street Tunnel, from Ash st. opp. Nassau, South End, to Traverse st., near North Station, 1.16 miles, opened November 30, 1908, costing $8,496,700 (including $2,850,000 land damages; Cambridge Connection Subway, from under Park st. station of Tremont St. Subway to Grove st., near Cambridge Bridge, 0.47 miles, opened March 23, 1912, costing $1,465,000; Boylston Street Subway from Commonwealth ave., near Kenmore st., Back Bay, to Tremont St. Subway, near Charles st., 1.5 miles, opened October 3, 1914, costing $5,485,639; East Boston Tunnel Extension from Scollay square to North Russell st., 0.41 miles, opened March 18, 1916, approximate cost, $2,523,000; Dorchester Tunnel, from Park st., Boston Proper, to Andrew square, South Boston, 2.26 miles, opened December 3, 1916, as far as South Station; on December 15, 1917, to Broadway, South Boston, and on June 29, 1918, to the Andrew Square terminal. Trains of four or six cars are run in the East Boston Tunnel, the Washington St. Tunnel, continuing on elevated track to Forest Hills, also in Dorchester Tunnel from Andrew sq., So. Boston, connecting with Cambridge Tunnel, to Harvard sq., Cambridge, while only single or double street-cars are run in the other tunnels and subways. Cost of Dorchester tunnel, $11,016,700 to Jan. 31, 1925; of new Arlington Station extending under Boylston St., between Arlington and Berkeley, $1,230,676; of East Boston Tunnel Alterations, Maverick sq., $3,768,857.

Total gross debt on Feb. 1, 1925 for all subways and tunnels, $42,096,700; against which a sinking fund of $7,325,262 has been accumulated from the revenue, making the net debt $34,271,438. The loans are payable mostly in 40 years from date of each (loans since 1911 payable in 45 years), annual interest averaging 3.8 per cent.

These underground ways, about nine miles in all with total of 19.27 miles of single track, were leased to the Boston Elevated Railway Company (which furnished the equipment) for term of 25 years (except Tremont Street 20 years) at annual rental of $4\frac{1}{2}$ to $4\frac{3}{4}$ per cent of net cost (except East Boston Tunnel which was at $\frac{1}{2}$ of one per cent of all annual gross receipts of said company).

In accordance with Chapter 741, Acts of 1911, the various leases were extended to July 1, 1936, the rental to be $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent of net cost after expiration of the first-term leases.

By Chap. 185, Special Acts of 1918, the powers of the Transit Commission, whose term expired that year, were transferred to the Mayor, Commissioner of Public Works and City Treasurer, or such person or persons, not exceeding three, as the Mayor might appoint. By Chap. 3, Ordinances of 1918, the Transit Dept. was established as a regular City department, to be in charge of three commissioners.

By Chap. 480, Acts of 1923, the extension of the Dorchester Tunnel from Andrew Square about 1,300 feet south-erly was ordered, the proposed new railway location then coming to the surface 400 feet southeast of Dorchester Ave., thence continuing to Harrison Square; thence along the Shawmut Branch railroad to its termination at Blue Hill Ave. and River St., Mattapan.

Loans issued in 1924-25 for Dorchester Tunnel extension, $300,000 and for Dorchester Rapid Transit, $150,000.

SNOW EQUIPMENT LOAN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 14, 1926.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—On the 24th day of last month, I forwarded to your honorable body a loan order providing for the appropriation of $400,000 for the purchase of mechanical equipment to be used by the Public Works Department. With this order I submitted a copy of a report made to me on the subject by the Board of Municipal Emergencies.

Prior to the submission of the order, I had talked the matter over with the Finance Commission and had advised them of my intended course of action.

Under date of the 7th instant, the Finance Commission forwarded to your honorable body a report in which certain objections were raised against the passage of this loan order. The Board of Municipal Emergencies, at my request, have considered these objections and as a result of this study have forwarded to me a report which I submit herewith for your consideration. This report covers all the objections raised by the Finance Commission, hence, I feel justified in urging your honorable body to give favorable consideration to my recommendations of May 24.

Respectfully,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

June 11, 1926.

Dear Sir,—Your Emergency Board has considered the letter of the Finance Commission dated June 7, 1926, and addressed to the Honorable City Council. A portion of this letter refers to a report of this Board recommending an expenditure of $546,000 for snow removal equipment. In connection with this portion of the letter, the Board begs leave to comment as follows:

The Public Works and Park Departments did not call for the equipment recommended in their annual budgets as no change in the usual method of snow removal was contemplated.

Because of the failure of the "usual method" to function efficiently in the storm of February of this year, your Honor appointed this Board to study the conditions of snow removal and recommend a method that would so function that the economic loss and discomfort suffered by the public last February might be avoided in the future.

There is no contractor in the City of Boston with sufficient equipment to secure the desired result. It is doubtful that under any contract method that would be fair to the city that any contractor would make any substantial investment for apparatus which would be used primarily for snow removal, and would therefore be laid up the greater part of the time. Without this equipment there is always liable to be a repetition of the conditions of last February, and to ensure the public against such conditions, it is necessary that the city purchase the equipment.

As regards the purchase of trucks which is seventy per cent of the expenditure recommended for the Public Works Department, this recommendation was made after going over the entire matter with the Commissioner of Public Works, who will have charge of these trucks and who will place them as outlined to you in your report of March 29.

The Commissioner of Public Works further assures us that he has ample garage space for the trucks recommended. It was not contemplated to store any trucks in fire stations, but such storage space as might be available in fire stations would be used for the storage of the equipment which is used only for snow removal.

The Commissioner of Public Works has also stated that there are plenty of men already employed in his department available as chauffeurs to man the entire equipment.

Regarding the equipment for the Park Department, the deputy commissioner of said department attended every meeting of the Board which dealt with the handling of snow, and the recommendation of the Board for the expenditure of $47,500 was based on his statements.

In conclusion, your Board is of the opinion that the recommendations outlined in its report to you of March 29, 1926, should be adopted.

Respectfully yours,
LOUIS K. ROURKE,
FRANCIS X. MAHONEY,
J. H. SULLIVAN,
HERBERT A. WILSON,
FRANK S. DELAND,
THOMAS F. SULLIVAN,
Emergency Board.

Referred to the Committee on Finance.

H. L. Hamilton, Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office,
City Hall, Boston.

Dear Sir,—I have your memorandum of June 10, with enclosure, order from the City Council, that the Board of Park Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to submit an estimate as to the cost of a site for playground purposes in the vicinity of Wordsworth and West streets, East Boston.

In reply I desire to say that the Board of Park Commissioners feel it is inadvisable to think of constructing a playground at this site as it is very nearly half way between Orient Heights Playground and Wood Island Playground.

W. P. LONG,

The following was received:

Resolution extending a pledge of good will and a spirit of friendly co-operation to the members of the City Council of Boston, Mass., on the occasion of the inaugural flight of the Minneapolis-Chicago Air Mail Service, starting June 7, 1926.

Resolved by the City Council of the City of Minneapolis:

That we, the members of the City Council of Minneapolis, send a pledge of good will and a spirit of friendly co-operation to the members of the City Council of Boston, Mass., on the occasion of the inaugural flight of the Minneapolis-Chicago Air Mail Service starting today, June 7, 1926.

This service will bring the commercial, financial and social activities of our municipalities closer together, all of which is in keeping with the progressiveness of our citizenship.

We also wish to extend to you and the citizens of your city a cordial invitation to spend your vacations in Minneapolis, the gateway to the land of Ten Thousand Lakes, in the state of Minnesota, where fish are in abundance, where motoring on fine graveled and paved highways is a pleasure, where the evenings are cool and where the best hotel and summer resort accommodations are available.

May we have the pleasure of meeting many of your citizens here this season.

Signed by members of the City Council and officials of the city.

President KEENE—The communication will be placed on file.

Coun. GILBODY—Mr. President, I hardly believe a message of good will and greeting of that nature should be merely placed on file without our body taking some cognizance of it otherwise. I think we ought either to have the City Clerk draft a reply or appoint a committee of the City Council to draft a reply, returning to Minneapolis the greetings of Boston.

President KEENE—The Chair will state that the City Clerk will acknowledge the receipt of the communication in proper form.

CONFIRMATION OF EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS.

President KEENE called up under unfinished business Nos. 1, 2 and 3 on the calendar, viz.:

2. Joseph Stasio, Edward A. Roach, Thomas Abruzzio and John E. Downing, to be Constables.
3. Robert A. Callahan, to be a Weigher of Goods.

Coun. WARD—Mr. President, I move that No. 2 on the calendar be laid on the table for a week.

Coun. BUSH—For what reason, Mr. President, does the councilor desire to have No. 2 laid on the table for a week?

President KEENE—Does the gentleman desire to state his reason?

Coun. WARD—Mr. President, I don't have to state my reason.

No. 2 was laid on the table by a rising vote, 10 to 4.

The question came on confirmation of appointments contained in Nos. 1 and 3. Committee, Coun. Lynch and Mahoney; whole number of ballots 18, yeas 18, nays none, and the appointments were confirmed.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. DOWLING, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

1. Report on notices from the Street Laying-Out Department of the Street Commissioners with reference to hearings before said Board on petitions for storage and sale of gasoline, on May 10, May 17, May 24, and June 1, 1926,—recommending that the same be placed on file.

Report accepted; said notices placed on file.

2. Report on petition of Anna M. Gurney, 10 Kempton street, Roxbury (referred today), for permit for children under fifteen years of age to appear at Huntington Chambers Hall, June 12,—that said permit be granted.

Report accepted; said permit granted under usual conditions.

3. Report on order (referred June 7) authorizing the Street Commissioners to prepare and have printed 2,500 copies of a list of streets according to the new wards and precincts—that the same ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order passed, yeas 20, nays 0.

4. Report on order (referred today) authorizing the Commissioner of Public Works to expend not exceeding $6,000 for the purpose of furnishing ice for the public drinking fountains—that the same ought to pass.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, I would like to ask if the Finance Commission has made a report on ice for drinking fountains.

President KEENE—I would state for the information of the Council that it has not. The question is on the acceptance of the report of the committee and the passage of the order.

The report was accepted and the order was passed, yeas 20, nays 0.

5. Report on order (referred today) authorizing the Superintendent of Supplies to sell old material in the Fire Alarm Shop—that the same ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order passed.

6. Report on order (referred May 24) authorizing the Corporation Counsel to prepare a codification or revision of all special acts relating to the city—that the same ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order passed, yeas 20, nays 0.

7. Report on the order (referred June 7) to transfer $2,000 from Reserve Fund to Election Department—that the same ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order passed, yeas 20, nays 0.

8. Report on various transfer orders within department appropriations, Treasury Department, Hospital Department, Institutions Department, Boston Sanatorium Department, Public Works, Water Division and Street Laying-Out Department (referred June 7),—that the same ought to pass.

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. President, I would like to have those orders read for information.

Coun. DOWLING—Mr. President, unless the gentleman from Ward 3 insists on the reading of the orders, I would like to say that the committee went over these matters, item by item, considering them carefully. Therefore, in the interest of saving time, I would suggest that reading at this time is not necessary.

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. President, not being in there at the time, I did not understand that. I would like to know why these transfers are being continually made. We had a lot of camouflage in regard to the matter at the beginning of the year, when it was insisted at the beginning of our session that it was extremely important that the budget be rushed through. A number of the councilors felt that there should be more deliberation, but it was insisted by many others that it was extremely important that immediate action should be taken. Immediate action was taken, although I and other members did not see the necessity for it. I think if the Council had listened at that time to some of the members we would not be getting into the difficulty we are now. I notice, meeting after meeting, that we have different transfer orders put in here and going through, simply because somebody says that they are all right, although we really know nothing about them. When questions are raised it is simply, "How do you do?" "It is all right," and the orders are passed and nobody seems to be concerned. I do think something ought to be brought to time about these matters, and I don't think we ought to be expected to vote for them without knowing something more about them than we do. I don't think the department should be allowed to get away with it. They simply come in here and say, "This or that ought to be done," and we do it. I notice by the City Record that there are a good many increases of salary going through, although we did not understand that that was to be the case later when the budget came before us. I have no objection to these things going through, as long as I understand what they are for. I regret that I was not at the meeting of the Executive Committee when the matter came up.

President KEENE—Does the councilor desire further reading?

Coun. FITZGERALD—I am satisfied, Mr. President.

The report was accepted, and the orders were passed: yeas 20, nays 0.

INDEXES IN REGISTRY OF PROBATE.

On motion of Coun. FITZGERALD, the Council voted to take from the table No. 4 on the calendar, viz.:

4. Order authorizing the Register of Probate to prepare and have printed copies of the indexes of records and papers in his office.

The question came on the passage of the order.

Coun. GILBODY—Mr. President, I desire to say just a word, as long as there is not going to be a roll call. It was settled in a meeting that we had as County Commissioners that this work ought to be done by the City Printing Plant, and I think an expression of the feeling of the Council to that effect should be spread on the record, in order that the Register may bear that fact in mind when the printing is actually done. We all know the feeling expressed by the different members at our meeting, that we wanted the work to go to our own employers, if possible, even if the expense should figure up several hundred dollars higher than it would at an outside plant. With that in mind, therefore, I ask that this opinion may be spread on the record, so that the Register may have it in mind when the matter is finally acted upon by him.

The order was passed.

RESOLUTIONS RULED OUT.

Coun. DOWD offered resolutions, and when the Clerk had read a few words President KEENE examined them and said:

The Chair rules the resolutions out of order.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

President KEENE—The councilor will state his point of order.

Coun. DOWD—These are resolutions, Mr. President, presented by a city councilor, and as such should be given a courteous reception by the Chair.

President KEENE—The councilor can appeal from the decision of the Chair.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, may I make a statement in reference to the resolutions?

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. As the Mayor has today sent up the name of another man for this position, I think the councilor's resolutions come too late.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, I believe the courtesy of the floor should be extended to any councilor who desires to make a statement in reference to any matter of official business concerning the taxpayers of Boston.

President KEENE—The Chair will state that the councilor can speak by unanimous consent, but, under the circumstances, the Chair rules the remarks out of order.

Coun. DOWD—Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

ABSENCE OF COUN. HEFFERNAN EXPLAINED.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, I would like to say just a word explaining the absence of my colleague, the councilor from Ward 22 (Coun. Heffernan). He has been away ten days, in spite of the fact that there have been before the body matters of serious importance on which he would have liked to vote, because of the very serious illness of his brother, whose life is despaired of. That is what has necessitated Coun. Heffernan's absence.

RECONSIDERATION REFUSED.

Coun. McGRATH moved a reconsideration of all action taken today, trusting that the same would not prevail. Lost.

Adjourned, on motion of Coun. BUSH, at 5.45 p. m., to meet on Monday, June 21, at 2 p. m.

COMMISSION TO CONSIDER PURCHASE OF ELEVATED STRUCTURES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, June 21, 1926.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—My attention has been directed by the chairman of the Transit Department to the fact that under the provisions of chapter 44 of the Resolves of 1926, a special unpaid commission was created to investigate the advisability of purchase by the city of elevated structures used by the Boston Elevated Railway Company.

The question of the removal of the elevated structures is one in which the city is vitally interested because of the large interests involved.

The resolve provides that the expenses of the commission shall not exceed $1,500, and shall be met by the City of Boston. I accordingly submit the accompanying order and recommend its adoption by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Ordered, That in accordance with the provisions of chapter 44 of the Resolves of 1926 a sum not in excess of fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500) be and hereby is appropriated to be expended under the direction of the Mayor by the special commission created by said resolve, said sum to be charged to the Reserve Fund.

LOAN FOR BRIDGES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, June 21, 1926.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am informed by the Commissioner of Public Works that two bridges over the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, namely, the Broadway, South Boston, Bridge and the West Newton Street Bridge are in such a condition as to make necessary their immediate rebuilding. As these two bridges are important parts of the highway system of the city, I feel that it is desirable that the Public Works Department should have the necessary funds available to place these bridges in such a condition that they can be used without danger to the life and property of the citizens of our city. I accordingly submit the accompanying loan orders providing for the appropriation of the necessary funds and respectfully recommend adoption of the same by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

TRANSFER IN FINANCE COMMISSION APPROPRIATION.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 21, 1926.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of the attached request for a transfer within the appropriations of the Finance Commission. I respectfully recommend the adoption of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Finance Commission, June 15, 1926.
Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Sir,—The Finance Commission desires to increase the salary of Anna B. O'Neil, case worker, from $1,500 to $1,800 a year. Will you therefore authorize the transfer of $300 from Item A-1, Case Worker, $3,000, to Item A-1, Case Worker, $1,500, and oblige,
Yours very truly,
CHARLES L. CARR, Chairman.

Ordered, That under the authority of chapter 261 of the Acts of 1893 the City Auditor be and hereby is authorized to make the following transfer in the appropriations for Finance Commission.

From the appropriation for A-1, Permanent Employees, Case Worker, 1 at $3,000 per year, $175, to the appropriation for A-1, Permanent Employees, Case Worker, 1 at $1,500 ($1,800) per year, $175.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

LAND, MEDFORD STREET, CHARLESTOWN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 21, 1926.
To the Honorable the City Council.

Gentlemen,—The property now owned by the City of Boston and situated at the corner of Medford and Terminal streets in the Charlestown district, which has been used for Public Works Department purposes, being no longer needed for public purposes, as is stated in a letter of the Public Works Commissioner hereto appended, and as the land and buildings are assessed for forty-two thousand dollars and as I am informed by Mr. Warren F. Freeman, the city real estate expert, that he has received an offer of forty-eight thousand dollars for the property, which in his opinion is a fair and reasonable price for the same, I recommend for your favorable consideration the passage of the accompanying order, which provides for the sale of the premises at public auction, at which auction the city will undoubtedly receive a bid for the amount of the offer and possibly a larger amount.

The real estate of the city which is no longer needed for public uses should not be allowed to remain fallow but should be disposed of and reduced to cash which should be used for the reduction of the city debt.

Respectfully,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department, June 21, 1926.
To the Honorable the Mayor.

On Medford street, Charlestown, we have some property known as the Charlestown Paving Yard which is no longer needed and which could be disposed of to advantage.

The horses and equipment of the Paving Service will be transferred to the yard on Rutherford avenue known as the Charlestown Sanitary Yard and the activities of both services conducted from that yard.

As the property on Medford street is no longer required for public purposes, I respectfully recommend your Honor's consideration to the disposal of the same.

Yours respectfully,
J. H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be and he hereby is authorized in the name and behalf of the City of Boston to sell at public auction at an upset price of forty-eight thousand dollars all the right, title and interest of the said city in and to the land, buildings, flats and dock situate in Charlestown, on the northeast side of Medford street at the corner of Terminal street so called and on the southeast side of said Terminal street, consisting approximately of thirty-nine thousand one hundred thirty-six square feet of solid, sixteen hundred square feet of flats and thirty-eight hundred square feet of dock, and that his Honor the Mayor be and he hereby is further authorized to execute and deliver to the purchaser of the above described premises a deed or release of said premises, satisfactory in form to the Law Department.

Referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

LOAN FOR RIVER STREET.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 21, 1926.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Under provisions of chapter 260 of the Acts of 1926 the city is authorized to borrow $250,000 for the reconstruction of River street, Hyde Park. This street is the main artery for traffic moving between Hyde Park and Mattapan. Its reconstruction will undoubtedly be of great value not only to the residents of these two sections but also to the city as a whole, since the new highway will serve to relieve the heavy congestion now felt in Mattapan square.

The act provides that a sum equal to 10 per cent of the authorized loan shall be raised from taxes or other sources of revenue. I accordingly submit herewith two orders, one providing for the appropriation of $250,000 outside the debt incurring power of the city, and the other for the appropriation of $25,000 to be included within the tax levy of the current year and respectfully recommend adoption of these orders by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 260 of the Acts of 1926 the sum of $250,000 be and hereby is appropriated to be expended by the Board of Street Commissioners for River Street Reconstruction, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be authorized to issue from time to time, on request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the City of Boston to said amount, the same to be issued outside the limit of indebtedness.

Ordered, That the sum of $25,000 be and hereby is appropriated to be expended by the Board of Street Commissioners, for River Street Reconstruction, in accordance with chapter 260 of the Acts of 1926, and the amount so appropriated be raised by taxation on the polls and estates in the City of Boston.

Referred to the Committee on Finance.

LOAN FOR OAKLAND AND ASHLAND STREETS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 21, 1926.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Under provisions of chapter 220 of the Acts of 1926 the city is authorized to borrow money for the widening of Oakland and Ashland streets in the West Roxbury section. The widening of these two streets has been agitated for a considerable number of years. The work when completed will undoubtedly help to relieve the traffic congestion which is now felt on Blue Hill avenue, since the widened thoroughfare will form a direct connecting highway for traffic moving between Mattapan square and Centre street, West Roxbury.

The act provides that a sum equal to 10 per cent of any loan authorized under its provisions must be voted for the same purpose and provided from taxes or other sources of revenue. In order that this 10 per cent may be included within the tax levy of the current year, I submit herewith two orders, one providing for an appropriation of $500,000 outside the debt limit of the city, and the other for $50,000 to be included in the tax levy of the current year. I respectfully recommend adoption of these orders by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 220 of the Acts of 1926 the sum of $500,000 be and hereby is appropriated to be expended by the Board of Street Commissioners for Oakland and Ashland Streets Improvement, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be authorized to issue from time to time, on request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the City of Boston to said amount, the same to be issued outside the limit of indebtedness.

Ordered, That the sum of $50,000 be and hereby is appropriated to be expended by the Board of Street Commissioners, for Oakland and Ashland Streets Improvement, in accordance with chapter 220 of the Acts of 1926, and the amount so appropriated be raised by taxation on the polls and estates in the City of Boston.

Referred to the Committee on Finance.

LOAN FOR PUMPING STATION, EAST BOSTON.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 21, 1926.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Under the provisions of chapter 259 of the Acts of 1926, the city is authorized to borrow money for the construction of a pumping station and outlet for sewage disposal in the Porter street section of East Boston. The filling in of the East Boston flats by the state has tended to deprive this section of a natural sewage outlet with the result that considerable difficulty has been experienced and many claims have been brought against the city for damages resulting from the backing up and flooding of property in this section.

The construction authorized under this act will remedy the existing difficulty and will insure the health and safety and will protect the health and property of the residents of this section of the city. I accordingly submit herewith two orders, one providing for the appropriation of $650,000 outside the debt limit of the city, and the other for the appropriation of $65,000 to be included in the tax levy of the current year. I respectfully recommend adoption of these orders by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 259 of the Acts of 1926 the sum of $650,000 be and hereby is appropriated to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Works, for East Boston Pumping Station and Outlet, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, on request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the City of Boston to said amount, the same to be issued outside the limit of indebtedness.

Ordered, That the sum of $65,000 be and hereby is appropriated to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Works, for East Boston Pumping Station and Outlet, in accordance with chapter 259 of the Acts of 1926, and the amount so appropriated be raised by taxation on the polls and estates in the City of Boston.

Report accepted; said order given its first reading and passage, yeas 19, nays 0.

President KEENE called for reports of the Executive Committee.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, before the reports of the Executive Committee are taken up, I would like to understand or find out whether or not the Finance Committee has reported on the passage of an order for a loan of $400,000 to be issued by Mayor Nichols, for the purchase of snow removal apparatus?

President KEENE—The Chair will say that the report is not before the Council at this time.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, I would like to ask the chairman of the committee, through the President, why the report is not ready at this stage, as I understand that the matter was acted upon Friday and that the report should be here today.

President KEENE—The Chair will state that that is a matter for the committee.

Coun. DOWD—Then, I assume that, in the opinion of the chairman, the report is not favorable to the Mayor of Boston, and that he does not dare to present it to the City Council?

Coun. GREEN—Mr. President, for the information of the gentleman who has just taken his seat, I will say that we had a meeting of the Committee on Finance last Friday, and that the gentleman who has just taken his seat waited on the Mayor with the other members of the committee. After we left the Mayor's office we went into executive session, and I polled the committee at that time, with the councilor from Roxbury sitting in the ante-room. We sent out four or five messengers for the gentleman, but he failed to respond. But the committee was polled unanimously, those present and voting, except Coun. Heffernan, who was not present, owing to the death of his brother, and the councilor from Roxbury who, as I have said, was sitting nearby who was present with us in the Mayor's office and who failed to respond when I polled the committee.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, if I may reply to the councilor from Charlestown, I will say that for the first time since I have been a member of the Council, having received a message from the Clerk of Committees to report at meetings of the Committee on Finance, I was ushered into the Mayor's office like a gentleman. I thought it was the old days, when Curley was Mayor. But it wasn't so. We went there and had an intelligent talk with the Mayor, and I was very much impressed by his talk. I waited two or three minutes to talk with the Mayor's secretary, and then I came up here to dictate two or three letters, and I doubt the statement of the gentleman from Charlestown when he says that I was polled, because I was sitting outside with Mr. Macomber, one of the stenographers, and I was not asked to even attend the meeting of the Committee on Finance, because they knew where Dowd stood, and they didn't want me to be there. But that is not the question at stake, which is this. They have had a committee meeting and, as the chairman has said, everybody but Heffernan and Dowd were there. I doubt whether that is true. I would like to find out, to understand where the other councilors stand on this question. I have understood that the Committee on Finance passed the resolution. If they did pass it, then I ask you, Mr. President, in justice to the citizens of Boston, why don't they present it here today, so that the Council can act on the matter intelligently?

Coun. GREEN—Mr. President, I don't know whether I am within the law or not in taking the position I do as chairman of the Committee on Finance, but I think it is optional with the chairman of the committee as to when he reports an order in here, and I don't think that the request of one member of that committee ought to force the chairman of the committee to report the order.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, all I can say is that the Mayor of Boston and the chairman of the Finance Commission are ducking the issue.

President KEENE—Reports of the Executive Committee.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. DOWLING, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

1. Report on the petition of Josephine Carleton (referred today) for children to appear at Parker Memorial Hall, June 25, 1926,—that the permit be granted.

Report accepted; permit granted under the usual conditions.

2. Report on order (submitted by the Mayor and referred today) that in accordance with the provisions of chapter 44 of the Resolves of 1926, a sum not in excess of $1,500 be appropriated to be expended under the direction of the Mayor by the Special Commission to report on the advisability of purchasing certain elevated structures now owned by the Elevated Railway Company—that the same ought to pass.

Report accepted, order passed, yeas 19, nays 0.

3. Report on message and order (referred today) for a transfer in the appropriation for Finance Commission—that the order ought to pass.

Report accepted, order passed, yeas 19, nays 0.

4. Report on order (referred today) authorizing a lease of the premises of the West Department of the Boston City Hospital in West Roxbury, to the United States, etc., that the same ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order given its second reading and passed, yeas 19, nays 0.

THE NEXT MEETING.

Coun. DOWLING—Mr. President, I move that when the Council adjourns it be to meet on Monday, July 12, at 2 p. m.

The President being in doubt called for a rising vote, and the motion was declared carried, 10 to 7.

Coun. RUBY further doubted the vote, and asked for the yeas and nays.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, before the roll is called, I ask you if there is any important city business coming up upon which we should act within the next three weeks?

President KEENE—Not that the Chair knows of at this time.

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. President if in order, I would like to make an amendment to that motion, that the Council adjourn until the 19th of July.

Coun. Fitzgerald's amendment was declared rejected, Coun. FREELEY doubted the vote and asked for a rising vote. The Council stood divided, and the amendment was rejected.

President KEENE—The Clerk will call the roll on the original motion.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, I move an amendment, sir, that the meeting of the Council be held regularly, as usual, every week.

President KEENE—The amendment is out of order. The Clerk will call the roll.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, why is the amendment out of order?

President KEENE—The Chair will state that if this motion is defeated we will meet as usual under the rules. The Clerk will call the roll.

The motion that when the Council adjourns it be to meet on Monday, July 12, at 2 p. m. was carried, yeas 10, nays 9:

Yeas—Coun. Arnold, Donovan, Dowling, Englert, Green, Guild, Keene, McGrath, Wilson, Wragg—10.

BOSTON CHARTER CHANGES.

In 1854, 1885, 1909 and 1924 important changes in the original City Charter of 1821 were effected for the purpose of improving the methods and efficiency of the City Government. The revision of 1854 (Chap. 448, Stat. 1854) referred to the voters for acceptance, gave the Mayor a qualified veto over the action of the City Council, also the power of removal of appointed officials, besides providing for his election by a plurality instead of a majority vote. The amendments of 1885 (Chap. 266, Stat. 1885) were not submitted to the voters for approval. They transferred all the executive powers to the Mayor, prohibiting the City Council from interference with the executive and administrative business of the City. This was done in order to end the inefficiency resulting from an excessive number of joint committees, a municipal development conforming to the traditions of the outgrown town government.

The amendments of 1909 (Chap. 486, Stat. 1909) cut down the number and powers of the legislative branch of the government to a minimum, the Board of Aldermen (13 members) and the Common Council (75 members) being abolished. For these was substituted a single City Council of nine members to be elected at large for 3-year term. The Mayor's position was further strengthened by giving him a 4-year term, subject to recall at end of two years, but requiring a majority vote of the registered voters to make the recall effective. The Mayor's power over appointments was no longer subject to check by aldermen but by a State board, the Civil Service Commission and City elections were removed from all connection with national and State politics, no primaries nor caucuses being permitted, all candidates for office to be selected by means of nomination papers. The only question in this Act of 1909 which was submitted to the voters was contained in section 35, i. e., whether Plan 1 or Plan 2 should be adopted, the first providing for a term of two years for Mayor and a City Council of 36 members to be chosen in primaries. Plan 2, providing for City Council of 9 members, was adopted by a majority of 3,894.

Charter of 1909 amended later as follows: (1) By Chap. 437, Acts of 1910, exempting loans issued for Rapid Transit construction from the prohibition of the establishing of sinking funds, as contained in sec. 26. (2) Chap. 730, Acts of 1914, fixing date of annual municipal election on the sixth Tuesday after the state election instead of in the following January, as in sec. 32; changing the requirements as to signatures on nomination papers to 3,000 for Mayor and 2,000 for City Council and School Committee instead of 5,000 for all, as in sec. 53, also limiting the number of nomination papers issued to 300 for a candidate for Mayor and 200 for other candidates, referring to sec. 54. (3) Chap. 37, Special Acts of 1918, annulling the jurat at end of nomination papers. (4) Chap. 94, Special Acts of 1918, abolishing recall of Mayor and making him ineligible for re-election, i. e., establishing a single term of four years, but not prohibiting the election of any Mayor for other than consecutive terms. (5) Chap. 288, Acts of 1921, fixing date of the annual municipal election on the first Tuesday after the second Monday in December, also making slight changes as to nominations. (6) Chap. 133, Acts of 1922, changing publication of list of City officials and employees to every second year from 1923. (7) Chap. 479, Acts of 1924, providing for biennial City elections (dating from Nov. 3, 1925); for borough or ward representation in City Council; for a fiscal year dating from Jan. 1 to Dec. 31, beginning in 1926, also a municipal year dating from the first Monday in January, to begin in 1926; for election of the five members of School Committee in 1925, the candidates receiving the two largest votes to hold office four years, the other three for two years and at the election in 1927 and thereafter the term for all to be four years.

The only amendment of 1924 subject to a referendum was the alternative of Plan 1 or Plan 2 as to the City Council. At the State election on Nov. 4 Plan 2 was adopted, providing for the election by each ward in 1925 and every second year thereafter of one councillor for 2-year term.

MAYORS OF BOSTON.

In its 103 years of existence as a city Boston has had 36 elected Mayors and five ex-officio Acting Mayors. Of the 36 men who have held the office for one year or more, six were elected for other than consecutive terms and 25 were re-elected one or more times. Those born within the present limits of Boston numbered 21; in towns near Boston, 8; in neighboring New England States, 5; in Ireland, 2. The Mayor longest in office was Mayor Curley who served 4 years ending Feb., 1918 and 3 years and 11 months, ending 1925. Next in length of service was Mayor Lincoln, serving 3 years ending 1860 and 4 years ending 1866. The first Mayor Quincy had the distinction of serving through six successive one-year terms ending 1828, and Mayor Fitzgerald also served six years but in two separated terms. Those who served 4 years were Mayors Prince, O'Brien, Matthews, (third) Quincy, Hart and Peters. Mayor Collins was in office nearly 4 years, his death occurring 3½ months before his second term expired. Those serving 3 years were Mayors Otis, Eliot, Chapman (second) Quincy, Bigelow, Shurtleff and Cobb; 2 years, Mayors Wells, Lyman, Brimmer, Seaver, Smith, Rice, Wightman, Gaston, Pierce (22 months) and Hibbard; 1 year, Mayors Phillips, Armstrong, Davis, Norcross, Green, Palmer, Martin and Curtis. Mayor Armstrong was Lieutenant-Governor and at times Acting Governor before serving as Mayor. Mayors Rice and Gaston served 3 years and 1 year (respectively) as Governor after their terms as Mayor. Mayors Collins, Curley, Fitzgerald, Peters, Pierce and Rice have represented Boston in the lower house of Congress, Mayor Peters having also served as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

Ex-Mayor Curtis was appointed Police Commissioner in 1919 for term of five years but his service was terminated by his death in 1922. Ex-Mayor Quincy died in 1919, and Ex-Mayor Green in 1918. SETTLEMENT OF BOSTON, 1630.

Effected by Puritan colonists under Governor John Winthrop in the latter part of August, 1630. The name of the original settlement was changed to Boston from Trimountaine by order of the Court of Assistants on September 7 (O. S.), 1630. This date was moved forward by the New Style calendar in 1752 to Sept. 17, the recognized date of the founding of Boston. The name, Trimountaine, had been given because of the three peaks of the most prominent hill, afterward called Beacon Hill, much higher then than now. By the Indians the place was called Shawmut. The name, Boston, was derived from the English town of Boston in Lincolnshire, the home of some of the leading colonists and promoters of the enterprise.

WILL BROADCAST CONCERTS FROM COMMON BANDSTAND.

Mayor Nichols has instructed the Park Commissioners to consider the question of the utilization to a fuller extent of the loud-speaking apparatus and radio outfit in the Parkman Bandstand on Boston Common, and as a result the Park Department has voted to have noonday concerts, also Saturday afternoon and Sunday concerts when the bandstand is not being used for band concert purposes. Also during the afternoons and evenings when the weather permits.

It is the Mayor's belief that during the summer months the people of the city, who use the Common, should be given an opportunity to enjoy to the fullest extent the broadcasting equipment of the city.

The Mayor has approved the following contracts awarded without advertising; requests of heads of departments to do the work with the department forces without advertising; additions to and deductions from contracts.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT (Paving Service).

Upon June 23 the Mayor approved a contract with Carmine A. Barasso for the construction of artificial sidewalks. A communication from J. H. Sullivan of the Public Works Department, was as follows:

BOSTON, June 21, 1926.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Permission to award a contract for the construction of artificial stone sidewalks in the public streets, without advertising, to Carmine A. Barasso, 31 Waverly street, Brighton, is hereby requested on the ground that this contractor is not selected by the city in the first instance but by the abutters; secondly, the expense of construction is to be divided by the city and abutters; also because such contracts vary greatly in amounts and seldom involve one thousand (1,000) dollars.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Upon June 23 the Mayor approved a contract with John H. McNulty for the construction of artificial sidewalks. A communication from J. H. Sullivan of the Public Works Department, was as follows:

McNulty, 3858 Washington street, West Roxbury, is hereby requested on the ground that this contractor is not selected by the city in the first instance but by the abutters; secondly, the expense of construction is to be divided by the city and abutters; also because such contracts vary greatly in amounts and seldom involve one thousand (1,000) dollars.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Upon June 25 the Mayor approved a contract with the H. E. Fletcher Company for the delivery of edgestones. A communication from J. H. Sullivan of the Public Works Department was as follows:

BOSTON, June 3, 1926.

To the Mayor of Boston.

A contract was awarded July 25, 1925, to H. E. Fletcher Company for 50,000 linear feet, more or less, of edgestone to be delivered when and where required until December 31, 1925.

Owing to the delay caused by the installation of underground structures, a number of streets, including Morton street, were not sufficiently advanced in the process of construction to receive the edgestone. Approximately 40,000 linear feet were delivered and set, and there remains a balance of 10,000 linear feet to be delivered on that contract.

Morton street construction is now at the stage where edgestones are required in order that the work may proceed without delay. The department needs about 7,000 linear feet at once, and I respectfully request your approval of the award of a contract, in excess of $1,000, without advertising, for immediate deliver, pending the advertising and awarding of a contract to cover the needs of the department for the balance of the season.

Yours respectfully,

J. H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Authority is requested to award a contract to Warren Brothers Company in excess of $1,000, without advertising, to repair the bitulithic pavement in Berkeley street, where it intersects Commonwealth avenue.

This area is under the control of the Park Commissioners and these repairs are made necessary by the installation of the 48-inch high service water main during the winter. The pavement was originally laid by the Warren Brothers Company.

Yours respectfully,

J. H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Upon June 29 the Mayor approved a contract with Albert W. Mayers for the construction of artificial sidewalks. A communication from J. H. Sullivan of the Public Works Department was as follows:

BOSTON, June 25, 1926.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Permission to award a contract for the construction of artificial stone sidewalks in the public streets, without advertising, to Albert W. Mayers, 68 Marine road, South Boston, is hereby requested on the ground that this contractor is not selected by the city in the first instance but by the abutters; secondly, the expense of construction is to be divided by the city and abutters; also because such contracts vary greatly in amounts and seldom involve one thousand (1,000) dollars.

Respectfully yours,

J. H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SETTLEMENT OF BOSTON, 1630.

Effected by Puritan colonists under Governor John Winthrop in the latter part of August, 1630. The name of the original settlement was changed to Boston from Trimountaine by order of the Court of Assistants on September 7 (O. S.), 1630. This date was moved forward by the New Style calendar in 1752 to Sept. 17, the recognized date of the founding of Boston. The name, Trimountaine, had been given because of the three peaks of the most prominent hill, afterward called Beacon Hill, much higher then than now. By the Indians the place was called Shawmut. The name, Boston, was derived from the English town of Boston in Lincolnshire, the home of some of the leading colonists and promoters of the enterprise.

APPOINTMENTS.

(Head Master, Day High School).

Memorial High Schools (Girls)—Myrtle C. Dickson, head master (from assistant, Roxbury High School), June 9, 1926.

Mrs. Barron called attention to the fact that this is the first time in the history of the Boston public schools that a woman has been appointed to the head-mastership of a high school.

Mr. O'Hare spoke in favor of the Superintendent's nomination and emphasized the meaning of the appointment to the women of the service. In his judgment it is a recognition of the equality of the sexes, a principle for which he has always stood. Furthermore, it is wholly in accordance with his previously expressed opinion that for girls' schools a woman should be appointed, for boys' schools a man should be appointed, and in the case of mixed schools numerical priority, regardless of sex, should be the determining factor.

Mr. Sullivan stated that he is voting for the Superintendent's nomination because he has been assured by the Superintendent that, in his judgment, Miss Dickson is the one best qualified under the present rating system for appointment as head of this big girls' school. He still believes that numerical priority determines merit and that educational opportunity should not be considered in making appointments, since the primary purpose is and always should be the welfare of the children.

AMENDMENT TO REGULATIONS

A communication was received from the Board of Superintendents.

under date of June 1, 1926, reporting that it has carefully considered the suggestion of the School Committee that separate and distinct rated lists be established for the benefit of candidates for re-entrance to the service under the provision for former teachers who have passed their fortieth birthday but have not passed their fiftieth birthday; that it seems impracticable to establish distinct lists for these candidates; that since the teachers of this group are required to pass the regularly prescribed certificate examinations, the satisfactory passing of such examinations should be sufficient guarantee of the teachers' fitness, and recommending an amendment to the existing regulations to omit the requirement of appointment from the eligible lists.

Placed on file.

The following was offered:
ORDERED, That the Regulations are hereby amended as follows:
Section 265, paragraph 2 (a). Strike out the paragraph and substitute in place thereof, the following:

2. Re-entrance to service, other than as provided for in the foregoing paragraph, may be allowed under the following conditions:

(a) Re-entrants to Permanent Service after the Fortieth Birthday and up to and including the Fiftieth Birthday.

Teachers who have held permanent positions in the day school service who have passed their fortieth birthday, but have not reached their fiftieth birthday, shall be eligible for re-entrance to the rank in which they were serving at the time of resignation, or to an equivalent or lower rank covered by the certificate under which service was previously rendered, provided they shall pass the regular prescribed examinations, and provided further that it shall be found that such candidates for re-entrance are financially dependent upon their own resources. The regulations governing appointments from the eligible lists shall not apply to these re-entrant teachers.

Re-entrants under the provisions of this paragraph shall be appointed upon the minimum salary of their respective ranks, and be advanced upon their anniversaries until the maximum of the rank is reached.

Laid over.

ELIGIBLE LIST

A communication was received from the Board of Superintendents, under date of June 1, 1926, submitting the following list of successful candidates of December, 1925, for certain certificates of qualifications, as reported by the Board of Examiners.

These names do not constitute separate eligible lists, but should be inserted in School Document No. 5, 1925, at the points indicated by the several ratings.

INCREASE IN MINIMUM SALARY OF CUSTODIANS.

A communication was received from the Business Manager, under date of June 7, 1926, recommending the passage of accompanying orders amending School Document No. 10, 1918, A Schedule of Compensation for Custodian Service of School Buildings, as amended Jan. 5, 1920, and June 23, 1924, which orders provide for a minimum wage of thirty-two dollars ($32) per week for custodians and regular substitute custodians, instead of twenty-eight dollars ($28) per week, as now allowed, to take effect Sept. 1, 1926; pointing out that the Mayor and the City Council have established a weekly wage for laborers of thirty dollars ($30) per week; that custodians are skilled workmen and must pass a competitive civil service examination to determine their qualifications for the position of custodian; and that there is sufficient reserve in the appropriation item "Salaries of Custodians (Including Matrons)" to meet the cost of this increase.

Placed on file.

On motion, it was ORDERED, That the salary of a regular substitute custodian is hereby established at the rate of thirty-two dollars ($32) per week, and that such rate of compensation shall take effect Sept. 1, 1926.

On motion, it was ORDERED, That the compensation of a custodian of any building or group of buildings containing not less than four class rooms, shall in no case be less than thirty-two dollars ($32) per week, and that such rate of compensation shall take effect Sept. 1, 1926.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The order laid over at the meeting of June 1, 1926, amending section 265, paragraph 2 (a) of the regulations relative to re-entrants to permanent service after the fortieth and up to and including the fiftieth birthday, was taken up.

On motion, the order was amended by inserting the word "Women" at the beginning of the fifth paragraph, so that the paragraph will read as follows:

Women teachers who have held permanent positions in the day school service who have passed their fortieth birthday, but have not reached their fiftieth birthday, shall be eligible for re-entrance to the rank in which they were serving at the time of resignation, or to an equivalent or lower rank covered by the certificate under which service was previously rendered, provided they shall pass the regular prescribed examinations, and provided further that it shall be found that such candidates for re-entrance are financially dependent upon their own resources. The regulations governing appointments from the eligible lists shall not apply to these re-entrant teachers.

The order, as amended, was passed under a suspension of the rules.

The sixteen orders laid over at the meeting of June 1, 1926, making changes in and additions to the authorized list of text and supplementary books, were taken up and passed unanimously.

The Board adjourned.

BOSTON CHARTER CHANGES.

In 1854, 1885, 1909 and 1924 important changes in the original City Charter of 1821 were effected for the purpose of improving the methods and efficiency of the City Government. The revision of 1854 (Chap. 448, Stat. 1854) referred to the voters for acceptance, gave the Mayor a qualified veto over the action of the City Council, also the power of removal of appointed officials, besides providing for his election by a plurality instead of a majority vote. The amendments of 1885 (Chap. 266, Stat. 1885) were not submitted to the voters for approval. They transferred all the executive powers to the Mayor, prohibiting the City Council form interference with the executive and administrative business of the City. This was done in order to end the inefficiency resulting from an excessive number of joint committees, a municipal development conforming to the traditions of the outgrown town government.

The amendments of 1909 (Chap. 486, Stat. 1909) cut down the number and powers of the legislative branch of the government to a minimum, the Board of Aldermen (13 members) and the Common Council (75 members) being abolished. For these was substituted a single City Council of nine members to be elected at large for 3-year term. The Mayor's position was further strengthened by giving him a 4-year term, subject to recall at end of two years, but requiring a majority vote of the registered voters to make the recall effective. The Mayor's power over appointments was no longer subject to check by aldermen but by a State board, the Civil Service Commission and City elections were removed from all connection with national and State politics, no primaries nor caucuses being permitted, all candidates for office to be selected by means of nomination papers. The only question in this Act of 1909 which was submitted to the voters was contained in section 35, i. e., whether Plan 1 or Plan 2 should be adopted, the first providing for a term of two years for Mayor and a City Council of 36 members to be chosen in primaries. Plan 2, providing for City Council of 9 members, was adopted by a majority of 3,894.

Charter of 1909 amended later as follows: (1) By Chap. 437, Acts of 1910, exempting loans issued for Rapid Transit construction from the prohibition of the establishing of sinking funds, as contained in sec. 26. (2) Chap. 730, Acts of 1914, fixing date of annual municipal election on the sixth Tuesday after the state election instead of in the following January, as in sec. 32; changing the requirements as to signatures on nomination papers to 3,000 for Mayor and 2,000 for City Council and School Committee instead of 5,000 for all, as in sec. 53, also limiting the number of nomination papers issued to 300 for a candidate for Mayor and 200 for other candidates, referring to sec. 54. (3) Chap. 37, Special Acts of 1918, annulling the jurat at end of nomination papers. (4) Chap. 94, Special Acts of 1918, abolishing recall of Mayor and making him ineligible for re-election, i. e., establishing a single term of four years, but not prohibiting the election of any Mayor for other than consecutive terms. (5) Chap. 288, Acts of 1921, fixing date of the annual municipal election on the first Tuesday after the second Monday in December, also making slight changes as to nominations. (6) Chap. 133, Acts of 1922, changing publication of list of City officials and employees to every second year from 1923. (7) Chap. 479, Acts of 1924, providing for biennial City elections (dating from Nov. 3, 1925); for borough or ward representation in City Council; for a fiscal year dating from Jan. 1 to Dec. 31, beginning in 1926, also a municipal year dating from the first Monday in January, to begin in 1926; for election of the five members of School Committee in 1925, the candidates receiving the two largest votes to hold office four years, the other three for two years and at the election in 1927 and thereafter the term for all to be four years.

The only amendment of 1924 subject to a referendum was the alternative of Plan 1 or Plan 2 as to the City Council. At the State election on Nov. 4 Plan 2 was adopted, providing for the election by each ward in 1925 and every second year thereafter of one councillor for 2-year term.

UNDERGROUND RAPID TRANSIT IN BOSTON.

The Boston Transit Commission, consisting of five members, two appointed by the Governor and three by the Mayor, began its official existence, July 1, 1894, and ended it July 1, 1918, after seven extensions of the original term. It constructed, under the authority of Acts of the Legislature, the following subways and tunnels, the ownership of which is vested in the City of Boston, and all costs to be covered by revenue from same, not by taxation; Tremont Street Subway, from Broadway and Tremont St., South End, to North Station and from Boylston St., near Charles to Park St., 1.68 miles, opened to Park St. September 1, 1897, and to North Station on Sept. 3, 1898, costing with subsequent alterations, $4,416,000, the first transportation subway in the United States; East Boston Tunnel, from Maverick square, E. Boston, under Boston Harbor and State St. to Scollay square, Boston Proper, 1.42 miles, opened December 30, 1904, costing $3,336,000, the first all-concrete underwater transportation tunnel in the world; Washington Street Tunnel, from Ash st. opp. Nasau, South End, to Traverse st., near North Station, 1.16 miles, opened November 30, 1908, costing $8,496,700 (including $2,850,000 land damages; Cambridge Connection Subway, from under Park st. station of Tremont St. Subway to Grove st., near Cambridge Bridge, 0.47 miles, opened March 23, 1912, costing $1,465,000; Boylston Street Subway from Commonwealth ave., near Kenmore st., Back Bay, to Tremont St. Subway, near Charles st., 1.5 miles, opened October 3, 1914, costing $5,485,639; East Boston Tunnel Extension from Scollay square to North Russell st., 0.41 miles, opened March 18, 1916, approximate cost, $2,523,000; Dorchester Tunnel, from Park st., Boston Proper, to Andrew square, South Boston, 2.26 miles, opened December 3, 1916, as far as South Station; on December 15, 1917, to Broadway, South Boston, and on June 29, 1918, to the Andrew Square terminal. Trains of four or six cars are run in the East Boston Tunnel, the Washington St. Tunnel, continuing on elevated track to Forest Hills, also in Dorchester Tunnel from Andrew sq., So. Boston, connecting with Cambridge Tunnel, to Harvard sq., Cambridge, while only single or double street-cars are run in the other tunnels and subways. Cost of Dorchester tunnel, $11,016,700 to Jan. 31, 1925; of new Arlington Station extending under Boylston St., between Arlington and Berkeley, $1,230,676; of East Boston Tunnel Alterations, Maverick sq., $3,768,857.

Total gross debt on Feb. 1, 1925 for all subways and tunnels, $42,096,700; against which a sinking fund of $7,825,262 has been accumulated from the revenue, making the net debt $34,271,438. The loans are payable mostly in 40 years from date of each (loans since 1911 payable in 45 years), annual interest averaging 3.8 per cent.

These underground ways, about nine miles in all with total of 19.27 miles of single track, were leased to the Boston Elevated Railway Company (which furnished the equipment) for term of 25 years (except Tremont Street 20 years) at annual rental of $4\frac{1}{2}$ to $4\frac{3}{4}$ per cent of net cost (except East Boston Tunnel which was at $\frac{1}{4}$ of one per cent of all annual gross receipts of said company).

In accordance with Chapter 741, Acts of 1911, the various leases were extended to July 1, 1936, the rental to be $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent of net cost after expiration of the first-term leases.

By Chap. 185, Special Acts of 1918, the powers of the Transit Commission, whose term expired that year, were transferred to the Mayor, Commissioner of Public Works and City Treasurer, or such person or persons, not exceeding three, as the Mayor might appoint. By Chap. 3, Ordinances of 1918, the Transit Dept. was established as a regular City department, to be in charge of three commissioners.

By Chap. 480, Acts of 1923, the extension of the Dorchester Tunnel from Andrew Square about 1,300 feet southerly was ordered, the proposed new railway location then coming to the surface 400 feet southeast of Dorchester Ave., thence continuing to Harrison Square; thence along the Shawmut Branch railroad to its termination at Blue Hill Ave. and River St., Mattapan.

Loans issued in 1924-25 for Dorchester Tunnel extension, $300,000 and for Dorchester Rapid Transit, $150,000.

600,000 BOSTON CITIZENS ESTIMATED TO HAVE SHARED IN CITY'S 143d CELEBRATION OF INDEPENDENCE DAY. MANY FEATURES PROVIDED FOR EVERYBODY.

Boston's official observance of her sesquicentennial celebration of Independence Day will go down in the history of such events as the most memorable event of the kind ever held in the city. It is estimated that at least 600,000 citizens and visitors shared in the events of the day, as provided by the Public Celebrations Committee, with George H. Johnson, director, in charge, aided by groups of citizens interested in the success of such events.

The celebration of the day was divided into three especial features, an official municipal observance beginning with a flag raising at City Hall in the morning, followed by a short parade to the Old State House for exercises, and then to Faneuil Hall for an oration by Hon. Andrew J. Peters, former mayor of Boston.

A second feature was the official welcome, extended by the citizens of Boston, through Mayor Malcolm E. Nichols, to Lieut.-Commander Richard E. Byrd and Aviation Pilot Floyd Bennett of the Navy, the first men to fly over the North Pole. The third feature was the open-air community demonstration on the Common at the Frog Pond. In addition to these there were athletic events for amateurs at the Charlesbank Gymnasium and swimming events in the Charles River Basin, in which some of the most noted athletes in New England contested and which were witnessed by thousands of those sharing in the spirit of the day.

By far the greatest attractions of the day were the welcome to the North Pole flyers, the pageant demonstration, and the exhibition of fireworks in the evening. This latter event was witnessed and enjoyed by more than 100,000 persons.

Following the exercises at Faneuil Hall in the morning the Mayor tendered a luncheon to the city's guests of the day who were as follows: Former Mayor Andrew J. Peters; Ransom Peters; Lieut.-Commander Richard E. Byrd; Aviation Pilot Floyd Bennett; Mrs. Floyd Bennett; Lieut. Geo. Noville, U. S. N.; Hon. E. P. Warner, Assistant Secretary Navy; Porter Adams, chairman Municipal Air Board; Mrs. Porter Adams; Lieut.-Col. Henry D. Cormerais, M. N. G.; Col. Frederick W. Stopford, U. S. A.; Maj. Charles T. Harding, O. R. C.; Capt. John J. Flynn, U. S. M. C. R.; Lieut.-Commander C. O. Bassett, U. S. N. R.; Capt. William N. McKenna, Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company; Maj.

CALLS FOR SIMPLE, CLEAR THINKING, IN INDEPENDENCE DAY ADDRESS.

At Independence Day exercises on Boston Common, July 5, Mayor Malcolm E. Nichols delivered the following address:

The Fourth of July is one of the greatest days in human history. It marks the practical application of an old truth that all men are created equal. The statement of this truth in the Declaration of Independence was so simple and straightforward that it has guided men through their trials for many generations. We learn the lessons contained in that statement made in the Declaration of Independence through such observances as this.

Truth in its essence is simple. Applying it to the complexities of human life is a difficult and sometimes a seemingly impossible task. The greatness of the men who wrote this truth in the immortal Declaration lay in their ability to bring it home to the hearts of the whole world.

Our celebration in Faneuil Hall and on Boston Common teaches us again the lessons of the Declaration of Independence. These lessons convey their meaning to the full extent that we make them a part of our daily lives.

There is need for simple and straightforward thinking. Clear thought finds its expression in apt and incisive words. Clear thought, however, requires something more than scholarship for its perfection. It requires courage to say at the proper time what ought to be said. This our forefathers possessed. It explains why they were able to translate thought into action. I know of no quality so essential in human endeavor today as clear thinking backed up by courage, but there can be no courage to do without an abiding faith in the guidance of a higher power.

Boston was the theater upon which a great drama was staged, where men were required to show the fine and staunch qualities of that leadership which has made our country great. Ours is an opportunity unsurpassed for a fitting recognition of such leadership.

It seems, therefore, to me that the celebration of the Fourth of July in Boston has a singular and deep significance for us all. I think it means that we today by a fitting commemoration of the great event of one hundred and fifty years ago announce the high spirit which men felt then as ours today.

The commemoration of such an event is a powerful stimulus in the shaping of great policies. It proclaims anew the triumph of that which was found to be right.

The teaching of equality taught us that the Old World doctrine of privilege was contrary to Divine law. It sets aside the pretensions not only of unjust majorities but of unfair minorities. It contains the thought that men have rights which governments are formed to protect.

It is for us in this present day and generation to realize and assume in every action that rights carry with them responsibilities and that he is the best citizen who not only upholds his rights but lives up to his obligations.

600,000 CITIZENS SHARED IN CELEBRATION.

The Mayor has received the following communication commenting on the celebration of Independence Day:

BOSTON, July 8, 1926.

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MAYOR NICHOLS,—Approximately 600,000 people participated in the 143d municipal observance of the 150th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence. This is absolute proof of the real community and welfare spirit that exists in every ward of our city as showing the active interest of every man, woman and child in the affairs that are going on and what is being done for real patriotism, with the human touch in creating a clear vision of admiration, pride and good-will among our citizenship.

The flag ceremony in the presence of approximately a thousand citizens in front of City Hall with your Honor's escort, representing many of the military veteran organizations, was followed by the march to the Old State House, where the time honored historical feature of the reading of the Declaration of Independence from the famous balcony to an audience of approximately 3,000 people was enacted. Then on to illustrious Faneuil Hall for the impressive exercises in which all nationalities, creeds and colors took part, in the presence of a distinguished audience of interested persons.

These were followed by the trip to Lake street, with a large automobile escort, to receive the hero of the hour, Lieut.-Commander Richard E. Byrd, U. S. N., Ret., with Aviation Pilot Floyd Bennett, U. S. N., Lieut. George Noville, associates of the airship Josephine Ford, who flew over the North Pole, the world's great and latest achievement; presenting him to thousands along the route to his destination, the Parkman Bandstand, where he received the gifts, honor and tribute of approximately 30,000 Bostonians assembled at that place venting their red-blooded admiration for the wonderful daring and courageous accomplishment of these air men.

In the afternoon the "Liberty" pageant was produced by the Community Service Association to an audience of 50,000 delighted and contented people. This was followed by an evening demonstration, with a cast of several hundred persons, to a gathering of satisfied and happy families estimated at 125,000 by the superintendent of the Common who has served in that capacity for a period of forty years. This was a safe and sane 4th of July celebration, fortunately, conducted without a single accident or any feature to mar the most enjoyable celebration ever conducted by your Honor's General Citizens Committee.

Every ward of the city had a celebration of its own attended by thousands of children and every attention was given to their comfort, delight and entertainment with a distribution of over 120,000 ice cream Hoodies and lolly-pops with the additional yachting and swimming races at South Boston and athletic games at Charlesbank Gymnasium and sculling races on Charles river before probably 100,000 people. There was an attendance of about 100,000 at the entertainment at Franklin Field, and

East Bostonites, numbering 25,000, enjoyed their festival celebration, and an immense well-conducted celebration was successfully executed in the Brighton and Allston district, enjoyed by 30,000 people.

With the general activity of councilors in rendering service in the ward celebrations, consisting of various citizens committees, a careful and conservative estimate shows that approximately 600,000 fathers, mothers and children were privileged to enjoy the great celebration under your splendid leadership.

Very truly yours,

GEORGE H. JOHNSON,
Director.

CONTRACTS AWARDED.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS DEPARTMENT.

Upon July 2 the Mayor approved a contract with E. H. Tarbell Company for the installation of lighting fixtures for Police Headquarters Building at the corner of Berkeley and Stuart streets. A communication from John P. Englert of the Public Buildings Department was as follows:

In response to a readvertisement appearing in the City Record, the Public Buildings Department on Wednesday, April 14, 1926, publicly opened and read bids for furnishing lighting fixtures for the Police Headquarters Building, Berkeley and Stuart streets, with the following result:

Item 1.—E. H. Tarbell Company, $4,685; the Kennedy Company, $4,842.43; Pettingill-Andrews Company, $6,006.22; Wetmore-Savage Electric Company $6,205; Bigelow Kennard Company, Inc., $7,838.45.

Item 2.—E. H. Tarbell Company, $1,445; the Kennedy Company, $1,800.05; Pettingill-Andrews Company, $1,897.50; Wetmore-Savage Electric Company, $2, 400; Bigelow Kennard Company, Inc., $1,725.

Item 3.—E. H. Tarbell Company, $800; the Kennedy Company, $1,130; Pettingill-Andrews Company, $962.50; Wetmore-Savage Electric Company, $1,040; Bigelow Kennard Company, Inc., $875.

Item 4.—E. H. Tarbell Company, $1,300; the Kennedy Company, $1,730; Pettingill-Andrews Company, $1,430; Wetmore-Savage Electric Company, $1,600; Bigelow Kennard Company, Inc., $1,300.

Item 5.—E. H. Tarbell Company, $3,240; the Kennedy Company, $3,042.38; Pettingill-Andrews Company, $4,108.72; Wetmore-Savage Electric Company, $3,805; Bigelow Kennard Company, Inc., $6,113.45.

You will observe that the lowest bidder on practically all of the items was Messrs. E. H. Tarbell Company.

I requested that permission be granted to execute a contract with the E. H. Tarbell Company for the furnishing of these fixtures in the sum of $5,985. You approved same on May 8, 1926, and on same being returned to this office it was discovered that there was a discrepancy in the figures.

I have received a communication from the architects, Messrs. Ritchie, Parsons & Taylor, bearing on same which will thoroughly explain the situation, a copy of which I am attaching herewith.

I now wish to withdraw my letter of April 16, 1926, regarding same and to request permission to award the contract for the furnishing and installation of lighting fixtures at the Police Headquarters Building to Messrs. E. H. Tarbell Company in the sum of $5,185.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN P. ENGLERT,
Superintendent of Public Buildings.

ARCHITECT'S LETTER.

BOSTON, May 14, 1926.

MR. JOHN P. ENGLERT, Superintendent of Public Buildings, Boston.

DEAR MR. ENGLERT,—In a further analyses of the lighting fixtures bids received for the Police Headquarters Building, I discovered that this office has made an error in recommending to you the award of the contract to E. H. Tarbell Company in the amount of $5,985. This contract should be awarded to them as the low bidder for $5,185. The explanation of the eight hundred dollar difference is that their base bid of $4,685 includes $800 for the two outside lanterns if they are executed in iron. Item No. 4 calls for the cost of these same fixtures if executed in bronze, and the amount named by Tarbell for this was $1,300. In compiling these fixtures, I assumed that the instructions I had given in our drafting room for the preparation of the specifications had been carried out and that Item No. 4 indicated the net increase if these fixtures were executed in bronze. I find that it is not worded that way, and therefore I was in error in adding Items No. 1 and No. 4 together for I should have first deducted $800 from Item No. 1 and then added $1,300, so that changes the contract price to $5,185.

Very truly yours,

JOHN H. RITCHIE.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

The Mayor has approved the following contracts awarded without advertising; requests of heads of departments to do the work with the department forces without advertising; additions to and deductions from contracts.

PENAL INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

Upon July 6 the Mayor approved a contract with the J. W. Myerson Company for the exchange of two motors. A communication from Philip A. Chapman of the Penal Institutions Department was as follows:

BOSTON, July 3, 1926.

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Your approval is respectfully requested for an even exchange with the J. W. Myerson Company of one Westinghouse motor, Type S. K., 10 horse power, 1,300 R. P. M., 230 volts, and one Triumph electric motor, 10 horse power, 750 R. P. M., 220 volts for one 10 horse power motor suitable for our needs.

The two motors being exchanged by this department were two that were salvaged from Rainsford Island when the School for Boys was abandoned and are not proper voltage to be operated by our current.

Another concern, F. W. Ridlon Company, was requested to make an offer and their bid called for the exchange of our two motors and the payment by the city of $89.

I accordingly recommend your approval for this exchange to the J. W. Myerson Company.

Yours respectfully,

PHILIP A. CHAPMAN,
Penal Institutions Commissioner.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT. (Paving Service).

Upon July 1 the Mayor approved a contract with the Burton H. Wiggin Company for the construction of artificial stone sidewalks. A communication from J. H. Sullivan of the Public Works Department was as follows:

BOSTON, June 29, 1926.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Permission to award a contract for the construction of artificial stone sidewalks in the public streets, without advertising, to Burton H. Wiggin Company, 529 Chamber of Commerce Building, Boston, is hereby requested on the ground that this contractor is not selected by the city in the first instance but by the abutters; secondly, the expense of construction is to be divided by the city and abutters; also because such contracts vary greatly in amounts and seldom involve one thousand (1,000) dollars.

Respectfully yours,

J. H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Upon July 7 the Mayor approved a contract with Vincenzo, Messina for the construction of artificial sidewalks. A communication from J. H. Sullivan of the Public Works Department was as follows:

BOSTON, July 6, 1926.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Permission to award a contract for the construction of artificial stone sidewalks in the public streets, without advertising, to Vincenzo Messina, 90 Havre street, East Boston, is hereby requested on the ground that this contractor is not selected by the city in the first instance but by the abutters; secondly, the expense of construction is to be divided by the city and abutters; also because such contracts vary greatly in amounts and seldom involve one thousand (1,000) dollars.

Respectfully yours,

J. H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SCHOOLHOUSE DEPARTMENT.

Upon July 2 the Mayor approved a contract with O'Brien, Russell & Co. for insuring boilers in the public schools. A communication from Francis E. Slattery of the Schoolhouse Department was as follows:

BOSTON, June 14, 1926.

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—The Board of Schoolhouse Commissioners respectfully requests the approval of your Honor, under the provisions of section 30, chapter 486 of the Acts of 1909, to awarding a contract, without advertising, to O'Brien, Russell & Co., 108 Water street, for insuring the boilers in the public schoolhouses of the City of Boston for the period from the 15th day of June, 1926, to the 15th day of June, 1929, for the sum of $10,310.50.

The reason for making this request is that the amount for which the company agrees to perform the contract is the standard price of all insurance companies authorized to do boiler inspection under the laws of the State of Massachusetts. The Board is therefore of the opinion that no benefit would result to the city from advertising this work, and consequently recommends that your Honor approve the awarding of the contract to the above mentioned company in the sum of $10,310.50, as stated.

Respectfully yours,

F. E. SLATTERY,
Chairman.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

Upon July 7 the Mayor approved a contract with the H. E. Fletcher Company for furnishing 50,000 feet of edge-stones to the Public Works Department. A communication from Herbert S. Frost of the Supply Department was as follows:

BOSTON, July 7, 1926

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—A contract was awarded July 25, 1925, to H. E. Fletcher Company for 50,000 linear feet, more or less, of edgestone to be delivered when and where required until December 31, 1925.

Owing to the delay caused by the installation of underground structures, a number of streets, including Morton street, were not sufficiently advanced in the process of construction to receive the edgestone. Approximately 40,000 linear feet were delivered and set, and there remains a balance of 10,000 linear feet to be delivered on that contract.

Morton street construction is now at the stage where edgestones are required in order that the work may proceed without delay.

At the present time the Public Works Department is in urgent need of 10,000 linear feet of straight edgestone, and as the H. E. Fletcher Company has this stone at the present time all out and ready for delivery, I respectfully request, in view of the necessity for immediate delivery, that permission be granted me to award a contract, without publicly advertising for same, to the H. E. Fletcher Company for furnishing 10,000 linear feet of straight edgestone at a price of one dollar seventy cents ($1.70) per linear foot.

Respectfully yours,

HERBERT S. FROST,
Superintendent of Supplies.

ORDERS OF ADDITIONS.

SCHOOLHOUSE DEPARTMENT.

The Mayor has approved issuance of the following orders of additions to contracts:

The issuance of an order of addition, in the sum of $3,237.19, to the contract of R. J. Connolly for alterations to House Nos. 6 and 7 Paulding street, Lewis District.

The issuance of an order of addition, in the sum of $2,989.50, to the contract of Leighton-Mitchell Company for erection and completion of the Lewis School Addition, Walnut avenue, Roxbury. In explanation of this extra work we would say as follows:

According to the original plans, under which work was contracted for by Leighton-Mitchell Company, certain partitions shown on the plans were to be removed, so as to obtain a wider corridor connecting the new with the old building. When these partitions were removed, vent and soil pipes were exposed, whose presence was not known before the partitions were removed, and which necessarily had to be relocated. Also, Mr. Haines, principal of the school, stated that extra toilets, on the first and second floors, and an additional washbowl were necessary for the proper functioning of these two buildings. This request of Mr. Haines was taken up with the Superintendent of Public Schools, and under date of March 29, 1926, we received from him a letter from which we quote as follows:

"Permit me to respectfully request that you proceed with the changes presented in my letter."

This Board accordingly approved the request for this additional work.

We submit statement of cost of these items, subdivided as follows:

Plumbing, to include extra toilets, washbowl, vent, waste and soil pipes, and slate work, $1,929.20; for repair of plastering, additional painting, electrical work and terrazzo work, $549; for new partition and door in same, across the first floor to form men's toilet, cutting and patching work in connection with plumbers and other trades, $511.30.

We trust this will meet with your approval.

Respectfully yours,

F. E. SLATTERY,
Chairman.

The issuance of an order of addition, in the sum of $4,659.20 (the same having been authorized by a former chairman of the Board) to the contract of P. J. Cantwell for alterations, etc., to building at No. 10 Scotia street, Mechanic Arts High School Annex.

The issuance of an order of addition, in the sum of $12,379.40, to the contract of Joseph Rugo for the erection and completion of the South Boston High School Addition.

The issuance of an order of addition, in the sum of $12,660.70, to the contract of Matthew Cummings Company for erection and completion of the Shurtleff District School.

I. MICHAEL J. TRAVERS.

It is with deep regret that the Acting Fire Commissioner announces the death of Hoseman Michael J. Travers of Engine Company 7 on Thursday, July 1, 1926. Hoseman Travers was appointed

The sympathy of the entire department goes out to the bereaved widow and the orphaned children of Hoseman Travers who gave up his life in the line of duty in accordance with the traditions of the Fire Department.

The funeral will be held from his late home, 38 Woodlawn street, Forest Hills, at 8.15 a. m. Saturday, July 3, 1926, followed by services at 9 a. m., at the Church of St. Andrew the Apostle, Walk Hill and Wachusett streets.

General Order No. 40.

I. PROMOTIONS.

The following promotions which took effect at 8 a. m., Friday, June 25, 1926, are hereby announced:

Captain Louis C. Stickel of Engine 4 to be district chief.

II. FIREWORKS.

The following letter has been received by the Acting Fire Commissioner from T. C. Murphy, Acting State Fire Marshal, and is quoted for the information and guidance of the department.

STATE HOUSE, Boston, July 2, 1926.

To T. F. SULLIVAN, Acting Fire Commissioner, 60 Bristol street, Boston, Mass.

Subject: Fireworks.

1. My attention has been directed to the fact that a fireworks device known as "Spit Devils," manufactured by the Victory Sparkler and Specialty Company, Elkton, Maryland, has been distributed by a wholesaler for sale at retail in Boston. This device has never been approved for use in the Commonwealth by the State Fire Marshal and its keeping and sale, therefore, is illegal.

2. It constitutes an article dangerous to life and property, and careful supervision of all places where fireworks are sold should be had to prevent the sale and use of this or similar devices.

T. C. MURPHY,
Acting State Fire Marshal.

By order of Acting Fire Commissioner Thomas F. Sullivan.

DANIEL F. SENNOTT,
Chief of Department.

CALLS FOR CAUTION IN INDEPENDENCE OBSERVANCE.

The Mayor issued the following Independence Day warning:

To the Citizens of Boston.

As we enter into the spirit of the celebration of Independence Day let me urge upon the citizens of Boston to exercise more than their usual due care with regard to setting off fireworks. It is necessary that such warning be issued because of the menace to health and happiness commonly attendant upon such events as we celebrate this year.

Careless use of explosives may cause serious menace to life and damage to property. While the City of Boston and its firefighting machinery will be most alert to meet any emergency, we may, with the aid of all citizens, by exercising due care, lessen the toil of these protectors of our homes, the firemen, avoid forcing them needlessly into hazardous duties, and also prevent the possible maiming of those we love.

Since also traffic will be heavy along our highways to and from the city I ask citizens to exercise forbearance with conditions. The safety of our lives and property is worth more than the enjoyment of the day.

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

* Decrease. † Made by Boston City Planning Board and Boston Chamber of Commerce.
‡ No count taken in 1924.

An increase of more than twenty-one per cent in the number of vehicles entering and leaving downtown Boston between 8 a. m. and 6 p. m., in the two-year period from July 1, 1924, to July 1, 1926 was revealed by the traffic count taken by the Boston City Planning Board and the Boston Chamber of Commerce. This year 169,520 vehicles passed the counters stationed on the highways, bridges, and ferries which lead to and from the central district. In 1925 139,014 vehicles were counted.

The heaviest increase was in passenger cars, which numbered 84,642 in 1924 and 109,373 in 1926, a 29 per cent increase.

Trucks increased 21½ per cent, from 40,676 to 49,383; while horse-drawn vehicles decreased 21½ per cent, the figures being 13,696 in 1924 and 10,764 in 1926.

The 1926 count also showed that 64½ per cent of all vehicles entering the downtown district were passenger cars, 29 per cent were trucks and 6½ per cent were horse-drawn vehicles. In 1924 passenger cars comprised 61 per cent of the total; trucks were 29 per cent and horse-drawn vehicles were 10 per cent.

The eight bridges which connect downtown Boston with South Boston, Charlestown and Cambridge, now handle 49 per cent of the total traffic, only a fraction of a per cent less than the traffic which uses the fifteen highways which connect with the south and west. The two East Boston ferries carry the remaining 2 per cent. Two years ago, the bridges carried 46 per cent, the highways 52 per cent and the ferries the remaining 2 per cent.

Charlestown Bridge now carries the largest number of vehicles, the number being 16,554. Two years ago it ranked second in importance, Beacon street having the heaviest traffic at that time. This year Beacon street has dropped to fourth place, Boylston street and Cambridge Bridge also having traffic which exceeds it. The counts on Beacon street and Boylston street were taken between Arlington and Charles streets.

The largest increase in all types of vehicles was found on Cambridge Bridge. Traffic at this point has gained 124 per cent in the two years. Mt. Vernon street, although carrying a relatively small volume of traffic, showed the next largest increase of 122 per cent. The count on Mt. Vernon street was made between Charles street and Embankment road. Large increases on South Ferry, Embankment road, Harrison avenue, Dorchester avenue, Craigie Bridge and Boylston street were also found. A large decrease was shown on North Ferry, and slight decreases on Stuart street, Northern Avenue Bridge and Park square.

Boylston street now carries the most passenger cars, with Beacon street second and Charlestown Bridge third; Cambridge Bridge has become the leading artery for trucks, with Charlestown Bridge second and Craigie Bridge third. Northern Avenue Bridge still leads in the number of horse-drawn vehicles which traverse it. Warren Bridge comes second in this respect and Craigie Bridge third.

Street improvements and changes in traffic rules have had their effect in the increases and decreases found in this count. The widening of Cambridge street, although not yet finished, has apparently diverted a large number of passenger cars and trucks to Cambridge Bridge. Embankment road also appears to be carrying a heavier load of passenger cars because of this widening. It is evident that many motorists enter and leave the downtown district by way of Cambridge street and Embankment road, or over Cambridge Bridge and through Cambridge, thereby lessening the burden of traffic on Beacon street and other highways.

The relatively negligible increase in traffic on Beacon street may be accounted for partly by the growing popularity of Cambridge street, but the recent prohibition of heavy trucks is also responsible. Mt. Vernon street, which parallels Beacon street, has also been called upon to carry a portion of the former Beacon street traffic.

The increasing importance of Dorchester avenue as a traffic artery has been caused by the opening of part of Old Colony Boulevard for travel.

Building construction in the Park square district and a greater use of Shawmut avenue, which has recently been repaved, is probably the cause of the decrease on Stuart street and Park square. Although Shawmut avenue does not extend to the area designated as the downtown district for the purpose of this count, much of the traffic which uses it goes on to Tremont street, Harrison avenue and other streets in the vicinity to reach the heart of the city.

The removal of some of the freight yards of the Boston & Maine Railroad from the vicinity of North Station across the river to Cambridge is largely responsible for the substantial increase in traffic over Craigie Bridge.

John Carty, bridge and ferry engineer, Public Works Department, supervised the count at the ferries. Recent graduates of the High School of Commerce and Dorchester High School, and rehabilitated veterans took the count on the highways and bridges, under the supervision of officials of the Planning Board and the Chamber. The New England Telephone and Telegraph Company lent the Vedor counters with which the counts at the various places were tabulated.

The following firms and organizations co-operated by allowing the use of their premises as headquarters for the counters: Filene's Service Station, Boston Fire Department, Unity House, Eliot Street Garage, Miss Donovan's Mailing Service, Summerfield's, the Royal Dress Goods Company, United Shoe Machinery Company, New England Confectionery Company, the Pinkham Press, Loose Wiles Biscuit Company, Boston & Maine Freight House, Metropolitan Police Station, Boston Blueprint Company.

Mayor Nichols addressed the following letter to the Civil Service Commission:

BOSTON, July 3, 1926.

HON. PAYSON DANA, Commissioner of Civil Service, State House, Boston, Mass.

DEAR MR. DANA,—I have appointed Dr. Francis X. Mahoney, Health Commissioner, to be a member of the Boston Sanatorium Trustees, who are charged with the care of tuberculosis.

I deem it advisable to have the Health Commissioner in close official contact with the Board, pending changes in tuberculosis administration.

Inasmuch as there are now under discussion plans for the extension of our facilities for treating such cases, I should like very much to have Doctor Mahoney confirmed at the earliest possible moment. The Law Department assures me that there is no objection to his serving as a Sanatorium Trustee while Health Commissioner. The trustees are an unpaid Board.

May I ask for your early and favorable consideration of this appointment.

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

PLAYGROUNDS BEING BETTER PATRONIZED THIS YEAR THAN EVER.

Following official instructions to the Park Department to place physical instructors in the playgrounds, there has been a large increase in the use of Boston playgrounds this season. There are courses on expert athletic instruction on thirteen of the playgrounds throughout the city. Formerly, only four of these playgrounds offered similar opportunities for instruction in those games which lead to competition on track and field. This year, a number of athletic instructors who, during the winter were attached to gymnasia, have been transferred to the playground athletic service, with the result that a great number of boys were attracted from the streets and were given an opportunity for healthful exercise.

Although the full capacity of these playgrounds has not yet been reached, thousands of boys are enjoying these benefits for the first time. Girls also are coming to the playgrounds in large numbers, and while perhaps they have not shown such an interest in athletics the School Department supplies teachers for instruction in sewing and in the playing of games which are common to school yards. As a result of the instruction the boys are receiving in baseball, volley ball and in track sports, great interest in inter-playground games has been developed, which will be brought to a head by a grand meet at Franklin Field at the close of the season in September.

Bats, balls, gloves and all playground material are furnished free to all participants, and many boys, who have never had an opportunity of testing their metal under expert instruction, are making splendid progress.

The following is a list of instructors and the playgrounds where located:

Rogers Park, Brighton.—Maurice R. Smith, seventeen years in the Park Department, playground instructor for the 1st Corps Cadets, Teachers College, director of Posse Normal School Camp, and many other schools.

William Eustis Playground, Roxbury.—William M. Mullen, fourteen years in the department, president of the New England Basketball Officials, physical instructor at East and South Armories during the war, and a semi-pro athlete of note.

Billings Field, West Roxbury.—Edward Fisher, eleven years in the department and one who has developed many champions in amateur ranks.

Strandway Playground, South Boston.—William Cronan, eleven years in the department, assistant physical director at Dartmouth College, instructor at Brookline and Pittsfield and organizer of the Algonquin Gymnastic Team, formerly physical director of the St. Alphonsus Athletic Association.

Franklin Field.—William (Hiker) Joy, Varsity letter man in four sports at Holy Cross, physical director of United States Army Aviation Camp in Texas, and in Akron, Ohio; Holy Cross football coach two years, and at Boston College as assistant to Major Cavanaugh.

Gibson Playground, Dorchester.—Fred Byrnes, seven years in the department; physical director of the United States Camp at Wakefield and also director in charge of athletics at United States Naval Base at Queenstown, Ireland.

Charlestown Playground.—James W. (Jake) Driscoll, holds record in 660-yard run, 440 New England champion, 1918-24, Olympic team member 1920, intercollegiate 440 champion and national champion in 1922.

Smith's Pond, Hyde Park.—Thomas A. Phelan, Boston College baseball and track teams, captain of Varsity swimming team, assistant athletic instructor at Y. M. C. A.

Norfolk Street, Dorchester.—Edward W. Kohler, five years in department, supervisor of playgrounds in Brookline, coach of athletics at U. S. Marine Barracks Paris Island, S. C.

Mission Hill Playground.—John Morris, boxing instructor, B. A. A. welter weight champion, amateur and professional of Canada, Yankee Division and Overseas Captain; star member of Glace Bay baseball team and member of Sons of Ireland Cricket Team.

World War Memorial Park.—George Connell, South Boston's noted athlete, member of Boston Braves and professional basketball player for seventeen years and recently covered himself with glory playing with Boston Whirlwinds.

Charlesbank Gymnasium.—Frank H. Caswell, Boston Y. M. C. A. and United States physical instructor at Camp Stanley, Texas, and instructor at Newport Y. M. C. A.

Columbus Avenue Playground.—Harry Robinson, special instructor at Y. M. C. U. and Y. M. H. A.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.General Order No. 918.

It is my sad duty to announce to the department the death of Captain James F. Hickey of Division 7, which occurred at his summer home, Shore Drive, Winthrop, on Wednesday, July 7.

Captain Hickey became a member of the Police Department when he was appointed a patrolman on September 12, 1885, and was assigned to Division 3. Later he was promoted to the successive grades of sergeant and lieutenant, and on February 8, 1917, was promoted to the grade of captain and assigned to Division 7, where he has since served with credit to himself and to the department.

As a police officer he was a splendid disciplinarian, of unquestioned integrity and ability and his death is not only a severe loss to this department, but also to the citizens of East Boston, who manifested many times their great love and respect for him.

At this time our sympathy is extended to his relatives and friends.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

HERBERT A. WILSON,
Commissioner.

Nelson be retired from active service and that his name be placed upon the department pension roll with pay at the rate of one thousand (1,000) dollars per annum, said sum being one half of the amount of compensation received by him in the office from which he is retired; to take effect Tuesday, July 13, 1926, at 5.45 o'clock p. m.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

A trial board consisting of Captains Fitzgerald, Rooney and Kneeland, having heard by reference a complaint against Patrolman Albert C. Lohnes of Division 15, charging him with neglect of duty, reported to the Commissioner a finding of guilty as charged. In accordance with which, the said Patrolman Albert C. Lohnes was on July 1, 1926, dismissed from the Police Department.

Due written notice of such dismissal with the reasons therefor was duly and specifically given in hand on July 1, 1926, to the said Albert C. Lohnes.

On the third day of July, 1926, the said Albert C. Lohnes requested in writing a public hearing as provided by law, and the Police Commissioner set down Monday, July 12, 1926, at eleven o'clock, a. m. at the office of the Police Commissioner, as the time and place for said hearing, and duly notified said Albert C. Lohnes.

The said Albert C. Lohnes was present at said time and place with counsel and was heard with his witnesses. Whereupon, after hearing the case, the Police Voted, That this Board determines that no person sustains damages in his estate by the making of the public improvement, consisting of the laying out and construction of an extension of Norwell street, Dorchester district, as a highway, to Washington street, under the order of the Board of even date herewith, and awards no damages therefor.

EXTENSION OF CONTRACTS.

The Warren Foundry and Pipe Company have been granted an extension of the completion date of the contract from October 15, 1925, to July 21, 1926, due to the fact that the Water Service exercised their option and took the 20 per cent increase on certain sizes of pipe, and the manufacturers of this excess amount delayed the completion of the contract.

CHARLESBANK GYMNASIUM LOCKER BUILDING MADE READY FOR USE.

Mayor Nichols, on July 21, instructed the Park Department to open at once the men's locker building at Charlesbank, which has been closed to the public since August, 1925, owing to its dilapidated and unsafe condition. An appropriation of $25,000, was made by the city to put this building in a good, practical and sanitary condition.

The contract for alterations and repairs was awarded April 14 and work started immediately. It was found that the rear wall of the building was almost entirely rotted away and there were bad settlements in many places due to leakage of water from the shower room. The toilet facilities were old and unsanitary and the old wooden lockers badly broken. A complete renovation has been made, the entire building has been restudded, wire lathed and plastered.

The shower and drying rooms were relocated on the first floor, leaving the entire second floor for one large well-ventilated locker room with proper toilet facilities. This locker room contains 140 new steel lockers with ample circulation and seating places. The old boilers and entire heating system have been renovated. A new, large, modern convenience station has been added to the first floor, entirely shut off from the main building and today the building is one of the most attractive in the Park System.

CITY EMPLOYEES MUST PAY POLL TAXES.

The Mayor has issued the following circular letter No. 13:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, July 12, 1926.

To the Heads of City Departments.

GENTLEMEN,—You will please notify all of the employees in your department that poll tax bills for 1926 have now been issued and should be promptly paid by every city employee.

An examination of the records in the case of city employees indicates that very few persons in the employ of the city have up to this time paid their poll tax bills.

There is no reason why the poll tax should not be paid by every person legally liable therefor. It represents the minimum requirement in taxation, and is too often overlooked because the amount is small.

Prompt payment of a poll tax will strengthen the feeling of responsibility which every citizen should have in his government, and a full collection of poll taxes will greatly relieve the burden resting upon homes and business.

Very truly yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.]

I. ACCIDENTS.

Under the law the Fire Department has the right of way in responding to alarms of fire. Therefore, the officer in charge and man driving the apparatus will be held strictly accountable for reckless driving. The speed of apparatus responding to an alarm of fire must never exceed twenty-five miles per hour in any part of the city, and this speed will be allowed only when the traffic conditions permit it. In returning from fires the speed must not exceed fifteen miles per hour.

The following rule is promulgated for the information of the department:

Hereafter, as a matter of record and reference at Department Headquarters, an entry will be made on the record card of each member of the department operating apparatus or automobiles of the Fire Department which becomes involved in an accident or collision. A similar entry will be made on the card of the officer in charge of the apparatus or automobile at the time of the accident or collision.

Trains of four or six cars are run in the East Boston Tunnel, the Washington St. Tunnel, continuing on elevated track to Forest Hills, also in Dorchester Tunnel from Andrew sq., So. Boston, connecting with Cambridge Tunnel, to Harvard sq., Cambridge, while only single or double street-cars are run in the other tunnels and subways. Cost of Dorchester tunnel, $11,016,700 to Jan. 31, 1925; of new Arlington Station extending under Boylston St., between Arlington and Berkeley, $1,230,676; of East Boston Tunnel Alterations, Maverick sq., $3,768,857.

In accordance with Chapter 741, Acts of 1911, the various leases were extended to July 1, 1936, the rental to be $\frac{4}{3}$ per cent of net cost after expiration of the first-term leases.

By Chap. 185, Special Acts of 1918, the powers of the Transit Commission, whose term expired that year, were transferred to the Mayor, Commissioner of Public Works and City Treasurer, or such person or persons, not exceeding three, as the Mayor might appoint. By Chap. 3, Ordinances of 1918, the Transit Dept. was established as a regular City department, to be in charge of three commissioners.

By Chap. 480, Acts of 1923, the extension of the Dorchester Tunnel from Andrew Square about 1,300 feet southerly was ordered, the proposed new railway location then coming to the surface 400 feet southeast of Dorchester Ave., thence continuing to Harrison Square; thence along the Shawmut Branch railroad to its termination at Blue Hill Ave. and River St., Mattapan.

STUDENT TUITION FEES COLLECTED.

The Finance Commission has submitted the following report on students at Boston Teachers College, and tuition fees:

Boston, July 16, 1926.

To the School Committee.

GENTLEMEN,—The Boston Teachers College is supported by the City of Boston for the education and training of high school graduates for positions as teachers in the City of Boston. It offers a free course of instruction to pupils who are residents of Boston. A fee, however, is established each year by the School Committee, chargeable to those students residing outside the city limits.

In October, 1925, an investigation was undertaken by the Finance Commission to determine the residences of the student body, for the purpose of ascertaining if any of the students were living outside of the City of Boston and were evading the payment of their tuition fees by giving a Boston address. In the course of the investigation it was discovered that, through an oversight of someone connected with the School Department, no bills for tuition had been sent to those nonresident pupils who were taking the A. M. course. Bills were therefore sent to the City Collector on or about December 5, 1925, and these bills have been paid.

After a personal interview with Mr. Alexander Sullivan, Business Manager of the School Committee, and Mr. Kennedy, dean of the Teachers College, each student at the Boston Teachers College was instructed to fill out a card, giving name, present address, date of birth and name of parent or guardian. Upon receipt of these cards properly filled out, 800 in number, the information was checked in the office of the commission. There were about 200 cases where it was necessary to make further investigation. A questionnaire, a copy of which is attached hereto, was prepared and distributed to these 200 pupils and upon return of the answers these lists were again checked, with the result that about twenty-one cases appeared to be nonresidents.

These cases were called to the attention of the business manager and bills were immediately rendered, and pupils upon failure to pay were excluded from the school. In some cases where the parents had formerly lived in Boston but had recently moved away, tuition charges were suspended by the School Committee upon the promise of the parents to return to the city. In other cases, where the parents lived outside Boston, but the pupils were living with relatives in Boston, a sworn statement was accepted by the school authorities to the effect that the pupil was making her home in Boston.

The validity of these statements has always been questioned by the Finance Commission, because the facts clearly showed that the pupils were here with relatives for the purpose of getting a free education. Why the distinction was made the commission never could understand, but it believes it unfair to make a young woman from Revere pay, while a young woman from New York was allowed to file a sworn statement.

In some other cases pupils living outside Boston for many years, who persisted in giving false information as to their addresses, were penalized by the School Committee by an order, directing the superintendent to withhold their diplomas for a period of six months after graduation.

The most outstanding case of deceit coming to the attention of the Finance Commission was that of a pupil giving an address from South Boston. As a result of the investigation there was paid into the city treasury the sum of $529.03 for her three years' tuition in the Boston Teachers College. Altogether there was paid into the city treasury by these nonresident pupils the sum of $4,234.45 since last December. The commission believes from evidence obtained during the investigation that such schools as the Trade School, the High School of Commerce, the Mechanic Arts High School, the Clerical High School, and other schools furnishing specialized features, as well as the Boys' and Girls' Public Latin Schools and the Teachers College, have many nonresident pupils attending without the payment of tuition.

The commission suggests, to protect the interests of the city, that the masters of these special high and normal schools be instructed to require the filling out by the pupils of cards, giving the name of the student, the present address and that of April 1; the names of the fathers and mothers, their present addresses and their addresses of April 1; and the school from which the pupil was graduated prior to entering the high or Normal School. The card should also have printed in clear type a warning that any false statement made by the pupil would be considered sufficient cause for dismissal from the school.

The commission also wishes to call the attention of the School Committee to the present system of rendering bills for tuition. The school authorities depend upon the City Collector to furnish information as to the nonpayment of these bills. This produces a condition whereby the school authorities are often in ignorance as to who has paid and who has not paid. The commission suggests that some arrangement should be made with the City Collector whereby the school authorities will be notified monthly of all unpaid bills for tuition. If this is done the school authorities will be able to check the payment more accurately and exclude from the schools those nonresidents who have not paid their bills.

The commission desires to record the fact that the dean of the Boston Teachers College and the Business Manager of the School Committee, as well as Miss Taylor, his assistant, were most co-operative in assisting the commission.

Respectfully submitted,

THE FINANCE COMMISSION,
by CHARLES L. CARR,
Chairman.

INSTRUCTION IN MILITARY DRILL.

Dr. Bogan offered the following:

A pamphlet is now being circularized throughout the public high schools of this city by the so-called Massachusetts Committee on Militarism in Education. Throughout its pages there are definite statements regarding military training as now conducted in our high schools.

This Committee on Militarism in Education calls the attention of every citizen of the state to facts concerning the Boston schools, with a view to the abolition of military training in the high schools throughout this state.

I am therefore calling attention to the following facts:

Military drill has been conducted in the Boston schools for over sixty-three (63) years, on a compulsory basis, and the head masters of the Boston high schools have gone on record unanimously in favor of military drill as it is now conducted, because of the moral, intellectual and physical benefits derived therefrom.

The United States Senate Committee on Military Affairs recently canvassed the opinion of ninety-two (92) college presidents, and all but two considered the training beneficial to the student, the college and the country.

Military training teaches a boy the finest type of citizenship, and respect for his country, its ideals and practices. He is taught to think of others, and is so trained that in an emergency he will react promptly and correctly, either as a director of affairs or as a member of a team, as he has been trained both to give and to execute orders.

From a physical standpoint, he learns how to stand correctly, how to carry himself, how to breathe properly.

Military drill broadens his shoulders and causes him to carry his head erect, and he forms good physical habits which remain with him through life.

Military drill teaches courtesy, manners, physical carriage, deportment, ease, confidence, management, care of self and others, responsibility, fortitude, discipline, obedience, subordination of self for the good of the whole, and self-reliance under all conditions.

I am therefore suggesting that this Committee approve the following resolution and spread it on the records:

RESOLVED: That military drill, as now conducted in the Boston Public Schools, has the hearty approval of the present School Committee, and that the Committee sincere, hopes that the day may never come when any agitation, from any source whatsoever, may operate or even suggest the removal of military drill from the curriculum of the Boston Public Schools.

Mr. O'Hare expressed the hope that the resolution presented by the Chairman will be adopted. We must distinguish between militarism and preparedness. In his opinion, no one who has given any careful thought to the question can decry preparedness. Referred to statement by Hugh Ogden in a recent issue of a newspaper, that in the World War men of Boston who had been given instruction in military drill, did not become warriors. The purpose of instruction in military drill in the schools is not to instill in the boys' minds desire to become conquering heroes. Hopes the time will never come when instruction in military training, as now given in the Boston schools, shall be discontinued.

Mrs. Barron: As a member of the School Committee cannot endorse the resolution as presented by the Chairman. Have read with care and open mind the pamphlet recently issued as result of careful survey on "Military Training in Schools and Colleges of Massachusetts." At the present time am inclined to oppose compulsory instruction in military drill as now in effect in our schools. Have studied with care our very valuable course in Citizenship through Character Development, which teaches love of country and patriotism in its highest sense. Furthermore, we have a splendid physical training department. Inclined at this time to question whether we may not give attention to the report of the Special Commission on Education and Reserve, "appointed by Gov. David I. Walsh in 1915, composed of nine members, of which three were generals, to report on advisability of including courses in military instruction in school curriculum. The Commission unanimously opposed military drill in the public schools."

Mrs. Barron then read from the list of persons reorted in the pamphlet as opposed to compulsory military training and was of the opinion that if men and women of the type and calibre of these representatives are opposed to compulsory military training, and if the commission especially appointed to study the question has reported against compulsory military training in the schools, this committee may well consider the matter with an open mind. Instill love of country,—patriotism in its highest form. Referred to provision in the General Laws for exemption from military instruction when there is conscientious objection thereto. Would raise question for further study as to advisability of discontinuing compulsory military instruction.

Mr. Gray: Desires to go on record as heartily in favor of military training as now conducted in the Boston schools.

Mr. Sullivan: Believes that the School Committee as representative of the educational life of the city, should go on record against what he has previously referred to as the "treasonous triumvirate." Knows of no reason why there should be any assault upon military training as conducted in our schools, unless it may be aimed at the idea of national sovereignty. Well-intentioned persons grasp at ideas that meet their particular point of view, but this talk of jingoistic ideas, of blood-thirsty ideas being inculcated in the minds of the boys, is beyond his understanding.

As to the commission appointed by Gov. Walsh; this was in 1915. We learned a lot in 1917. We were taught lesson of preparedness. As Mr. O'Hare has said, there is a great difference between "militarism" and "preparedness." Preparedness of Germany and preparedness of America, are two entirely different things.

Question came on the adoption of the resolution as presented by Dr. Bogan.

The resolution was adopted by the following vote:

YEAS—Messrs. Bogan, Gray, O'Hare and Sullivan—4.

NAYS—Mrs. Barron—1.

EQUAL PAY FOR EQUAL SERVICE.

Mr. O'Hare offered the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That the School Committee of the City of Boston does hereby place itself on record as being in favor of establishing salaries for all positions in the Boston public school service on a basis of service rendered without regard to sex.

In connection with the foregoing Mr. O'Hare stated that he offers the resolution realizing that if passed it can not become effective this year, because according to the Business Manager, sufficient money is not available. There is no intention on his part of decreasing any individual salary. Hopes the Committee can see its way to agree with the fundamental principle of wage earning—that salary received is payment for service rendered. In the public school system under statute law the teacher stands in loco parentis. It is the only profession paid wholly from the public treasury; the only profession in which exists the ideal relation of man to the father of the family and woman to the mother. Inequality of payment should not be allowed to continue.

In certain ranks in the service the principle is already established. Assistant Superintendent is a case in point. Have one woman Assistant Superintendent who receives the same salary as the men Assistant Superintendents. There has recently been appointed a woman head master of a high school, who likewise receives the same salary as do her men associates. In principalship of elementary and intermediate schools, there is again kinship of payment without disparity. In the great group of teachers of the rank of elementary assistants, in which rank he began service, there is likewise no disparity, and this applies to the same rank in the intermediate schools. In the group of attendance officers where we now have two women, there is absolutely no difference in salary. There are two or three women custodians of school buildings, and again equality of payment prevails. It is high time that Boston, as the leading city of New England, shall take its place in line with other progressive cities of the country in declaring for this principle of paying salaries on the basis alone of service rendered.

There is one argument which may be raised against the principle which may well be discussed. Some few years ago the high school women petitioned the Legislature to have the School Committee instructed to establish salaries on the basis of service rendered, rather than on the basis of sex.

It went to the Governor and finally came to the people for referendum. Believes that the action of the people was due largely to the fact that the people believed that this was a matter to be determined by the School Committee, and this is borne out by the opinion of others which have come to him. The bill in itself was faulty in construction and was, in his opinion, repudiated by the people because in their judgment it was for the School Committee to determine the merits of the case.

Mr. Sullivan: Realizes Mr. O'Hare's good faith in the matter, but must take issue with him on the question of the referendum. Is of the opinion that the referendum did not fail to adequately express the wishes of the citizens. Believes they did understand the purposes fully, and intelligently expressed their wishes. Is the duty of the School Committee to abide by the wishes of the people as thus expressed. Was under the impression that the proponents of the bill made very clear at the time the purpose behind it. The answer was given by the people of Boston, so would say let the matter rest until such time as the people of Boston say that in their opinion the proposition now offered for consideration is for the best interests of the primary purpose of the public schools, namely, the school children. Until such time, shall not be prepared to vote in favor of equal pay. Discussion of the matter at this time is purely academic for it cannot become effective since there is no money.

Mrs. Barron: Heartily approves of Mr. O'Hare's order. Does not feel that the referendum vote was really the opinion of the people. Certain public statements were made at that time which were not only objectionable but untrue. Referred to fliers which were distributed at the time the bill was under discussion; namely—"The ultimate added cost will be one million and a half dollars yearly," "Equal pay means that your children must attend crowded class rooms and that your boys must be taught largely by women teachers," "Equal pay means women teachers in the all boys' schools," "Women teachers have no dependents," etc.—all of which statements were untrue. Analysis shows that 70 per cent. of all women teachers have one or more dependents while many men teachers are unmarried with no dependents.

Read statement showing comparison of men and women on eligible lists during the last three years, and number of relative appointments, which indicate no shortage of men.

In February, 1926, questionnaire was sent to the Superintendents of schools of 68 cities in the United States with population of 100,000 or more. Of the 68, all had equal pay except 12. Hartford adopted the equal pay proposition in the high schools in March, 1926. Louisville, Kentucky, adopted the principle on June 3, 1926.

Have a wonderful school system in which one fundamental principle prevails—no discrimination on account of race, creed or color. Should be no discrimination on account of sex. Women are required to make same preparation for service in the Boston schools; must pass the same examinations; hold the same certificates. Why not same salary? Are required to meet the same requirements as men for promotion within the service; to obtain the same results in the class room. Would go a step further than declaring for the principle of equal pay, inasmuch as we have a small reserve. In order to establish the principle, would give to the women who are now receiving unequal pay, one increment this year. Business Manager has estimated the cost of one increment for the last four months of the current financial year at approximately $15,000. Statement which has been made that it would cost a million and a half to put the service on equal pay basis has no foundation in fact. Called attention to the fact that since the so-called decision of the tax payers against equal pay, other salaries in the department have been increased. Did not go to the tax payers for permission. The Committee is now considering the salary schedule without reference to the tax payers. Salaries should be decided by the School Committee.

Mr. Sullivan: Cannot see how any representative of the people can justify himself in interpreting the action of the tax payers, in deciding that while they said this, they meant that. Cannot go behind the decision of the community. An academic question. Question as to equal pay was specifically answered by the people about three years ago.

Mr. Gray: I understand that the petitioners in substance request that equal pay for men and women teachers be put into immediate operation, and failing that they request the committee to go on record as favoring equal pay without attempting to establish it.

As to the first request the answer, in my opinion, must be in the negative for the conclusive reason that we have absolutely no funds this year with which to meet the large increase in salaries that the establishment of equal pay would entail.

As to the second request, namely, that the committee adopt the principle of equal pay without putting it into effect, I think it is at least doubtful whether, as a matter of policy, the committee should at a time when it has no funds with which to meet a great many important needs, vote in favor of a single project which eventually must call for an exceedingly large annual expenditure.

As far as I am personally concerned, however, I will state quite frankly that while I have not had time yet to make as thorough a study of the matter as I hope later on to do, the reasons thus far urged in favor of equal pay have not convinced me that we should disregard the verdict rendered by the voters a few years ago on this very question.

Dr. Bogan: Since the Business Manager has reported that necessary funds are not available, will have to vote against Mr. O'Hare's order.

Mr. O'Hare: There is one trouble as he sees it in voting for an increment this year. Believes there is no guarantee at the present time that there will be funds to carry through the principle in another fiscal year. Believes that the interpretation of a large number of the citizens was as he has said above—that the Committee should determine the merits of the case.

Would like to have the present Committee give the Board of Apportionment, who are to study salaries, something tangible to work on. They should know the will of the Committee on this matter in connection with the preparation of the salary schedule.

Question came on the adoption of the resolution as presented by Mr. O'Hare.

The resolution failed of adoption by the following vote:

YEAS—Mrs. Barron and Mr. O'Hare—2.

NAYS—Messrs. Bogan, Gray and Sullivan—3.

CHANGE IN RANKS OF CERTAIN TEACHERS.

Mr. O'Hare offered the following three orders:

ORDERED, That the rank of senior instructor, academic branches, Continuation School and Boston Trade School, be abolished as of Aug. 31, 1926, and the rank of junior master be substituted therefor.

AIRCRAFT FIELD, EAST BOSTON.

The following was received:

City of Boston.

Office of the Mayor, July 12, 1926.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—The Legislature at its recent session passed an act enabling the city to share in the expense of further improving the aircraft landing field in East Boston. Under the provisions of the act, before any money can be appropriated, acceptance must be made by the City Council.

There can be no question as to the desirability of the city aiding in every way possible in the further development of the East Boston Airport. The bringing of the air mail to Boston was made possible only by the existence of this landing field. The saving of time in the forwarding of communications which is made possible through the air mail is a great convenience and asset to the commerce and industry of our city. The further development of the Airport will undoubtedly be a big factor in the continuance and extension of our present air mail service. The acceptance of the legislative act will permit the city to offer material aid in this worthwhile development. I accordingly recommend adoption of the accompanying order providing for the acceptance of chapter 385 of the Acts of 1926.

Respectfully,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Ordered, That chapter 385 of the Acts of 1926 entitled "An Act Providing for the Further Improvement of the Aircraft Landing Field in East Boston," be and the same is hereby accepted. Referred to the Executive Committee.

Coun. FREELEY—Mr. President, in introducing this order I would like to give my reasons. The square referred to is now known as Dolan square, being named after Edward M. Dolan, a young fellow who lost his life in the World War. It has, however, simply been named Dolan square, and I would like to have the full name given—Edward M. Dolan square.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

POLICE UNIFORMS.

Coun. DOWD offered the following:

SOLDIERS' RELIEF.

Coun. GILBODY, for the Committee on Soldiers' Relief, submitted a report recommending the passage of an order for the payment of aid to soldiers and sailors and their families in the City of Boston for the month of July, 1926, under chapter 115 of the General Laws, and acts in amendment thereof or in addition thereto.

Report accepted, said order passed.

PROTEST AT SHAWMUT BRANCH ACTION.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Whereas, The New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, incidental to reconstruction work for rapid transit on the Shawmut Branch, proposes, on or about September 6, 1926, to discontinue all train service on the so-called Shawmut Branch, thereby eliminating all railroad transportation between the South Station and Fields Corner, Shawmut, Ashmont and Cedar Grove,

Resolved, That the City Council of the City of Boston protest to the Department of Public Utilities against this proposed cessation of all transportation facilities on the Shawmut Branch for an indeterminate period of time, and without any provision being made for any temporary or even restricted train service.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, I merely wish to state in reference to this resolution that I feel, in justice to the people of Dorchester, that the resolution should be passed and a copy forwarded to the Department of Public Utilities. I understand that the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, previous to the placing of the rapid transit system on the Shawmut Branch, asked permission after September 6 to discontinue all train service.

I would state, speaking for the constituents in my district, that the train service has always been bad enough out there, and they now want to discontinue it entirely. I don't wish to qualify as an engineer, but I am informed that it will take at least two years to put this rapid transit system through, which means that the business men of Dorchester and the people back and forth between their homes and business, morning and night, will be very seriously put out and discommoded for two years. I introduce this in the interest of the Dorchester wards.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

RECESS.

On motion of Coun. McGRATH, the Council voted at 2.32 p. m. to take a recess, subject to the call of the Chair. The members reassembled in the Council Chamber and were called to order by President KEENE at 3.30 p. m.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. DOWLING, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

(1) Report on the order (submitted by the Mayor and referred today) that chapter 385 of the Acts of 1926, entitled "An Act Providing for the Further Improvement of the Air Craft Landing Field in East Boston," be and the same is hereby accepted,—that the same ought to pass.

Report accepted, said order passed.

(2) Report on the order (submitted by the Mayor and referred today) that a sum not in excess of $10,000 be expended, under the direction of the Mayor, by the Commercial, Industrial and Publicity Bureau in the prosecution of its duties, said sum to be charged to the Reserve Fund,—that the same ought to pass.

Report accepted, said order passed, yeas 19, nays, Coun. Dowling, Guild, Ward, 3.

(3) Report on sundry orders for transfers within departmental appropriations (submitted by the Mayor and referred today)—that the same ought to pass.

Report accepted, said orders passed, yeas 22, nays 0.

FINANCE REPORTS.

Coun. GREEN, for the Committee on Finance, submitted reports recommending the passage of sundry orders. The Clerk commenced reading a report, and Coun. LYNCH said:

Mr. President, I move that these reports be taken up in the order in which they appear on the calendar.

(The items referred to by Coun. Lynch, appearing on the calendar under "Recommendations by the Mayor," were printed on the calendar as follows:

Recommendations by the Mayor.

The following matters have been recommended by the Mayor for adoption by the City Council and become effective as indicated, unless previously rejected or withdrawn:

In Effect After July 23, 1926.

I. Order for a loan of $400,000 for snow removal equipment. Filed May 24, 1926. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

In Effect After August 6, 1926.

II. Order for a loan of $500,000 for extension of water mains. Filed June 7, 1926. Read once and passed, June 21, 1926.

In Effect After August 20, 1926.

III. Order for a loan of $70,000 for Broadway Bridge.

IV. Order for a loan of $45,000 for West Newton Street Bridge.

V. Order for a loan of $500,000 for Oakland and Ashland streets.

VI. Order for a loan of $250,000 for River street.

VII. Order for a loan of $650,000 for East Boston Pumping Station.

Severally filed July 21, 1926. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

Coun. LYNCH's motion was carried.

Coun. GILBODY—Mr. President, I move that we now take No. I (referred to above) from the table.

President KEENE—The motion is out of order. The Council proceeded to take up the reports of the Committee on Finance, submitted by Coun. GREEN, as follows:

(1) Report, ought to pass, on the following orders (submitted by the Mayor and referred May 24):

Order for loan of $400,000 for snow removal equipment for Department of Public Works.

Order to transfer from the Reserve Fund to the appropriation for Public Works Department, Paving Service, $7,000 to C-1, Motor Vehicles, and $25,000 to C-13, Tools and Instruments.

Coun. WARD—Mr. President, I move that the report of the committee be laid on the table.

President KEENE—The question comes on Coun. Ward's motion to lay the report on the table.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, I want the councilors to understand that the motion to lay on the table does not have behind it the seriousness which might appear. The motion to lay on the table at this time will have the effect of accepting the report of the committee and carrying into effect these orders. Therefore, I hope the members of the Council will keep awake long enough to treat the matter with the seriousness to which it is entitled. I hope the motion to lay on the table will not prevail.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, I rise to make an amendment to the motion—that the motion to lay the report on the table be amended so that the matter will be laid on the table for one week.

President KEENE—The Chair will say that that is not a proper motion, that it does not properly apply to a motion to lay on the table. The question is, first, whether we shall lay the matter on the table or not.

Coun. GILBODY—Mr. President, a moment ago I asked for a vote on taking up No. 1, this $400,000 item, as it appears on the calendar, and I have not heard any decision as to that, and there has been no action taken on the motion.

President KEENE—The Chair has ruled that the motion is not in order. Coun. Lynch moved that the report of the Committee on Finance be taken up in the order in which these items appear on our calendar, and that motion was carried. Therefore, we are first taking up the report of the Committee on Finance on the $400,000 item, recommended by the Mayor. The question now comes on Coun. Ward's motion to lay this report of the committee on the table.

(Several members address the Chair.)

President KEENE—The motion is not debatable.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, I trust, sir, that I will not be considered out of order in saying a word at this time on such an important matter as now faces this Council.

President KEENE—The motion to lay on the table is not debatable.

Those in favor of laying the report of the committee on the table will say "aye" (a number responded); those opposed will say "no" (a number responded). The Chair is in doubt, and the doubt will be solved by a rising vote.

Coun. DOWLING—Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the vote by roll call.

President KEENE—The Clerk will call the roll.

Coun. Ward's motion to lay the above report of the Committee on Finance on the table was carried, yeas 12, nays 10:

Yeas—Coun. Arnold, Bush, Donovan, Englert, Green, Guild, Keene, McGrath, Ruby, Ward, Wilson, Wragg—12.

Nays—Coun. Dowd, Dowling, Fitzgerald, Freely, Gilbody, Heffernan, Lynch, Mahoney, McMahon, Parkman—10.

Coun. DOWLING—Mr. President, I desire unanimous consent to make a statement.

President KEENE—Coun. Dowling demands an opportunity to make a statement. Is there objection?

Coun. GREEN—Mr. President, do I understand that the councilor from Brighton requests or demands?

Coun. DOWLING—Mr. President, I simply make the general parliamentary request for unanimous consent to make a statement.

President KEENE—The Chair hears no objection.

Coun. DOWLING—Mr. President, the action of the Council in voting as it has absolves me from any bargain or agreement with the men who voted to put this matter on the table. The motion to lay on the table was inspired outside of this room. I am as familiar with the arts and artifices employed in getting legislation through this chamber as any man here. I know that every bit of pressure that could be put on members of the Council has been exerted on them to get this graft bill through. I know that the thing—

Coun. ARNOLD—Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. Upon what reasoning does the gentleman state that this is a graft bill?

Coun. DOWLING—Mr. President, I have been told that you can tell a Harvard man any time, anywhere, but you cannot tell him much. I am so much incensed about this thing that I am unable to restrain myself. I am so much disappointed in the Council that I am unable to find the words to express my displeasure. I am willing at any time to take the thing up on its merits, but I don't want a thing like this jammed down my throat. I want an opportunity for free and open discussion of the merits of this order. I don't dare to tell you, Mr. President, the things that I have heard in connection with the order, but I take this opportunity to suggest that the manner in which it is being crowded through ought to invite the attention of the District Attorney. I don't like to say that, and I don't say it with reference to the Mayor himself; but it is a vile, vicious, insidious effort to drag this Council into doing something that it should not do. The merits of the proposition have not been discussed at all; the value of the order has not been fairly considered. I know that certain promises have been made to members of the Council in the way of favors that they are to receive in the immediate future in case this order goes through. I know that the price that some of them will pay for the consideration they will receive is out of all proportion to what it is worth—and I do not say this at all in a financial sense. I do not believe there is any money consideration in the matter, and I don't believe that anybody concerned is dishonest. But I do not believe the matter has been considered fairly or properly, and I feel outraged that this Council should take the action it is taking upon it. I would like to say more, but I am so much amazed at the conduct of the Council that I cannot express myself.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, I rise to make a statement, with the unanimous approval of the body.

President KEENE—The councilor may do so, if there is no objection.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, personally I am not disturbed by the remarks of the previous speaker, because I can safely say that no promises have been made to me, either personally or for my district, in connection with my voting to lay this matter on the table. I don't think that the laying of this matter on the table disposes of it, by any means. I wish to say that I came into this Council today prepared to vote for it, without anybody requesting that I so vote. I felt that if it was the sense of a part of the committee that the matter should lie on the table before being finally voted upon, those few who took that position were entitled to consideration. As I understand it, if we are to meet again next Monday, as I understand that we are, the order will not be affected. For that reason, I had intended to make an amendment, if it was in order, that the matter be tabled for one week, which would bring us to the 19th of July, and not the 23d, when, if we do not act upon it, the order will go into effect. At present I am not satisfied that it is for the best interest of the city that the order should be passed, but I did feel, in view of the fact that our next meeting will not bring us to the time when the order would naturally go into effect, as certain members desired further time for consideration and wished the matter laid on the table, that it might be well at this time to postpone action, especially as we are not now planning to take a vacation, so that the matter would go into effect without this body approving or rejecting it.

Coun. GILBODY—Mr. President, I would ask unanimous consent to make a short statement to the body. I think this is the rawest piece of political hi-jacking ever done in any public body in the whole United States. We are robbing the people of Boston of a vote on a matter that concerns deeply the public welfare. I had the Chairman of the Board of Assessors before us today for the very purpose of knowing what is being planned in the way of increased valuation. As we know, we are to have a greatly increased tax rate. These things will necessarily result in increased cost to the property owners of our city, and in increased rents to those who hire or lease property. People are already obliged to economize all along the line because of increased cost of living, and their expenses are being added to by just this sort of thing. Of course, they will not realize it right off, will not appreciate it now. It will not mean very much to them until later, but when they get the bills reflecting these increased expenses they will get a blow right between the eyes. Of course, with this sort of thing going on rents must be raised. There is no way out of it. The suburban wards will feel it particularly. These items right here before us on the calendar total nearly $2,500,000, and the people of Boston are not given a chance, because of the steam-rolling tactics that are being adopted here, to have their representatives vote upon these matters. We know that this committee has been unusually active. Some members of the body have been called to the Mayor's office four or five times during this session, and we know what is going on. I think it is a raw deal and a rotten shame that the voters of my ward and other parts of Boston cannot have their opinion expressed on these important matters.

Coun. BUSH—Mr. President, I am very much surprised at some of the unwarranted and unjustified statements made by some of the councilors in regard to this matter. Nobody has ever approached me in regard to it and nobody has tried to coerce me. Frankly, I feel that it would be impossible for me to face my constituents next winter if some means is not procured whereby proper snow removal may be effected. There was considerable kicking on the part of the residents of my district last winter because the snow was not properly removed from the district and from the city proper. If I should vote against this bill, and the same thing should occur next winter, I would feel that I was in the position of retarding the progress of the city in the matter of snow removal and would be subjecting myself as well as the Mayor to still further criticism. We were told at the time of the snow storms last winter that the reason for the nonremoval of the snow was because of lack of equipment. I feel that we should give the Public Works Department the necessary equipment to do the job properly. If the department does not have the equipment, we should give it to them, and that is the only reason why I am prepared to vote for this bill.

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. President, I would like to have unanimous consent to make a statement.

President KEENE—The gentleman may proceed, with unanimous consent.

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. President, I think these explanations are entirely out of order. Any member who stands up here in this Council Chamber and tries to justify his action in voting to lay this matter on the table knows in his heart that he lies. He knows in his heart that when he stands up here, realizing that later he has got to make an accounting to his constituency for his action in this matter of snow equipment, in every bone of his body and every hair of his head he lies. He knows perfectly well that he is depriving the members of the Council and the people of this city of an opportunity to pass on the question. If he were fair, he would stand up here and give every member of the Council an opportunity to discuss the matter and explain his position. I am not so much opposed to this order as I am to the manner in which the means are being provided. I am opposed to the borrowing of the money when it could be taken out of the tax levy. There has been an absolute wrong, and they know it, perpetrated on the people of this city, because there are at least two contractors in this city who have the equipment and who had the equipment last winter, and the gentleman who moved this on the table is no doubt apprised of that fact. He knows full well that it was nothing but a conspiracy and that the snow removal work was given to contractors during the past administration who did not have the equipment, who never intended to have the equipment, and who by means of fraud and deceit robbed the city. The report of the Finance Commission states that if you appropriate two million dollars, unless you have the men to do this work, the money will be wasted and that you cannot justify your action. The civil service rules and regulations, as they now stand, are against the placing of men in emergency employment without first going to them. Our position here today is entirely wrong, Mr. President, and the men who have voted here as they have have acted outrageously, in my opinion, in a manner not even surpassed in the palmiest days of Boss Tweed in New York Board of Aldermen. And they will answer for this at a later time. It is an unfair way to treat the members of this body. I come from a section that pays a large amount of money in taxes on city property, and we have a right to demand a proper accounting when so-called reformers are elected on a reform platform, and deliberately vote, when a proposition of this kind comes up, to lay it on the table, not because in the honesty of hearts they believe such action should be taken, but for some other motive. Each and every one should have an opportunity to explain his position. The chairman of the committee should have an opportunity to explain, and possibly some members who are now opposed to the order, if they had a chance to see the light, might vote in favor of it. But you jam it down our throats and do not give us a chance to have the merits of the matter considered. Let me say to the gentleman from Roxbury, who made the motion,—sir, they will forget you, as they have forgotten others. I stand here unbossed and untrampled, and voting according to my conscience.

Coun. WARD—Mr. President, I cannot understand why members of this body are so much opposed to this motion. The question is not on the merits of the order, but simply laying it on the table. This order is not dead. If these men care to bring it up at a later date, they can do so. But I see no reason why there should be such excitement on the part of these men. They do not object to contractors doing the work, but when it comes to voting to have it done by the city and paid for out of the coffers of the city, they object. I see no reason why the city should not provide itself with equipment and do the work itself. I stood here at a previous meeting of the Council and expressed myself with regard to the departure from a recognized sound policy in the matter of public expenditures. I stated then, and I reiterate now, that the issuance of loans for the purchase of equipment, the life of which at best is not in excess of five years, is neither good business nor sound finance. The press of Boston, however, appear unanimous in favor of a large expenditure of money for the purchase of equipment for snow removal. Assuming that the press reflects the opinion held by the public generally, and appreciating that my obligation to the public whose interests I have been elected to represent in part is more important than my personal views, I propose when the vote is taken in the loan measure for the purchase of snow equipment to vote in accordance with expressed public opinion,—namely, in favor of the measure. But, Mr. President, I see no reason why everybody should go up in the air on this matter, feel amazed, and ready to jump to the skies. It is simply a matter, after all, that has been laid on the table. We have voted on it, and that is the action we have taken, and it can be taken from the table when desired.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, as one who voted in favor of laying the order on the table, I surely am not going to apologize to anybody inside or outside of this chamber for my action. I have never had to take dictation from anybody inside or outside of the chamber, and I do not intend to do so. I don't know anything about Boss Tweed, I was never familiar with any of the old political bosses. I don't like to hear a gentleman like the member on my left (Coun. Bush), who has rendered such splendid service outside and inside the body, referred to as a liar. I don't like to hear the oldest man in point of years in this body talking about the District Attorney investigating the action of the body. I don't know whether there have been conferences in which members of this body of twenty-two have been concerned or interested. I am a little surprised to see how some of the members here are acting. I do see, for one, no reason why the City of Boston should not take care of its streets, so far as snow removal is concerned, as well as Brookline and other surrounding towns. There has been a good deal said in the past about responsible men not being able to get a chance to do work of that sort unless they were favored contractors. I think this administration sets a splendid example when it takes on its own shoulders the work of removing the snow. After all, sir, the Mayor of this city and you and every member of this body were elected by the people to administer the affairs of the City of Boston. No contractor was elected or selected by the voters of our city to do that sort of thing. We are the ones who are responsible. Next January or February, when there is a great snow storm on and when the people of this city are demanding action, they will come to you, sir, and come to me, and everybody else who is a member of this Council, and want to know why something is not being done. They will not want excuses, but action. They want their streets cleared of snow. They don't care whether this concern or some other concern sold the equipment, but they will want to know why the City of Boston has not equipment sufficient to take the snow off the streets. They want action, and not conversation. The men who have voted upon this matter voted as their consciences dictated. That was the case with those who voted to lay the matter on the table, and I know that the men who voted against that motion voted in the same manner. I believe that, because I have confidence in my twenty-one associates, being convinced that everybody here is animated by honest impulses, and I am very sorry to hear references here to the District Attorney, to bosses, and to hear a man call a fellow member a liar. Unless we have confidence one in another, the City of Boston will suffer sorely, sir.

Coun. HEFFERNAN—Mr. President, I had no intention of entering into this debate, but it strikes me that one of the reasons why this should not have been laid on the table, even if we do meet next Monday and the time on the order does not expire until July 23, is that we have had no chance whatever to discuss and consider the matter upon its merits. Those who use the argument that we would meet before July 23 and might then act upon it, up to the time when that action was taken showed no disposition whatever to consider or speak upon the order on its merits. But now they want to go into the merits of it. They talk about contractors. This machinery is going to be bought for the contractors to use, not for the City of Boston. It is not the City of Boston, but the contractors, who will use it. But, of course, whenever the Mayor's office wants a vote, he gets it. A request comes in and the members jump. That has been so ever since the first of January, every time when anything was wanted, and it will be the same until next December.

Coun. PARKMAN—Mr. President, I have only a few remarks to make, inspired by the speaker on my right, Coun. McGrath, who stated that we should all have confidence one in the other. The action taken by the Council today, to my mind, shows a complete lack of confidence on the part of various members of the Council who have joined with the member on my right in laying this matter on the table. I agree entirely with Coun. Heffernan when he says that they have taken this opportunity, after the motion to lay on the table has been carried, to set their case before the Council and debate the question on its merits, when they were afraid to debate it on its merits on a straight out and vote on the loan order. The passage of the loan order in this manner—for I assume that the twelve votes will be the same next Monday and that it will be impossible to remove the matter from the table—illustrates a serious defect in the city charter. The city charter provides that any loan order which may be submitted by the Mayor shall go into effect within sixty days unless it is rejected. In other words, the City Council is supposed to act on a loan order, and if it fails to act within sixty days the order becomes a law. A loan order requires a two thirds vote of the City Council for passage, and therefore seven members of this body can block the passage of a loan order. That is contemplated in the charter, and presumably was inserted there in the interest of sound finance. That allows an earnest minority to block the passage of orders which are not, in its opinion, in the interest of the city. But by the tactics that we see employed here, which to my mind savor a good deal of cowardice, this order is laid on the table, and after July 23 has the effect of law. I am surprised at the action of this body. I did not believe that those in favor of the order would resort to such tactics. I am surprised, and I think the Council has hurt itself immeasurably. It only affords one other instance of the Council failing to live up to its duties and dealing with orders and appropriations coming before it with seriousness.

Coun. McMAHON—Mr. President, I have only a few words to say to the honorable body. When, before, I asked the question in regard to the expending by the city of $400,000 for such equipment, I asked, Is it fair, is it reasonable, that I as an individual, or any other councilor, should come to the city and ask the city to buy $400,000 of merchandise in my store? You all agree, of course, that it would not be, and I say that it is really the same question right here. When we buy this $400,000 of equipment, isn't it true that the contractors will use it? The answer, to my mind, is "Yes." And now I ask this other question, when it comes to the removal of snow by contractors: Isn't it true, under every mayor of the city, that the men who have removed snow are the same ones who have removed the ashes and garbage? And when a contractor who has taken on himself the duty of removing ashes and garbage is put on to snow removal work, doesn't he stop the other work when he goes on to the snow removal? If I am not mistaken, the answer is, "Yes." So I am going back to my ward, and I am not afraid to tell them that I have voted against the $400,000 for snow removal apparatus. I believe when I go back I will say, "Yes, I am in favor of voting to give the city enough men and shovels to remove the snow."

Coun. MAHONEY—Mr. President, I think perhaps I should say a few words in regard to this order to provide snow removal apparatus. As a new member, I have taken occasion to express myself on but a few matters that have come before the body, and those were matters in which I felt that the people of my district were particularly interested. I have had something to say about the budget, about the L Street Bath, and about the Irish resolution. I said on the budget that I did not feel that proper time was being given to its consideration, the time that it so richly deserved. In regard to the L Street Bath, I felt that Coun. Lynch and myself, coming from that section, might naturally be expected to know something more about the merits of the matter than representatives from other parts of the city. In regard to the Irish resolution, coming from South Boston and two thirds of my constituency there being of the Irish race, I naturally felt that I might properly express their sentiment in favor of the resolution. Now, in regard to this $400,000 loan order for snow removal apparatus, I simply wish to say, representing that district, that I know the feeling of the district generally is not in favor of spending the city's money for the benefit of specially favored contractors.

Coun. GREEN—Mr. President, as chairman of the Committee on Finance, which reported out this order, I do not intend to make any apology to the Council for my attitude or my vote this afternoon. I think I voted right. I might bring to the attention of some of the so-called reformers who have occupied a great deal of the time of the City Council this afternoon that I, as a councilor from Charlestown, am in no way responsible for present conditions in City Hall, or for the election of the present Mayor. Neither am I responsible, Mr. President, for the election of the Republican President of the City Council. You all remember, if your memories serve you right, what happened on the floor of this Council on January 4 last. The men who were responsible for the debauchery of the Democratic Party in Boston, after electing a Republican Mayor of this Democratic city, because they were dissatisfied with the plums that were given out at City Hall and because the Mayor refused to pay the price of their treachery to the Democratic Party, said, "We have only one weapon left to tie his hands, and that is to tie him up in the City Council." Mr. President, I was a candidate for the presidency of this body. I came into this body unattached. I represent 40,000 people in Charlestown. There are at least twenty-five men and women in the gallery here this afternoon who are looking for employment, and they come to me, and to nobody else in Boston, to seek that employment, to put the bread and butter on the table and make it possible for them to bring up their little children. Mr. President, the Mayor has been very kind to me. The Mayor has done many little things for me since he has been Mayor of this city—I mean, in the line of jobs for a few men who deserved work. I am not interested in any contractors, Mr. President; I am not interested in the buying of supplies; I am not interested in the purchase of this equipment. But I want to serve this warning on some of the men who have stood up here and talked reform this afternoon—that I am representing Charlestown and that I will vote as I please, and that when I go back to Charlestown I will answer to the people of Charlestown. I don't want anybody to point a finger at me and say "Graft," and I don't intend to have anybody lead me by the ear into this Council Chamber and tell me how to vote. On several occasions, only last week, I was asked to stand up here and make an attack on the present Mayor of Boston. I was told, "That is the only thing that we can do to handle him." There is a certain element looking to destroy the present Mayor, because they cannot handle him. Those men, I claim, are responsible for the election of a Republican Mayor of Boston; those men are responsible for the defeat of Tom Green as President of this body, and those same men are out this afternoon trying to tell me how to vote; trying to tell Donovan how to vote; trying to use the members of the City Council for ulterior purposes and motives. Mr. President, Mr. Sullivan was appointed Commissioner of Public Works, and he was confirmed by the Civil Service Commission. The present Mayor of Boston was Collector of Internal Revenue for five years. They never questioned his honesty and integrity in that position. The people of Boston, although he was in the minority party, elected him Mayor of this city. I think that Mr. Sullivan, the Commissioner of Public Works, is an honest man. I think that the Mayor of Boston is an honest man. I don't think that any member of this City Council, by innuendo, or in any other way, should cast any slurs or any reflections on the honesty or integrity of our Mayor. I am going to say this much, that as long as he treats me the way he has treated me I will never stand on this floor and oppose him. I know that there are some men in this body who, if they had the entree to the Mayor's office and could get favors for poor unfortunate fellows, such as some of the men here in the gallery today, could have some of the little things done that have been done for me, or could get something done for some favored contractor, would stand on the floor of the Council and defend the honorable Mayor of Boston, Malcolm E. Nichols, where they are now attacking him. I am not looking for any contracts; I am not going in to make any money for Tom Green. I am going to put those men to work, and I am not going to apologize for my stand this afternoon.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, I wouldn't have missed this meeting for the world. I personally am unable to understand how some of my colleagues in this Council are so easily excited. When they talk about ulterior motives, I am caused to wonder somewhat about the possibility of ulterior motives on the other side. What is a perfectly valid order does go through, as the result of the snow storms of last winter. It occurs to me that if this vote had been taken a week after the snow had fallen, it probably would have been a unanimous vote in favor of the $400,000 loan for this purpose. It is, of course, an unfortunate time to vote on snow removal in the middle of the summer, but the men whose responsibility it is to look after that work must think and act ahead. They already have next winter in mind and wish to make preparations for it. If this order is defeated, if bad conditions come next winter, everybody will be asking why preparation was not made, in light of the trouble of the past. I know something about conditions in Dorchester, and I know that last winter the contractors of snow removal, made a poor job of it. I know this, that if you are going to listen to such contractors as we had doing the work out in Dorchester, the contractors who are removing ashes and garbage, and if they don't improve their method of handling the ashes and garbage situation in the district, we will try to relieve them of that responsibility as well.

(2) Report recommending the passage of the following orders (submitted by the Mayor and referred June 21):

Order appropriating $70,000, to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Works, for the Broadway Bridge.

Order appropriating $45,000, to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Works, for the West Newton Street Bridge.

The question came on accepting the report and passing the order.

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. President, I am not opposed to the passage of this order. I notice that it takes effect August 20. I simply want to reiterate the statements I have already made here, and to say that the explanations of why we should vote for this thing do not justify it. All we want to do here is to have a fair debate on the question of all these laws. That was not desired by some of the members, but we have had it now on the matter already reported, just the same. What the gentleman from Dorchester may have said about Boss Tweed, or no matter what the gentleman from Allston may have said, the fact is this, that you are all trying to explain and to find a way out. I, for one, said that I was not opposed to the proposition as a whole, except that, by reason of the way in which the thing was being brought about, I opposed the borrowing of the money. It is all very well for the last speaker to say that there are ulterior motives. I want to say now that there are no ulterior motives on my part, and it makes me smile to hear each and every member try to explain his position. You are now doing the very thing that we were trying to have done, giving an opportunity to speak on the question and have a fair discussion. Why doesn't some member move that this matter be laid on the table? Where is the gentleman from Roxbury, Mr. President, who has been crying reform in this Council Chamber since the beginning of the year? Why has he quietly removed from his seat? I wish he would return and make the same motion, that this be laid on the table. I am waiting for some member of the Council to do so. (Coun. Ward entered the Chamber at this point.) The gentleman has now arrived, Mr. President. I said that I thought it was in order now for the gentleman from Roxbury to move that Items 3 and 4 be laid on the table.

Coun. WARD—Mr. President, I did not hear the gentleman's previous remarks, but I would simply like to say that I don't like to see the gentleman from the Hendricks Club coming down here continually and trying to bull somebody.

President KEENE—We have before us at this time the report of a committee. If any motion is made, the Chair will be glad to entertain it.

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. President, notwithstanding the fact that I believe I have a right to reply to the gentleman who has made reference to a certain organization, I will restrain myself. Simply let me tell him that that organization does not have to apologize to anybody for what it does. It is attending to its affairs 365 days in the year, and doing good work all the time. I simply said that I believed if the gentleman was sincere here today he would continue the dirty work he started to do, as the messenger of somebody, by moving to lay this matter on the table, also. Earlier in the session he deliberately placed members of this body in a compromising position, and then ran away. But you will have to answer to your constituents in this matter. I simply say that you might as well go through with the work that you have started today.

Coun. WARD—Mr. President, fortunately the unfortunate member of the Hendricks Club is not representing Ward 9, and when I go back to my constituents—

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. I believe the discussion is out of order.

Coun. WARD—I do, myself. (Laughter.)

President KEENE—The point of order is well taken. The question is on the acceptance of the report and the passage of the orders, and the Clerk will call the roll.

The Clerk called the roll. The report was accepted and the orders were passed, yeas 19, nays 3: Yeas—Coun. Arnold, Bush, Donovan, Dowd, Englert, Fitzgerald, Freeley, Green, Guild, Keene, Lynch, Mahoney, McGrath, McMahon, Parkman, Ruby, Ward, Wilson, Wragg—19.

Nays—Coun. Dowling, Gilbody, Heffernan—3.

(3) Report recommending the passage of the following orders (submitted by the Mayor and referred June 21):

Order appropriating $500,000, to be raised by loan, for Oakland and Ashland streets.

Order appropriating $50,000 for Oakland and Ashland streets, the amount so appropriated to be raised by taxation.

The report was accepted, and the question came on the passage of the orders.

Coun. PARKMAN—Mr. President, as I have stated my general position in regard to these loan orders previously in this session, I do not need now to go over the reasons again in detail, except to state that I shall vote against accepting the report of the committee on the ground that this money should be provided within the debt limit and not outside of it.

Coun. DOWLING—Mr. President, before the vote is taken I would like to ask if any member of the Council can tell me whether the usual boiled dinner invitation of his Honor the Mayor was offered in connection with these orders? I understand that that was one of the considerations in connection with the $400,000 apparatus for snow removal, and if that is the customary thing in connection with these matters I would like to know it. I personally received an invitation to attend a boiled dinner, and I stated that I was pretty well informed on matters coming before the body and, if I may use the word here, damned well fed, and, therefore, I kept away from the dinner.

The vote by roll call was as follows:

Yeas—Coun. Arnold, Bush, Donovan, Englert, Green, Guild, Keene, McGrath, Ruby, Ward, Wilson, Wragg—12.

Nays—Coun. Dowd, Dowling, Fitzgerald, Freeley, Gilbody, Heffernan, Lynch, Mahoney, McMahon, Parkman—10.

President KEENE—The order for the loan of $500,000 is defeated, and the order to appropriate $50,000 is passed.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, I rise to a point of information. Do I understand that there were two orders?

President KEENE—Two orders dealing with the same subject, one for $500,000, a loan order, and the other for the sum of $50,000, which was appropriated, one dependent upon the other.

Coun. GILBODY—And what is the status of the thing now, if I may ask?

President KEENE—The order for the loan of $500,000 is defeated, and the order appropriating $50,000 is passed, the order for the loan, the larger amount, requiring a two thirds vote, and the tax order requiring only a majority vote.

Later in the session, Coun. GUILD said:

Mr. President, I move a reconsideration of the vote on the loan order and that the vote be taken at the next meeting of the City Council.

President KEENE—The question comes on reconsideration.

Coun. DOWLING—Mr. President, I don't understand that the motion is that we reconsider now?

President KEENE—The motion is to reconsider at this time.

Coun. DOWLING—I believe the author of the motion expressed the intention that the reconsideration would take place at the next meeting.

President KEENE—The matter can then be assigned to the next meeting, but the question at this time is on reconsideration.

The motion to reconsider the vote by which the loan order was defeated prevailed, and the order was laid on the table.

(4) Report on orders, submitted under authority of chapter 226 of the Acts of 1926 (submitted by the Mayor and referred June 21) ought to pass as follows:

Order to borrow $250,000, to be expended by the Board of Street Commissioners, for River street reconstruction.

Order to appropriate $25,000 for the same purpose, the amount so appropriated to be raised by taxation on the polls and estate in the City of Boston.

Coun. PARKMAN—Mr. President, I will make the same statement in reference to this order as I did in regard to the others, that I will vote against it. I ask for a roll call.

Coun. WRAGG—Mr. President, I move that the matter be laid on the table.

Coun. Wragg's motion to lay on the table was declared carried. Coun. DOWLING doubted the vote and asked for the yeas and nays.

The motion to lay on the table was carried, yeas 12, nays 10:

Yeas—Coun. Arnold, Bush, Donovan, Englert, Green, Guild, Keene, McGrath, Ruby, Ward, Wilson, Wragg—12.

Nays—Coun. Dowd, Dowling, Fitzgerald, Freeley, Gilbody, Heffernan, Lynch, Mahoney, McMahon, Parkman—10.

(5) Report recommending the passage of the following orders (submitted by the Mayor and referred June 21):

Order for a loan of $650,000, under chapter 259 of the Acts of 1926, to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Works, for East Boston pumping station and outlet.

Order to appropriate $65,000, to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Works, for East Boston pumping station and outlet, in accordance with chapter 259 of the Acts of 1926, the amount so appropriated to be raised by taxation.

Coun. DONOVAN—Mr. President, I move you, sir, that the matter be laid on the table. I do so on account of the intense feeling and personalities we have seen displayed this afternoon by some of the councilors, and I trust that the matter may be taken up at a time when we can all show better judgment.

Coun. DOWLING—Mr. President—

President KEENE—The motion to lay on the table is not debatable. You cannot speak without unanimous consent. (Objection was made.) Objection being made, the question comes on the motion to lay on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was carried.

JITNEY LICENSES.

Coun. WRAGG, for the Special Committee on Jimmy Licenses, submitted report recommending leave to withdraw on the following petitions:

New York & Boston Auto Tourist Company (referred February 8).

Rhode Island Coach Company, Inc. (referred June 14).

Report accepted, petitioners given leave to withdraw.

GENERAL RECONSIDERATION.

On motion of Coun. RUBY, reconsideration of all action taken today was refused.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, I move that when this Council adjourns today it be to meet one week from today at the usual time.

President KEENE—The Chair will state that the motion is out of order, because, unless some other action is taken, we will under the rules meet next Monday.

SYMPATHY TO HON. JOHN W. WEEKS' FAMILY.

Coun. ARNOLD offered the following:

Resolved, That the sympathy of the members of the Boston City Council be extended to the members of the family of the late Hon. John W. Weeks, former United States Senator and Secretary of War, in the bereavement caused by his death. The resolution was passed by a unanimous rising vote.

Adjourned, on motion of Coun. RUBY, at 4:31 p. m., to meet on Monday, July 19, at 2 p. m.

PROCEEDINGS OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

June 21, 1926.

A regular meeting of the School Committee of the City of Boston was held in the Administration Building, 15 Beacon Street, at 6:45 o'clock
P. M., the Chairman presiding.

Present: Mrs. Barron, Dr. Bogan,
Messrs. Gray, O'Hare and Sullivan.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES.

The reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was omitted, the Board approving them as printed.

APPROVAL OF APPOINTMENTS AND TRANSFERS.

The Chairman stated the question was on approving the appointments and transfers of principals, and the appointments of teachers, as reported by the Superintendent and laid over at the last meeting.

The appointments of four principals were approved, Messrs. O'Hare and Sullivan voting in the negative on the appointments of the two women principals.

The transfers of principals, and the remaining appointments were approved.

In connection with the appointment of the two women principals,
Mr. O'Hare made the following statement:

I must tonight state publicly once more my position as to appointments to elementary and intermediate school principalships by promotion from rated lists.

My stand is simply this:—I believe that the highest rated woman should be appointed to an all-girls' school when such a vacancy occurs; that the highest rated man should be appointed to an all-boys' school when such a vacancy occurs; that the highest rated individual, regardless of sex, be appointed when the vacancy occurs in a mixed school.

I am fully aware that until the present lists were established in June, 1925, to stand for three years, that there was no question as to the appointment of individuals to mixed schools from the top of either list.

During the preparation of this last list, however, the race for high rating was much keener than ever.
Degrees of A.B., A.M., and M.E. were obtained by many of the candidates. Some even began study for the degree of Ph.D.

Ratings attained by the candidates were naturally higher than ever before.

Both men and women were rated on the same basis, established by the Board of Superintendents, after conference with both the women and the men.

So much for the background of this situation. Now as to the interpretation of the lists in appointments.

Thus far six men have been appointed with respective ratings of 994, 992, 991, 989, 987, and 986.

Two women have been appointed with respective ratings of 990 and 953.

In these appointments the woman with a rating of 990 was appointed to an all-girls' school, and the man with a rating of 991 was appointed to an all-boys' school. All other appointments were to mixed schools.
In the nominations before us tonight, both men are nominated to schools now attended exclusively by boys. Their respective ratings are 985 and 984.

The women are nominated for appointment to mixed six-grade schools.
Their respective ratings are 951 and 949. With no personal antagonism to the nominating authority or to the nominees, therefore, in the nomination to the mixed school principalship, I must cast a negative vote.
Twelve men stand on their list rated respectively 983, 981, 980, 976, 975, 974, 973, 969, 963, 962, 961 and 952.
One man has a rating of 951.

Consequently, I cannot vote for persons with lower ratings for mixed schools. I stand tonight, as I have always stood, believing in equal opportunity in salary, in promotion, and in appointment for women and men.

When I feel that inequality of opportunity is offered I must say "No."

Mrs. Barron: Does not consider that the ratings as stated by Mr.
O'Hare mean that the ratings of the women are not as high as the ratings of the men. It has been pointed out in former discussions, and in the admirable reports of the Superintendent and the Board of Superintendents on the subject, that the ratings are not comparable.

Mr. O'Hare: The ratings of the men and women are made on an identical basis. Bases of rating credits are fixed. In interpretation of appointment there can be difference of opinion, and it is right that there should be; but there can be no question as to bases of rating.

Mr. Sullivan: Believes that numerical priority should prevail in this instance as he has previously stated.

Dr. Bogan: Is satisfied that the ratings of men and women are not comparable. Agrees with Mrs. Barron that the ratings of men and women as reported do not indicate lower attainment for the women—merely that the women have not had opportunities which have come to the men.

Superintendent: This topic has been debated every time a woman has been nominated for appointment as Principal. As was pointed out very clearly in the Board of Superintendents' report, presented at the meeting of May 10th, these two lists are not comparable. There are certain items in the plan of rating to which the women objected, but finally yielded, because it was definitely understood that there would be two distinct lists; otherwise there would have been no lists. The Superintendent submits for appointment the names of the persons who, in his judgment, are best fitted to fill the particular positions, guided by the fact that the lists are not comparable. If Mr. O'Hare's proposal were to carry, there would be no appointment of a woman principal for the next two years.

Mr. Gray: Has already gone on record on the question of the two lists. Merely wishes at this time to reaffirm what he has previously said, as reported in the minutes of the meeting of May 10, 1926. (See p. 97).

Mr. Sullivan: No disagreement with the nominating authority. One thing that controls in his mind and in the minds of the other members and of the nominating authority—the good of the child. Reaffirmed statement made at a previous meeting, that in his judgment numerical priority determines the best candidate, and that is all that interests him. Not particularly interested in contractual relations or that sort of thing.

Superintendent: Was a party to the preliminary negotiations which resulted in the present plan of rating, and cannot disregard the elements which entered into that rating.

Mr. O'Hare: Had nothing to do with the factors which entered into the making of the lists. Was told the men and women were rated on the same basis, no differentiation. Race for principalship has grown keener with the years. Cannot establish degree requirements and then disregard the results for those who have succeeded in obtaining degrees. Since 1918, it has been understood that degrees were essential for high rating. If sacrifices have been made to obtain these degrees, then reward should be given. Cannot be accused of being unwilling to give women opportunities. His attitude on this question has been repeatedly stated and is understood.

13. ORDERED, That for the year ending August 31, 1927, deductions on account of absence of temporary teachers serving on an annual salary shall be made on the same basis as that established for regular teachers.

In connection with the foregoing, Mr. Gray made the following statement:

In considering the various items of the proposed salary schedule and the petitions presented to the School Committee bearing upon them, I am convinced of the merit of several of the petitions and if funds were available I should make a plea for recognition in such cases. I am also impressed by the fact that there may be other adjustments which should be made.

Under these circumstances, and in the absence of available funds, I feel that the School Committee, through its Board of Apportionment or other agency, should make at an early date, a careful study of school salary relations in this and other large cities, and be prepared to consider well in advance of the establishment of the next salary schedule, all suggested adjustments.

When this study has been completed, if the School Committee believes that certain adjustments should be made, and there are not at that time adequate funds with which to make them, steps should be taken to secure an enabling appropriation.

I am, therefore, voting in favor of the salary schedule as presented except in so far as this vote may be taken as approving the creation of the position of sanitary inspector in the Department of School Hygiene, on which item I desire to be recorded as not voting.

Mr. Sullivan: Asked if Mr. Gray's objection to the Sanitary Inspector is to the creation of the position, or to the filling of the position, or both.

Mr. Gray: To the creation of the position.

Mr. O'Hare: There are several items in the salary schedule to which he does not agree, but accepts the schedule as a whole. Will not at this time discuss the individual items. Intended to ask that the schedule be discussed, item by item, but will not now ask for this. Will vote in favor of the salary schedule with mental reservations. Hopes that the Board of Apportionment will make careful study of the salary schedule at an early date.

As to inclusion of the rank of Sanitary Inspector, suggested by the Director of School Hygiene, has nothing to say. Believes that the Director knows the needs of his department. When a department exists and money is available for extension or improvement, and the Director makes a recommendation, will sustain the Director.

Mr. Sullivan: Wished to go on record as publicly commending Dr. Cecconi for his very able administration of his important office, which office he has filled for a period of about one year.

Mrs. Barron: So far as the salary schedule is concerned, is in hearty agreement with what has been said as to needs of adjustment of certain items of the salary schedule. Agrees that a careful study should be made by the Board of Apportionment. Were funds available certainly would vote in favor of increases in many instances where discrepancies now exist.

Dr. Bogan: No doubt each member of the Board feels the same way as to need for adjustments. This year, however, the available balance is but approximately $60,000, and consequently Committee is unable to raise salaries of any group. Some adjustments have been made, but no general increases allowed. Is sure the Board of Apportionment will make a careful study of the salary situation and bring in constructive recommendations with reference to salary adjustments.

Mrs. Barron: Will vote in favor of the Sanitary Inspector in accordance with the recommendation of the Director, and since the regulations make the Director of School Hygiene responsible for sanitary conditions in the schools. Certain conditions now exist which should be remedied and for which the Director is responsible.

Question came on the adoption of the thirteen orders establishing a general salary schedule for the year ending Aug. 31, 1927, which orders were passed collectively by the following vote:

YEAS—Mrs. Barron, Messrs. Bogan, Gray (with the exception of the item of sanitary inspector), O'Hare and Sullivan—5.

BOSTON CHARTER CHANGES.

In 1854, 1885, 1909 and 1924 important changes in the original City Charter of 1821 were effected for the purpose of improving the methods and efficiency of the City Government. The revision of 1854 (Chap. 448, Stat. 1854) referred to the voters for acceptance, gave the Mayor a qualified veto over the action of the City Council, also the power of removal of appointed officials, besides providing for his election by a plurality instead of a majority vote. The amendments of 1885 (Chap. 266, Stat. 1885) were not submitted to the voters for approval. They transferred all the executive powers to the Mayor, prohibiting the City Council form interference with the executive and administrative business of the City. This was done in order to end the inefficiency resulting from an excessive number of joint committees, a municipal development conforming to the traditions of the outgrown town government.

The amendments of 1909 (Chap. 486, Stat. 1909) cut down the number and powers of the legislative branch of the government to a minimum, the Board of Aldermen (13 members) and the Common Council (75 members) being abolished. For these was substituted a single City Council of nine members to be elected at large for 3-year term. The Mayor's position was further strengthened by giving him a 4-year term, subject to recall at end of two years, but requiring a majority vote of the registered voters to make the recall effective. The Mayor's power over appointments was no longer subject to check by aldermen but by a State board, the Civil Service Commission and City elections were removed from all connection with national and State politics, no primaries nor caucuses being permitted, all candidates for office to be selected by means of nomination papers. The only question in this Act of 1909 which was submitted to the voters was contained in section 35, i. e., whether Plan 1 or Plan 2 should be adopted, the first providing for a term of two years for Mayor and a City Council of 36 members to be chosen in primaries. Plan 2, providing for City Council of 9 members, was adopted by a majority of 3,894.

Charter of 1909 amended later as follows: (1) By Chap. 437, Acts of 1910, exempting loans issued for Rapid Transit construction from the prohibition of the establishing of sinking funds, as contained in sec. 26. (2) Chap. 730, Acts of 1914, fixing date of annual municipal election on the sixth Tuesday after the state election instead of in the following January, as in sec. 32; changing the requirements as to signatures on nomination papers to 3,000 for Mayor and 2,000 for City Council and School Committee instead of 5,000 for all, as in sec. 53, also limiting the number of nomination papers issued to 300 for a candidate for Mayor and 200 for other candidates, referring to sec. 54. (3) Chap. 37, Special Acts of 1918, annulling the jurat at end of nomination papers. (4) Chap. 94, Special Acts of 1918, abolishing recall of Mayor and making him ineligible for re-election, i. e., establishing a single term of four years, but not prohibiting the election of any Mayor for other than consecutive terms. (5) Chap. 288, Acts of 1921, fixing date of the annual municipal election on the first Tuesday after the second Monday in December, also making slight changes as to nominations. (6) Chap. 133, Acts of 1922, changing publication of list of City officials and employees to every second year from 1923. (7) Chap. 479, Acts of 1924, providing for biennial City elections (dating from Nov. 3, 1925); for borough or ward representation in City Council; for a fiscal year dating from Jan. 1 to Dec. 31, beginning in 1926, also a municipal year dating from the first Monday in January, to begin in 1926; for election of the five members of School Committee in 1925, the candidates receiving the two largest votes to hold office four years, the other three for two years and at the election in 1927 and thereafter the term for all to be four years.

The only amendment of 1924 subject to a referendum was the alternative of Plan 1 or Plan 2 as to the City Council. At the State election on Nov. 4 Plan 2 was adopted, providing for the election by each ward in 1925 and every second year thereafter of one councillor for 2-year term.

SETTLEMENT OF BOSTON, 1630.

Effected by Puritan colonists under Governor John Winthrop in the latter part of August, 1630. The name of the original settlement was changed to Boston from Trimountaine by order of the Court of Assistants on September 7 (O. S.), 1630. This date was moved forward by the New Style calendar in 1752 to Sept. 17, the recognized date of the founding of Boston. The name, Trimountaine, had been given because of the three peaks of the most prominent hill, afterward called Beacon Hill, much higher then than now. By the Indians the place was called Shawmut. The name, Boston, was derived from the English town of Boston in Lincolnshire, the home of some of the leading colonists and promoters of the enterprise.

CONFERENCE ON PLAY STREETS FOR CHILDREN.

The Mayor has addressed the following communication to William C. Prout, Esq., on play streets for children:

July 28, 1926.

WILLIAM C. PROUT, Esq., Barristers Hall, Pemberton Square, Boston, Mass.

DEAR MR. PROUT,—I have your letter under date of July 27 relative to the setting aside of play streets for children and I am of the opinion that there has been for a number of years quite a good deal of discussion about this matter.

There was at one time an opinion rendered by the Law Department concerning it and I have been in consultation with the Street Laying-Out Department and with the Law Department.

Without awaiting any further expression of opinion from the Law Department, I may state that in all probability there is no legal authority in the city for creating play areas in the streets, and there would, therefore, be no apparent means of enforcing any rule for the protection of the children who play there.

As you know, children have been instructed in the schools to keep off the streets and I should not deem it advisable to notify them to play there, unless adequate and satisfactory means were at hand to give them full protection; otherwise, I am afraid that instead of keeping them out of danger, they may be unnecessarily exposed to it from drivers who did not obey the rule or who might be careless at points where children had congregated.

There is undoubtedly great merit in the suggestion, but if carried into effect it ought to be with a thorough understanding on the part of all municipal authorities concerned, such as the School Committee, the Police Department, the Park Department, the Street Laying-Out Department and the Law Department.

I have asked a representative of each of these departments to meet and discuss the situation to see if it is possible to formulate a practical plan.

Very truly yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,

Mayor.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

The Dewell Company are experienced and have done considerable work for this department and on account of the short time left to complete this work, it is considered desirable to award the contract to them, without advertising.

From the estimates submitted to us the cost will be as low as the work could possibly be done by any other contractor who would furnish the same character of work.

This work is to be performed according to our specific directions and within the time required by the department.

Respectfully,

BOARD OF ASSESSORS,
by EDWARD T. KELLY.

PENAL INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

Upon July 19 the Mayor approved an even exchange of motors with H. Werby.

A communication from Philip A. Chapman of the Penal Institutions Department was as follows:

BOSTON, July 17, 1926.

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Your approval is respectfully requested for an even exchange with H. Werby of 168 Oliver street, Boston, of one Westinghouse Motor, Type S. K., 10 H. P., 1,300 r. p. m., 230 volts, and one Triumph Electric Motor, 10 H. P., 750 r. p. m., 220 volts, for one 10 H. P. motor suitable for our needs.

The two motors being exchanged by this department were two that were salvaged from Rainsford Island when the School for Boys was abandoned and are not proper voltage to be operated by our current.

Under date of July 6 your Honor approved this exchange with the J. W. Myerson Company, and this was cancelled for the reason that they did not live up to their agreement. As stated in my letter of July 3, the F. W. Ridlon submitted a bid calling for the exchange of our two motors and the payment by the city of $89.

I accordingly recommend your approval for this exchange to H. Werby.

Yours respectfully,

PHILIP A. CHAPMAN,
Penal Institutions Commissioner.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, July 19, 1926.

Regular meeting of the City Council, held in the City Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2
p. m., President KEENE presiding. Absent, Coun. Gilbody.

ABOLITION OF CONSERVATION BUREAU.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 19, 1926.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Section 5, chapter 18 of the Revised Ordinances of 1925, provides that "The Conservation Bureau shall be in charge of a board of nine members." With the exception of a few months subsequent to the organization of the Bureau, its membership has never equalled this ordinance requirement.
The person designated as chairman has practically controlled and directed the activities of the Bureau. Since the death of Doctor Bradford, I have endeavored to secure some member of the medical profession to carry on this work, but I have been unable to locate anyone willing to sacrifice the time and money which acceptance of the position necessitates.

The research and investigational activities of the Conservation Bureau are closely related to problems in which the Health Department is directly concerned. There is no reason why these activities cannot be conducted under the immediate direction of the Health Department. Such procedure would obviate the difficulty which has been experienced in filling the membership quota of the Bureau as defined by ordinance. I therefore submit for your approval an amendment to the existing ordinances providing for the discontinuance of the Conservation Bureau as a separate division but further providing that the research and investigational work in which the Bureau has been engaged will be continued under the immediate direction of the Health Commissioner.

Respectfully,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,

In the Year Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-six.

An Ordinance Regarding Conservation Bureau.
Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston,
as follows:

Section 1. The conservation bureau is hereby abolished.

Sect. 2. The health commissioner shall establish in addition to the other divisions of the health department, a conservation bureau, the members of which shall serve without compensation, and shall be appointed by the health commissioner with the approval of the mayor. Said bureau shall be under the direction and control of the health commissioner.

Sect. 3. The conservation bureau shall from time to time make such recommendations to the health commissioner as in its opinion will be conducive to the conservation of human life and the promotion of public health, and said recommendations shall be transferred to the mayor by the health commissioner.

Referred to Committee on Ordinances.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Under date of July 12, 1926, was voted by your honorable body. This act authorizes the city to appropriate a sum not in excess of $10,000 to be expended in the further improvement of the aircraft landing field at East Boston. In my message accompanying the order providing for the acceptance of this act, I pointed out the desirability of the city aiding in the development and improvement of this aviation field. I therefore submit the accompanying order providing for the expenditure authorized in the legislative act and respectfully recommend its adoption by your honorable body.

Very truly yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Ordered, That in accordance with the provisions of chapter 385 of the Acts of 1926 a

The question came on accepting the report and passing the order.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, the Supplementary Budget for the City of Boston and County of Suffolk which was referred to the Committee on Appropriations on June 21 totalled $128,854.62. Subsequent to the receipt of the document by the committee several adjustments were suggested by his Honor the Mayor, because of tardy action on the part of certain county departments in making known requirements to be included in the supplementary budget. The result of these adjustments was a net reduction of $8.33 in the total of the supplementary budget as originally submitted, thus making the total to be considered by the committee $128,846.29. The budget as now unanimously reported by your committee totals $122,521.29, making a net reduction of $6,325 in the original total requested. This reduction is accounted for as follows:

1. A requested appropriation of $325 to cover certain increases granted to clerical assistants in the office of the District Attorney for the balance of the year was disallowed on the ground that the increases are unwarranted and grossly in excess of increases granted this year to other city and county employees. The increases allowed by the District Attorney were as follows: Miss Effie M. Fife, secretary and chief clerk, $3,000 to $3,250. Miss Gertrude E. Maloney, indictment clerk and stenographer, $2,300 to $2,500. Miss Margaret M. Swan, stenographer, $1,600 to $1,800. The salary increase records of these three favored employees is interesting and illuminating. Miss Fife, transferred from the Central Office of the Institutions Department to the office of the District Attorney in March, 1922, at an initial salary increase of $200; in June, 1923, received a further raise by the District Attorney from $2,500 to $3,000, and now her latest increase to $3,250 ranks her as probably the highest paid female employee in the entire city and county, exclusive of the School Department. Without any criticism of the service or ability of Miss Fife it is nevertheless interesting to note that in the short space of four years she has been placed in a unique salary class distinguished from such capable and efficient female employees as Miss Herlihy, secretary of the City Planning Board; Miss Nelson, chief clerk and fiscal agent of the Institutions Department; Miss Clayton, assistant secretary of the Street Laying-Out Department, and Mrs. Dacey, special examiner in the auditor's office. These latter employees have served the city faithfully in positions of responsibility for periods, with one exception, far in excess of the term of service rendered by Miss Fife, and yet Miss Fife's present compensation is $350 per year greater than the highest paid member of the group mentioned, and $1,150 more than the lowest paid member of the group. Miss Maloney entered the employ of the District Attorney's office in 1922 at a salary of $1,800, with an increase of $300 in June of the following year and a still further increase of $200 in May, 1924. Her present increase of $200 means that in four years, as distinguished from other city and county female employees paid by the city, she has been granted three salary increases, totaling $700. Miss Swan, entering the employ of the District Attorney's office in February, 1924, at a salary of $1,400, one year later received a salary increase to $1,600, and her latest increase of $200 places her present salary at $1,800. Thus in the short space of two years the salary of this employee has been increased so as to bring the pay of her position in advance of practically every other female employee of the city and county with a like rating. Without any reflection on her ability it would appear that capable stenographers are easily obtainable in the City of Boston at salaries less than $35 per week. Under the provisions of section 19, chapter 12 of the Revised Laws, the approval by the chief justice of the Superior Court of the action of the District Attorney seems to preclude the City Council from exercising any rights to which they would seem entitled as County Commissioners; in other words, it would appear that the City Council has no right under the present statutes to review or reject salary increases of this type in the office of the District Attorney or even unlimited increases in the number of clerks. The committee's action in refusing to appropriate funds for these increases, even though the increases would seem now automatically in effect, is based on the thought that the money necessary to meet the additional expense imposed on the city treasury by the action of the District Attorney at this time should be found within the original budget appropriations granted to the office of that official, and a feeling that while the committee may not prevent the increases from going into effect, it can in a measure protect the taxpayers of the city by refusing to appropriate any additional sums for questionable increases in salary.

2. A request for an additional appropriation of $5,000 for use by the District Attorney in the hire of experts has been disallowed. The average expenditure for this purpose in the last four years has been approximately $20,000. The original budget allowance for the current year was $19,000, hence, if the supplementary appropriation was granted the total allowance for this year would be approximately twenty per cent in excess of the average requirements of previous years. The committee is informed that the principal use made of this item by the District Attorney is the employment of private detectives and outside investigators. In view of the fact that the City of Boston appropriates over $5,000,000 annually for the maintenance of a Police Department, and since it would appear possible for the District Attorney to secure much of the investigation service of this department for which it would seem he is now paying outsiders at the rate of $2,000 a month or $500 a week, the committee feels that the original allowance granted for the current year is amply sufficient and that no supplementary appropriation should be made. The committee realizes that under the provisions of section 24, chapter 12 of the Revised Laws the District Attorney probably has the statutory power to incur whatever expenses for expert services he may deem necessary, and accordingly the committee in refusing to vote the additional amount requested may not prevent the District Attorney from persisting in exceeding the original allowance if in his opinion such excess is necessary. As in the action taken in the matter of salary increases, the committee feels that if it is necessary for the District Attorney to exceed the original amount appropriated such excess should be found within the original total appropriation for the District Attorney's office. Here again the committee, so far as in its power, has endeavored to protect the taxpayers of the city from another questionable expense. With the thought that it is properly the duty of the Police Department to apprehend criminals, and primarily the duty of the District Attorney to prosecute, there is a feeling that properly utilizing a five million dollar police force may well cut down the expenditure of thousands of dollars annually for private detectives with that consequent duplication of expense to the taxpayers.

3. An appropriation of $1,000 which was requested by the clerk of the West Roxbury District Court to cover the anticipated services of special justices in the court has been disallowed, since in the opinion of the committee the unexpended balance remaining in the original appropriation of this court as of July 1, 1926 is adequate to meet the needs of the court for the balance of the year in this respect. With the above three exceptions the Committee on Appropriations recommends the passage of the Supplementary Budget, and calls attention to the following particular items. The appropriation of $2,100 for the Building Department will insure early publication of a much needed edition of the Building Laws, including the Zoning Law, the last edition being exhausted. The $3,543.46 item under Suffolk County Courthouse will grant increases of pay to some sixty-five engineers, mechanics, watchmen, etc., bringing them up to the present city scale. The $20,000 for the House of Correction is for the construction of a proper sea wall barrier at Deer Island which it is hoped will prevent the Powder House sliding into the Atlantic Ocean. A $15,000 item is for furniture and equipment in the new Dorchester and Brighton Courthouses, with a further item of $1,000 for the law library at Brighton. In its consideration of both the original and supplementary county budgets, the Committee on Appropriations has been impressed by the fact that apparently under existing statutes the City Council is practically powerless effectively to review or reject estimates, if any, submitted by county officials. Each year these estimates continue to show a marked increase, which increase must be met in its entirety by the City of Boston. For 1926 the people of the City of Boston will be asked to pay $3,444,618.08 in county expenditures namely ten cents out of every dollar raised by taxation. The City Council, required as County Commissioners to appropriate the money should logically be able to exercise some degree of direct control over the rapidly mounting costs. Legally, however, it would appear that little if any control can be exercised in view of the fact that under existing statutes county officials in the main may spend whatever sums they may deem necessary without rejection, regulation, or review by the duly elected representatives of the people of Boston who pay the bills. Until the County Commissioners by proper legislative action are given some affirmative rights to keep the total appropriations of the county within reasonable limits it is difficult to see how any effective reduction in that part of the tax rate pertaining to the county, comprising over ten per cent of the annual total, can be made. According to all principles of local self government the man who pays the bills should have some degree of control over the expenditures, and the time has come for the City Council to do more than merely sign on the dotted line.

Coun. DOWD.—Mr. President, may I ask the Chairman on the Committee on Appropriations in reference to oilers and mechanics who are listed at the courthouse, if they are receiving the same pay or more pay than the oilers and mechanics employed by the City of Boston?

Coun. WILSON—What is that under?

Coun. DOWD—Oilers and mechanics.

Coun. WILSON—Name the item. What is the item?

Coun. DOWD—I haven't any exact item before me, Coun. Wilson.

Coun. WILSON—In the proceedings of June 21, 1926, at page 182, you can name it.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, referring to Coun. Wilson's suggestion, I will say it is Schedule A, page 182.

President KEENE—Will Coun. Wilson answer the question?

Coun. WILSON—I am informed that, under the caption, "County of Suffolk, Suffolk County Court House (Custodian)," which the members of the Council will find at page 182 of the proceedings of June 21, except for a few minor exceptions, the pay is the same as the pay of the other city employees. The exceptions, however, are, I believe, that the eight mechanics, the one oiler, and possibly one other exception, receive 50 cents more a day. With the exception of those eight or ten employees, I believe the pay is exactly the same, and with respect to those employees the pay has been determined by the county officer, who sets the wages under the provisions of Acts of 1923, chapter 525, but the pay of the great majority of them is exactly the same.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, I find here listed under Schedule A ten firemen, listed at $36, receive an increase of 50 cents per day, four mechanics at $36 to go to $42, one mechanic at $36 to go to $39, and three mechanics at $34 to go to $42. In view of the remarks of Coun. Wilson, while I have agreed with him in reference to county affairs, I also feel that oilers and mechanics of the City of Boston should be given the same compensation as those men employed by the County of Suffolk. Here we are raising oilers and mechanics in Suffolk County, while oilers and mechanics of the City of Boston are receiving 50 cents a day less than these gentlemen receive at present. While I am not against the increase, yet I believe that the oilers and mechanics in the City of Boston are entitled to 50 cents more a day, and I believe that the same consideration should be given to this by those who voted for the budget as was discussed here last year.

The report of the committee was accepted and the order passed, yeas 21, nays 0.

INVESTIGATION OF EXPENDITURES OF THE COUNTY OF SUFFOLK.

Coun. FITZGERALD offered the following: Ordered,—That the Committee on County Accounts be hereby authorized to make an investigation of the expenditures of the County of Suffolk, and for that purpose to send for persons and papers and give hearings; the expense of the same, including stenographic report, to be charged to the appropriate items in the appropriation for City Council.

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. President, I will state that the Committee on Counties, at an executive session after the meeting held last week with respect to a new Suffolk County Court House, voted to offer this order today at this meeting. We have it on reliable authority from some of the best minds that we are County Commissioners in all that that word implies, and that we have the same powers, the same rights, and the same duties as all other County Commissioners throughout the entire Commonwealth. In the other counties of this Commonwealth they are elected by the people, and we here in Suffolk County, in the City of Boston, are elected by the people. We have all the rights of, and we can perform all the duties performed by, County Commissioners in the other counties of this state, with the exception of apportioning the Representatives to the Great and General Court. Therefore, we believe that the time is now ripe when we should test how far our power goes and to see if people can spend this money without anybody's check upon it. We discovered in the meetings of our committee that men had been appointed, and women also, to positions without the authority of this Council, and then they come in here after they have made the appointments and ask us to vote the money. There is no court in the Commonwealth or in the nation that will stand for such a proposition as that—to say that any man may spend any amount of money because he is head of a department and then come in here, or make appointments without authority, and get away with it. I believe the time is at hand when this matter should be settled once and for all, and I believe that it will be found when it is over that we are County Commissioners. You will also note that the Supreme Court, when the matter was put up to them here some time ago, ruled that we were County Commissioners. The man whose salary was in question at that time never would have been paid but the City Council finally yielded. The judges were panned, but they were compelled to rule that the members of the City Council were still County Commissioners.

CONTROL OF SUFFOLK COUNTY EXPENDITURES.

Coun. WILSON offered an order—That the City Council as County Commissioners by proper committee or committees investigate the present system whereby the City Council of the City of Boston is called upon to appropriate over three million dollars annually for meeting expenditures of Suffolk County officials, including the office of the District Attorney, with little, if any, power effectively to reject, regulate or review, detail estimates, if any, submitted by the various county departments; that incidental to such investigation the City Council obtained an opinion from the Corporation Counsel of the City of Boston relative to the powers, if any, of the City Council to refuse or regulate appropriations requested by the county; and that the City Council recommend the passage of such appropriate legislation by the State Legislature as will, in accordance with the basic and well-recognized principles of local self-government, permit the taxpayers of the City of Boston, who pay the bills of the County of Suffolk, to have some reasonable degree of control over the items and details of such expenditures.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, my report as chairman of the Committee on Appropriations today, relative to the supplementary budget, suggests the advisability of the unanimous adoption of this order, as does the statement which has just been made by Coun. Fitzgerald, as chairman of the Committee on Counties. For the year 1926, out of a total of $34,278,522.06 raised by taxation, the sum of $3,445,318.08, or over 10 per cent of the total, has been appropriated for the payment of county expenses. Items in the estimated annual budget of any city department can be revised or even rejected by the City Council, but, on the present state of the law, apparently county officers, including the District Attorney, not only need not submit any explanatory budget to the City Council or County Commissioners, but can even go ahead with the incurring of bills first and then afterwards demand that the City of Boston pay the bills without explanation. In other words, so far as county expenses are concerned, the City Council is told, annually, to sign on the dotted line. I for one do not care to sign on any dotted line. If the city councilors, as County Commissioners, are without power to question the expenditure of three and a half million dollars for the County of Suffolk, then as soon as we are relieved of that rubber stamp capacity the better. If we are to continue to appropriate the money, I demand the right to see and question the bills, and particularly so if the people of Boston are to pay anywhere from three to six and a half millions of dollars for a new Suffolk County Court House.

Referred to Committee on County Accounts.

DISCONTINUANCE OF STREET RAILWAY SERVICE ON WASHINGTON STREET, DORCHESTER.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Whereas, the Public Works Department, in connection with the proposed resurfacing of Washington street, Dorchester, from Armandine street to Codman street, has been in consultation with the Boston Elevated Railway relative to setting its tracks to grade; and

Whereas, The Boston Elevated Railway has advised the Public Works Department that this so-called Public Service Corporation has decided to remove all its tracks on Washington street beyond Armandine street, and thereby abandoning any attempt to offer transportation facilities in the Codman Hill district:

Resolved, That the City Council of the City of Boston protests to the Department of Public Utilities against the proposed creation of a No Man's Land beyond Armandine street, Dorchester, by the Boston Elevated Railway, and protests against the unwarranted abandonment of public transportation facilities in the Codman Hill district at the very time when extensive real estate development of a million and a half square feet of land will insure the completion within a twelve-month period of at least four hundred new two-family dwellings.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, some months ago there came before the Jitney Committee a petition by the Boston Elevated Railway affecting the district represented by Coun. Donovan in East Boston, at which time the Boston Elevated Railway Company asked permission to run jitneys in the Maverick square district. As the result of Coun. Donovan's opposition to the granting of that permit, it was defeated. Apparently now in the Dorchester district the Boston Elevated Railway are endeavoring to perform the same operation, with reverse English, and apparently it proposes now to tear up the car tracks without public knowledge, that is, tear up its present roadbed without the public knowledge, to the destruction of street car service in the Codman square district. Apparently it hopes to ram down the public's throat bus service. The people of the Dorchester district, prior to the ramming operation, are holding a mass meeting on Thursday evening of this week in Codman square, and it is in connection with that meeting and the protest now being raised that I ask the unanimous passage of this resolution, a copy of which I would also ask be forwarded to the Department of Public Utilities.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

TRANSPORTATION ON THE SHAWMUT BRANCH.

Coun. WILSON offered an order—That the Transit Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to submit to the City Council forthwith a copy of the terms and conditions under which the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railway sold the so-called Shawmut Branch for a rapid transit system, particularly with reference to any provision being made for continuous transportation facilities to the South Station from Fields Corner, Shawmut, Ashmont and Cedar Grove.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, incidental to the creation of this No Man's Land in the Cedar Grove-Codman Hill district of which I spoke, the plan, apparently, is to cease all railroad transportation on the so-called Shawmut Branch. In connection with that abandonment of transportation facilities for a period of two years on the Shawmut Branch commencing January 6, I introduced an order last week which I requested be forwarded to the Department of Public Utilities. May I ask the City Clerk, through the Chair, if that was done.

President KEENE—The City Clerk advises the Chair that that has been forwarded.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

REAL ESTATE VALUATION.

Coun. DOWD offered an order—That the Board of Assessors be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to not increase the valuation on real estate used for residential purposes on which improvements have not been made since April 1, 1925.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, before that is referred to the Executive Committee, I realize only too well how powerless this Council is to act in the regulation of taxation, but I desire to bring to the attention of the people of Boston that the City Council has no right to vote on the regulation of taxes or the increase of valuation. I am of the firm opinion, after consulting with various real estate experts in the City of Boston during the last week, that real estate reached its peak during 1925, and there is no real foundation why the Mayor or the Board of Assessors should increase one piece of real estate in the residential section of Boston. We have talked here today on expenses; we have talked all year on the budget, and we have voted for the budget, and some of us have voted against it. Now we are faced with what? We are faced with a substantial increase in taxation, which in itself is bad enough, but we have been informed by the chairman of the assessors, who waited on us last week, that most likely increases, though slight, would be made in various sections of the city. I believe that the City of Boston should be given a square deal by the assessors. I believe it is about time for the City Council to step in and take a hand. While we are powerless to act, at the same time we can voice our position. It is a matter that affects each member of the City Council here. When they receive their tax bills in a short time they not only are going to receive a six-dollar increase in the rate, but they are going to receive an increase in valuation, and I hope the members of the City Council and the Mayor of Boston will see fit to take steps whereby they may stop the Board of Assessors from making a wholesale raid on the residential sections of Boston.

VACATION LEAVE OF MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN LEGION.

Coun. GUILD offered the following:

Resolved, That the Boston City Council respectfully recommends to his Honor the Mayor and all department heads that notice be given forthwith to all employees of the city who are members of the American Legion and who are entitled to vacations in the calendar year 1926, that they may, by giving notice in writing to their department heads of their wish so to do, forego the whole or any part of the vacation to which they are entitled in 1926 and have any days so foregone in 1926 added to the time to which they shall be entitled as vacations in 1927.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, that resolve is simply, in a way, following out action taken by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in extending to the employees of the Commonwealth the privilege of foregoing the whole or any part of their vacation to which they are entitled this year and adding it on to such part of their vacation as they are entitled to next year, in order to make possible their attendance at the Paris Convention of the American Legion next year.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

EXERCISE OF CARE IN CITY
EXPENDITURES.

Coun. PARKMAN offered the following:

Resolved, That the Committee on Appropriations exercise as much care in the scrutiny of city expenditures of $44,000,000 as in those of the county of $3,000,000.

Coun. PARKMAN—Mr. President, in view of the experience of a minority of the Committee on Appropriations some months ago in considering the budget, I was as pleasantly surprised at the enthusiasm of that same majority in the scrutiny of county expenditures as I had been previously disagreeably surprised with the light touch with which they went over the expenditures of the City of Boston, amounting to $44,000,000. It seems to me that now is an opportune time, perhaps, to capitalize the now-found enthusiasm of this majority and to dedicate their intentions at this time to a more serious consideration of the budget next year.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, as chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, I would state that the majority welcome Coun. Parkman to the majority and presume to think that his new-found enthusiasm is due to the fact that the committee now appears to be unanimous. (Laughter.)

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, I rise for information. I should like to have the proposed resolution—is it—order or order? I would like to have it read again.

The Clerk, by direction of the President, again read the resolution offered by Coun. Parkman, and the same was passed under suspension of the rule. Coun. Ruby doubted the vote and asked for a roll call. The roll being called, the rule was suspended and the order passed, yeas 12, nays 7:

Yeas—Coun. Dowd, Dowling, Fitzgerald, Freeley, Heffernan, Keene, Lynch, Mahoney, McGrath, McMahon, Parkman Ward—12.

Nays—Coun. Arnold, Bush, Englert, Guild, Ruby, Wilson, Wragg—7.

RECESS.

The Council voted, on a motion of Coun. BUSH, at 2.55 p. m., to take a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The members reassembled in the Council Chamber and were called to order by President KEENE at 3.30 p. m.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE MAYOR.

The following was received:

Office of the Mayor, July 12, 1926.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Subject to confirmation by your honorable body, I appoint Elmer S. Nyman, 450 Columbus avenue, Ward 4, to the position of Constable of the City of Boston, for the term ending April 30, 1927.

Respectfully,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Laid over for one week under the law.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Chairman DOWLING, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

1. Report on the message and order (referred today) appropriations of $10,000 for grading, filling and resurfacing the aircraft landing field in East Boston, said sum to be charged to the Reserve Fund—that the order ought to pass.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, it came almost as a shock to me to find the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations and the member from Ward 5 supporting in the Executive Committee this order. The Committee on Appropriations has distinguished itself today by formidable reports in favor of economy in municipal finances. This order asks the City of Boston to spend $10,000 on land which the City of Boston does not own and land which the City of Boston does not use, but which at the present time is being used by the Federal Government and to which private individuals and corporations have the right of access. I thoroughly believe that the order is entirely unlawful, and that the City Council has no right or legal ability to pass the order, in the first place, and it is distinctly shocking to me that they are considering expending $10,000 of the city's money on this land which they do not own, have no control over, and from which the Federal Government will derive all the profit. The Federal Government which is now in office has received favorable comment on account of economies which it has been able to practice, and it strikes me, if they have been able to achieve these economies, that they should be called upon to spend some of the money upon this particular piece of property, and that, if the State of Massachusetts, the owner of the property, is to continue to own it, exercise jurisdiction over it and control it in all ways, not only now but in the future, it is surely called upon to pay the money for the improvement of it, and I can see no reason whatever for spending the money of the taxpayer of the City of Boston in improving a piece of property owned by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts simply by way of advertising.

The question came upon acceptance of the report and the passage of the order. The Clerk called the roll, and the order was passed, yeas 19, nays 1.

Yeas—Coun. Arnold, Bush, Donovan, Dowd, Dowling, Englert, Fitzgerald, Freeley, Green, Heffernan, Keene, Mahoney, McGrath, McMahon, Parkman, Ruby, Ward, Wilson, Wragg—19.

Nays—Coun. Guild—1.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, I move you that the City Clerk be instructed to obtain from the Corporation Counsel an opinion as to the legality of the action which the Council has just taken.

Coun. PARKMAN—Mr. President, I see no question as to the legality, although, of course, I would bow to the superior knowledge of the member from Hyde Park. The Legislature in Massachusetts has recently passed a bill, which was accepted by the City Council, in the last session, authorizing the City of Boston to spend this money, and, as the City of Boston derives its powers from the Legislature of Massachusetts, I cannot see how there can be any question as to its authority.

President KEENE—The Chair would say, for the information of Coun. Guild, that the question came before the Corporation Counsel, and he stated that the city had no authority, after which steps were taken to have an act passed by the Legislature to cover this very point.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, I have it well in mind that there are a great many bonds now outstanding issued by authority of various state legislatures which they had no power to authorize in the first place. The mere fact that the Commonwealth of Massachusetts through its legislature has authorized the City of Boston to do this does not make it legal, necessarily. It is just as probable that the Legislature of Massachusetts has erred as it is that the City Council is erring at the present moment, and I therefore press my motion.

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. President, I would like to say this much, that, when this matter was in the Legislature, it was to be authorized by the state, and when it got down before the Committee on Ways and Means they simply passed the buck to the city to pay this money.

The motion was carried.

2. Report on order (referred July 12) for the payment of an annuity of $600 to the widow of Michael J. Travers—that the same ought to pass.

Report accepted; said order passed.

SNOW REMOVAL EQUIPMENT.

Coun. HEFFERNAN—Mr. President, I rise to a point of information. Is it possible for us to separate the item on the calendar in reference to snow removal equipment, so that we can approve all items except $360,000, that is, for the purchase of dump trucks, which can be hired on fifteen minutes' notice from any contractor in Boston?

President KEENE—For your information the Chair will state that, as the matter now stands, it lies upon the table, and it would be necessary to remove it from the table before any action can be taken.

Coun. HEFFERNAN—Mr. President, I raise another question of information. If it is removed from the table, can the appropriation be divided so that the Council can approve all except $360,000 for dump carts?

President KEENE—The Chair would be of the opinion that it could.

Coun. HEFFERNAN—Mr. President, I move we take from the table Item No. 4, the loan of $400,000 for snow removal equipment.

The question came on the motion, which was declared lost.

Coun. Dowd doubted the vote and asked for a roll call. The roll was called and the motion defeated, yeas 9, nays 12:

Yeas—Coun. Dowd, Dowling, Fitzgerald, Freeley, Heffernan, Lynch, Mahoney, McMahon, Parkman—9.

Nays—Coun. Arnold, Bush, Donovan, Englert, Green, Guild, Keene, McGrath, Ruby, Ward, Wilson, Wragg—12.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a statement?

President KEENE—The Chair hears no objection.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, we are faced here today with a very peculiar situation where a Council composed of twenty-three members represent and are elected by the people of Boston. We have before us loan orders totalling $1,500,000. If this same procedure persists during the coming month, then those loan orders will become effective without nine or ten members of this Council having an opportunity to cast their votes for or against them. It is the first time in the history of this Council that any agreement which we have entered into has been broken. Don't the members of this Council believe it to be fair to at least take the matter from the table and allow us to debate on the merits of the situation, instead of closing the thing up as they have denying nine or ten councilors, representing 250,000 people, the right even to vote yes or no on the situation? What have we before us in this appropriation of $400,000 for snow apparatus? What do we find? We find an item of sixty dump carts, or dump trucks, as they describe them, at $6,000 apiece, a matter of $360,000, and the other $40,000 is for modern snow apparatus, and I certainly as a councilor would be for that item. But today we are denied that right to vote. The Republican Party in this city and state has denied the Democratic Party and the Democratic people the right to vote. They denied us by law decency and fair play in reference to this matter. Mayor Innes—I beg your pardon—Mayor Nichols, I believe you should be fair in this matter. I do not believe that you should tie up with twelve men in the way you have. They have talked about the Democratic majority for the last sixteen years. Why, my friends, they were angels compared with the bunch of pirates that are ruling Boston at the present time, and I say it is an outrage, and I say that the Democratic mayors of the past, Mayor Nichols, were just as pure as the snow compared with the gentleman whose actions rule the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and as long as we have this bill for $400,000, ramming it down the people's throats, I believe the people of the City of Boston will feel just the same way as I do—that it is an outrage.

Coun. BUSH—Mr. President I would like unanimous consent of the Council to say a few words.

Coun. GUILD—I object.

Coun. DOWD offered an order—That his Honor the Mayor be requested, in awarding the contracts for snow removal equipment, when the order for this equipment becomes effective, to purchase said equipment from the lowest bidder after the submission of competitive bids.

Passed under a suspension of the rule.

EAST BOSTON PUMPING STATION AND OUTLET.

On motion of Coun. DONOVAN, the Council voted to take from the table No. 7 on the calendar, viz.:

Ordered, That the sum of $65,000 be and hereby is appropriated to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Works, for East Boston Pumping Station and outlet, in accordance with chapter 259 of the Acts of 1926, and the amount so appropriated to be raised by taxation on the polls and estates of the City of Boston.

President KEENE—Does the councilor desire to state anything in connection with the order?

Coun. DONOVAN—I just wish to state my reason. Mr. President, I made the motion with this thought in mind,—that this order will enable the Department of Public Works of the City of Boston to function, and it will enable them to formulate their plans, and it will also assist the assessors of the City of Boston in estimating the tax levy for the City of Boston.

The roll was called, and the order was accepted, yeas 20, nays 0.

RIVER STREET RECONSTRUCTION.

On motion of Coun. WRAGG, the Council voted to take from the table No. 9 on the calendar, viz.:

Ordered, That the sum of $25,000 be and hereby is appropriated to be expended by the Board of Street Commissioners, for River street reconstruction, in accordance with chapter 260 of the Acts of 1926, and the amount so appropriated to be raised by taxation on the polls and estates in the City of Boston.

The order was passed—yeas 17, nays 3:

Yeas—Coun. Arnold, Bush, Donovan, Dowd, Englert, Freeley, Green, Guild, Heffernan, Keene, Mahoney, McGrath, McMahon, Ruby, Ward, Wilson, Wragg—17.

Nays—Coun. Dowling, Lynch, Parkman—3.

SPEED OF FIRE APPARATUS.

Coun. WARD offered an order—That the Fire Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to rescind his recent ruling limiting the rate of movement of the Fire Department apparatus to twenty-five miles per hour in responding to an alarm.

Referred to Executive Committee.

GENERAL RECONSIDERATION REFUSED.

On motion of Coun. McGRATH, reconsideration of all action taken today was refused. Coun. BUSH moved adjournment.

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. President, to what date shall we adjourn?

President KEENE—The Chair will say, unless some specific date is mentioned, the Council will meet a week from today.

Coun. FITZGERALD—I move we adjourn to August 30.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, may I call to the attention of Coun. Fitzgerald that there are several loan orders on the calendar that become effective on August 20, and I highly believe that it is necessary for the Council to be in here, in view of the action taken today, as the orders will be effective even laying on the table, and from now on it will be the course to lay it on the Council table.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, I move that motion be amended that, when we adjourn today, we meet two weeks from today.

The amendment being acceptable to Coun. Fitzgerald, it was put to vote and declared carried.

Adjourned, at 3.50 p. m., to meet on Monday, August 2, 1926, at 2 p. m.

PLAYGROUNDS BEING PATRONIZED.

Following official instructions to the Park Department to advance organized sport on the city playgrounds, and utilize them to the fullest extent, reports now indicate that in addition to the boys playing on teams representing different city playgrounds, 1,500 more boys are now playing organized baseball.

The work of the athletic instructors on the different playgrounds has resulted in a great success and more boys are coming under their supervision daily, with the result that the playgrounds are being used more than ever and the boys are being kept off the streets.

At the present time there are over 3,300 boys making use of eleven of the largest city playgrounds for organized sport.

CLAIMS ALLOWED.

Upon recommendation of the Corporation Counsel the Mayor has approved the following claims:

Oscar J. Couillard, 9 Templeton street, Dorchester, in the sum of $19.86, as compensation for damage to automobile by defective condition of highway at 1415 Tremont street, March 31, 1926.

William A. Gaston, in the sum of $500, as compensation for use of land on Brookside avenue and Cornwall street, West Roxbury, by the Park Department, prior to execution of formal lease.

Eva Chavin, 162 Huntington avenue, in the sum of $50, as compensation for personal injuries received May 21, 1926, from broken brick in sidewalk in front of 150 Huntington avenue.

BOSTON CHARTER CHANGES.

In 1854, 1885, 1909 and 1924 important changes in the original City Charter of 1821 were effected for the purpose of improving the methods and efficiency of the City Government. The revision of 1854 (Chap. 448, Stat. 1854) referred to the voters for acceptance, gave the Mayor a qualified veto over the action of the City Council, also the power of removal of appointed officials, besides providing for his election by a plurality instead of a majority vote. The amendments of 1885 (Chap. 266, Stat. 1885) were not submitted to the voters for approval. They transferred all the executive powers to the Mayor, prohibiting the City Council form interference with the executive and administrative business of the City. This was done in order to end the inefficiency resulting from an excessive number of joint committees, a municipal development conforming to the traditions of the outgrown town government.

The amendments of 1909 (Chap. 486, Stat. 1909) cut down the number and powers of the legislative branch of the government to a minimum, the Board of Aldermen (13 members) and the Common Council (75 members) being abolished. For these was substituted a single City Council of nine members to be elected at large for 3-year term. The Mayor's position was further strengthened by giving him a 4-year term, subject to recall at end of two years, but requiring a majority vote of the registered voters to make the recall effective. The Mayor's power over appointments was no longer subject to check by aldermen but by a State board, the Civil Service Commission and City elections were removed from all connection with national and State politics, no primaries nor caucuses being permitted, all candidates for office to be selected by means of nomination papers. The only question in this Act of 1909 which was submitted to the voters was contained in section 35, i. e., whether Plan 1 or Plan 2 should be adopted, the first providing for a term of two years for Mayor and a City Council of 36 members to be chosen in primaries. Plan 2, providing for City Council of 9 members, was adopted by a majority of 3,894.

Charter of 1909 amended later as follows: (1) By Chap. 437, Acts of 1910, exempting loans issued for Rapid Transit construction from the prohibition of the establishing of sinking funds, as contained in sec. 26. (2) Chap. 730, Acts of 1914, fixing date of annual municipal election on the sixth Tuesday after the state election instead of in the following January, as in sec. 32; changing the requirements as to signatures on nomination papers to 3,000 for Mayor and 2,000 for City Council and School Committee instead of 5,000 for all, as in sec. 53, also limiting the number of nomination papers issued to 300 for a candidate for Mayor and 200 for other candidates, referring to sec. 54. (3) Chap. 37, Special Acts of 1918, annulling the jurat at end of nomination papers. (4) Chap. 94, Special Acts of 1918, abolishing recall of Mayor and making him ineligible for re-election, i. e., establishing a single term of four years, but not prohibiting the election of any Mayor for other than consecutive terms. (5) Chap. 288, Acts of 1921, fixing date of the annual municipal election on the first Tuesday after the second Monday in December, also making slight changes as to nominations. (6) Chap. 133, Acts of 1922, changing publication of list of City officials and employees to every second year from 1923. (7) Chap. 479, Acts of 1924, providing for biennial City elections (dating from Nov. 3, 1925); for borough or ward representation in City Council; for a fiscal year dating from Jan. 1 to Dec. 31, beginning in 1926, also a municipal year dating from the first Monday in January, to begin in 1926; for election of the five members of School Committee in 1925, the candidates receiving the two largest votes to hold office four years, the other three for two years and at the election in 1927 and thereafter the term for all to be four years.

The only amendment of 1924 subject to a referendum was the alternative of Plan 1 or Plan 2 as to the City Council. At the State election on Nov. 4 Plan 2 was adopted, providing for the election by each ward in 1925 and every second year thereafter of one councillor for 2-year term.

Trains of four or six cars are run in the East Boston Tunnel, the Washington St. Tunnel, continuing on elevated track to Forest Hills, also in Dorchester Tunnel from Andrew sq., So. Boston, connecting with Cambridge Tunnel, to Harvard sq., Cambridge, while only single or double street-cars are run in the other tunnels and subways. In accordance with Chapter 741, Acts of 1911, the various leases were extended to July 1, 1936, the rental to be $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent of net cost after expiration of the first-term leases.

806 C.	Frances Hobbs	Dec. 31, 1929

Placed on file, and the previous certification amended accordingly.

A communication was received from the Board of Superintendents, under date of June 28, 1926, recommending that the lists of successful candidates of the December, 1925, examinations, as certified at the meeting of June 1, 1926, be amended by transferring the following item from Certificate XI. Special: Vocational Instructor and Vocational Assistant, to Certificate IV.: High School, in view of the fact that Mr. Sullivan took the examinations—Vocational Instructor group—for the purpose of qualifying for promotion within the school by obtaining Certificate IV.: High School:

797 James P. Sullivan, Dec. 31, 1932.

Had the group been offered under Certificate IV. the examination would have been identical with that offered under Certificate XI. and Mr. Sullivan, in all respects, meets the requirements for the IV. High School certificate.

Placed on file, the amendment to eligible lists as certified at the meeting of June 1, 1926, allowed, and the Board of Superintendents authorized to issue Certificate IV. High School in accordance with recommendation.

O'Connor, custodian of the Norcross School-house, who stands at the head of the list, be appointed to the position, to take effect June 27, 1926.

Placed on file and the transfer of Francis L. O'Connor approved, to take effect on the date stated.

INVESTIGATION AND STUDY OF PROPOSED PARENTAL SCHOOL.

Mr. O'Hare offered the following: May I call this Board's attention to the fact that from the City of Boston there are now at the Middlesex County Training School at North Chelmsford, Mass., fifty boys who were designated as "habitual truants" in Boston.

The City of Boston is paying for these lads $11.80 a week, which would total over $30,000 for a calendar year.

Boys who are truants in our day schools are sent to our Disciplinary Day School. If they then continue to be truants and the court adjudges them "habitual truants" they are sent to the Middlesex County Training School.

I am not complaining of the school, nor do I say aught of the operation of the law.

Yet I do feel that Boston should handle its own truancy problem.

To this end, I ask that this statement be spread upon the records and that a copy be sent to His Honor, Mayor Malcolm E. Nichols, for such investigation and recommendation as he may deem proper.

Mr. Sullivan suggested that the matter of Parental School provision for Boston pupils be referred to the Board of Superintendents for study and report back to this Committee, such study to include established methods of procedure in other similar schools as well as the Middlesex County Training School; the report back to this Board to include expression of opinion as to the so-called penalty method of caring for truants as now in effect in certain schools, from an educational point of view.

Mr. O'Hare's statement was ordered spread upon the records and a copy sent to His Honor, the Mayor, in accordance with Mr. O'Hare's request, and the whole matter was referred to the Board of Superintendents for study and report back, as suggested by Mr. Sullivan.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The order laid over at the meeting of June 7, 1926, amending Section 300, paragraph 6 of the regulations, relative to the number of employees in the Department of Music, was taken up and passed.

The three orders laid over at the meeting of June 14, 1926, relative to the rank and salaries of certain teachers in the Boston Trade School and the Continuation School, were taken up.

Mr. O'Hare pointed out that senior instructors in the continuation and trade schools must meet the same requirements as junior masters in high schools.

The salary of junior masters is $2016—$144—$3600; that of senior instructors is $2040—$120—$3600. The maximum of both ranks is the same; the minimum of senior instructors is slightly more than that of junior masters; and in his judgment the annual increment should be the same—$144.

Senior instructors in the Continuation School are now given the same salary as high school assistants, namely, $1728—$96—$2976.

Can see no reason why the Board should not agree to his proposition to change the rank of the senior instructors to that of "junior masters."

The Superintendent read the following statement:

Underlying the recommendations of the Board of Apportionment with reference to salary increases was the fact that there is practically no money available for the purpose. According to the report of the Business Manager, we are running very close to our appropriations on existing salary schedules. Hence, in the report submitted, there were no group recommendations. Only a few individual adjustments were suggested.

The case of Senior Instructors in the Boston Trade School and the Continuation School, in the opinion of the Board of Apportionment, did not warrant any departure from the general principle of increasing groups, nor have these groups been overlooked in recent salary schedules. In fact, they have received two substantial increases lately. Comparing the salaries with that of Junior Masters in high and Latin schools, we find only this slight variation:

Junior Masters (Latin and Day High Schools)....2016 144 3600
Senior Instructors (Trade and Continuation Schools), 2040 120 3600

To increase the annual increment for senior instructors at this time, or what seems still more serious, to change their rank, would be a step in the direction of putting the Boston Trade School and the Continuation School on a parallel with the high schools of the city. There seems to be no justification for establishing such a comparability.

If the salary schedule for this rank of Senior Instructor is changed, it would seem as though Division Heads in the Trade School likewise should be given a greater increment. The salary for Division Heads, Boston Trade School, is as follows:

Division Heads.....2496 96 3552
Division Foremen, Continuation School, likewise have a lesser increment than Senior Instructors although the minimum is higher. It reads as follows:

Division Foremen...2208 96 3264
Although certificate IV. is not required for this rank, nevertheless XXXI-B is required, which is the certificate required for co-operative instructors who have a salary schedule of:

Co-operative Instructors2016 144 3456

It should be pointed out further that First Assistants in The Teachers' College with a maximum of $3936 have an annual increment of only $96, and First Assistants, Heads of Departments, in high schools, with a maximum of $3648, have an annual increment of only $96.

In all this discussion, it should be kept in mind that Master's Assistants in elementary and intermediate schools also have a deserving petition for readjustment for that group.

Question came on the passage of the three orders and the orders failed of passage by the following vote:

YEAS—Messrs. O'Hare and Sullivan—2.

NAYS—Mrs. Barron, Messrs. Bogan and Gray—3.

The Board adjourned.
Attest:

ELLEN M. CRONIN,
Secretary.

In connection with the foregoing, Mr. Sullivan offered the following resolution and accompanying statement:

RESOLVED, That the School Committee petition the next Legislature for legislation, the purpose of which will be the abolishment of the Schoolhouse Commission and the establishment of exclusive control of expenditures for all school purposes where such control properly and rightfully belongs, namely, in the School Committee, and that the said legislation be prepared and presented as expeditiously as possible by this Committee.

Mr. Chairman and Members:

The sum of twenty-two millions of dollars is the estimated cost for all school purposes during the current year. This is a stupendous sum and represents an increase of 200 per cent. since 1914 in the cost of our public school system. Is Boston receiving adequate educational return?

I will confine myself to the matter pertinent to my resolution. In my opinion the city pays more for the repair and construction of school buildings than any other comparable community in the country, and the child receives less. For several years this has been and still is the fact because the Schoolhouse Commission is independent of the School Committee. The City of Boston has an independent Schoolhouse Commission, appointed by the Mayor, to take charge of repairs and replacements in old buildings and to purchase sites and construct all new buildings.

Although the School Committee makes appropriation for lands, plans and construction of school buildings and for repairs and alterations to school buildings, the expenditures for these items are not controlled by the School Committee.

Seven million, six hundred thousand dollars is the estimated cost for lands, plans and construction of school buildings and for repairs and alterations during the current year. The School Committee has no legal control, no practical control, over the expenditure of these monies once the appropriations are made. This situation is decidedly anomalous. It is peculiar to Boston for in other large cities throughout the country expenditures for construction and repairs are controlled by the educational authorities.

This experiment in erecting school buildings through the agency of the independent Schoolhouse Department is a failure and admittedly so. I will recall at this point for the benefit of the new members of the School Committee a statement I made several months ago at a conference, at which were present the then Mayor, Honorable James M. Curley, the School Committee, the Schoolhouse Commission, the Finance Commission, and others, to the effect that if there was one thing that the School Committee was consistent and persistent about it was the wholesale criticism of the Schoolhouse Commission and its work.

It has been authoritatively stated that probably no other city in America faces so serious a problem as Boston in the matter of modernizing its old school buildings. There are many unnecessary fire and panic hazards in our schools, and yet we, the School Committee, charged as we are with the duty of educating the children and with the responsibility of securing for them their inalienable right to habitable schools, are helpless and will continue so unless and until the Legislature enables us to take care of our own school accommodations.

Permit me at this point to quote from the study and report of 1917 by the Committee appointed by the Finance Commission on the public school system of Boston:

The Schoolhouse Commission not a civic or educational necessity. "The Committee is convinced that the establishment of the Schoolhouse Department, administered by the independent Schoolhouse Commission, has not made for economy, efficiency, or for the best interests of public education. It appears that the establishment of the commission was due to the belief that the interests of education would be safeguarded by taking away from the School Committee the duty and responsibility of purchasing sites and erecting buildings. It was felt that these matters, involving the expenditure of great sums of money, would better be placed in other hands, thus leaving the School Committee free to deal exclusively with purely educational problems.

"This decision overlooked the fundamental truth that the locating, planning and constructing of school buildings are educational problems fully as truly as they are financial, architectural and engineering problems. Here as elsewhere in the administering of public education experience has demonstrated that every educational problem is a financial one and every financial problem is an educational one. In other cities throughout the country experience is amply demonstrating that the educational authorities, whose business it is to provide for the training of all the children, are the ones who learn to know most accurately and certainly just where school buildings should be erected, which locations are most desirable, what types of buildings are needed, and how many and what kinds of accommodations they should provide.

The duty of providing these accommodations must be delegated, but the results can never be satisfactory if the department to which the delegation is made is independent of the educational department. The cities which are receiving the best educational returns on their expenditures for school buildings are those cities which have well-planned architectural divisions as regular parts of their permanent organizations. A small city, or one which is not increasing rapidly in population, may find it desirable and economical to arrange for the construction of buildings through securing the services of a private firm of architects of proved ability in schoolhouse construction. On the other hand, experience demonstrates that in municipalities where many new school buildings must be erected from year to year, the best results are obtained through an arrangement by which the educational authorities directly control the provision for increasing the educational accommodations."

Boston has been spending more for second-class construction than most cities spend for first-class. Our school buildings are the most expensive in the country. The expenses of plans, specifications, and construction are far greater in Boston than elsewhere. Economical and satisfactory results can come only when the School Committee takes over its proper function of repair and construction of school buildings. Then and only then will the School Committee be able to perform its full duty to the child, to the system, and to the Community.

It may be urged against my resolution that the assumption by the School Committee of this most important duty and its proper function, to wit: the repair and construction of school buildings, will attract undesirables to aspire to the School Committee. Of course this is ridiculous and absurd, and not worthy of answer. The School Committee enjoys a high reputation for honesty and I have no fear that this traditional integrity will desert us merely because we take on a function that is rightly ours and a responsibility that we can neither evade nor escape. I have high hope that the inefficiency, extravagance and waste, so characteristic of the present silly situation, will disappear and to this end I offer this resolution.

Mr. O'Hare: Has always been opposed to consolidation of the departments or the taking over of the Schoolhouse Department. The resolution presented by Mr. Sullivan contains food for thought. The question involved is too serious for snap judgment, consequently asks that the matter be laid over for further consideration. Would like opportunity to make personal investigation for he has given no serious thought to the question since 1922.

Mrs. Barron: Intensely interested, as is every member of the Board, in the economic situation. It would be a fine thing if some way could be found to make the available money go farther in order that more schoolhouses might be built to accommodate the children who are now unsatisfactorily housed. Feels as Mr. O'Hare does that the proposition presented by Mr. Sullivan warrants careful consideration and agrees with Mr. O'Hare's suggestion that the matter go over.

Mr. Gray: Feels very much as Mrs. Barron and Mr. O'Hare have expressed themselves. Does not believe that the School Committee should take on all the functions of the Schoolhouse Commission; consequently, shall have to vote against Mr. Sullivan's resolution if presented now.

Dr. Bogan: Is of the opinion that the suggestion to seek legislation which would result in the School Committee taking over the Schoolhouse Commission demands considerable study. It is a gigantic proposition and before such an undertaking comes to pass this Board should sit down with His Honor the Mayor and the Finance Commission and make a thorough study of the whole matter. Would not favor voting on the resolution at this time.

Mr. Sullivan: Agrees to deferring of action on the resolution until the first meeting in September; but feels that nothing would be gained by a joint conference.

Dr. Bogan: Finance Commission undoubtedly has data which would be of interest to the Board and worth looking over.

Mr. Sullivan: Believes that the people of this city will have opportunity to express their opinion on the proposition since it is a matter that will require legislative action. Candidates for the Legislature may find themselves obliged to take a stand on the question.

By unanimous agreement, action on the resolution, as submitted by Mr. Sullivan, was laid over until the first meeting in September, Mr. Gray stating that he will probably be absent on vacation at that time.

Question came on the passage of the order notifying the Board of Assessors of the amount of its appropriations that must be raised by taxation.

NAMING OF NEW SCHOOLS.

Mr. Sullivan offered the following: ORDERED, That the new eight-room school in the Minot District, ultimately to become a large intermediate school, is hereby named the Thomas J. Kenny School in memory of Thomas J. Kenny, a member of the School Committee of twenty-four members during the years 1899, 1900, 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904, and a member of the Committee of five during the years 1906 and 1907.

Mr. Kenny brought to the service of the community high-minded and unselfish devotion and a high order of intelligence and humanity which were characteristic of his career both public and private. He gave unreservedly of his talents and his wisdom for the welfare of the children of Boston, and the prosperity of the city he loved.

He was kind and sympathetic, conscientious and faithful in the discharge of his manifold duties; an ideal private citizen; a patriotic, constructive public servant.

His life serves as a lesson to the youth of our city of what may be achieved through industry, integrity and incorruptibility.

Passed under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Gray offered the following:

ORDERED, That the new four-room school on Waverly street, Brighton, in the Thomas Gardner District, ultimately to become a sixteen-room elementary school, is hereby named the James J. Storrow School in memory of James J. Storrow, a member of the old School Committee of twenty-four members during the years 1902, 1903, 1904, and Chairman of the new Committee of five members during the years 1906, 1907 and 1908. As a result of three years' service on the old Committee and of his study of problems of school administration here and elsewhere, Mr. Storrow became convinced that the public school system of Boston would be administered more effectively by a smaller board, and with characteristic energy and direction he led the movement which resulted in the legislation of 1905 establishing the School Committee of five members. A man of great character and high ideals, possessing to an unusual degree a consciousness of civic duty, Mr. Storrow gave unsparingly of his time, his talents, and his varied resources for the welfare of the children and the youth of Boston, and through his never failing interest in the extended use of the public schools, to the people of the entire city. He made it possible for many boys to continue their studies in professional and technical institutions long beyond the time when they would otherwise have been forced to seek employment, and personally gave impetus to many school men to advance themselves professionally in their chosen field, to the great advantage of the school system.

Passed under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Gray offered the following:

ORDERED, That the new eight-room school on Vale Street, South

Boston, in the Shurtleff District, to become a sixteen-room elementary school, is hereby named the Michael J. Perkins School, in memory of Michael J. Perkins, private, first class, Company D, 101st Infantry, awarded, posthumously, the Congressional Medal of Honor for conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity above and beyond the call of duty which resulted in the supreme sacrifice, at Belleau Bois, France, Oct. 27, 1918. Official reports indicate that his exploits were astounding and that it was given to but few individuals in the World War to accomplish as much, single-handed. A true patriot who gave his life that others might live. The memory of his service and sacrifice should be an inspiration to the youth of our city.

Passed under a suspension of the rules.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The order laid over at the meeting of June 28, 1926, making general amendments to the rules and regulations, was taken up and passed.

The Board adjourned.

BOSTON CHARTER CHANGES.

In 1854, 1885, 1909 and 1924 important changes in the original City Charter of 1821 were effected for the purpose of improving the methods and efficiency of the City Government. The revision of 1854 (Chap. 448, Stat. 1854) referred to the voters for acceptance, gave the Mayor a qualified veto over the action of the City Council, also the power of removal of appointed officials, besides providing for his election by a plurality instead of a majority vote. The amendments of 1885 (Chap. 266, Stat. 1885) were not submitted to the voters for approval. They transferred all the executive powers to the Mayor, prohibiting the City Council from interference with the executive and administrative business of the City. This was done in order to end the inefficiency resulting from an excessive number of joint committees, a municipal development conforming to the traditions of the outgrown town government.

The amendments of 1909 (Chap. 486, Stat. 1909) cut down the number and powers of the legislative branch of the government to a minimum, the Board of Aldermen (13 members) and the Common Council (75 members) being abolished. For these was substituted a single City Council of nine members to be elected at large for 3-year term. The Mayor's position was further strengthened by giving him a 4-year term, subject to recall at end of two years, but requiring a majority vote of the registered voters to make the recall effective. The Mayor's power over appointments was no longer subject to check by aldermen but by a State board, the Civil Service Commission and City elections were removed from all connection with national and State politics, no primaries nor caucuses being permitted, all candidates for office to be selected by means of nomination papers. The only question in this Act of 1909 which was submitted to the voters was contained in section 35, i. e., whether Plan 1 or Plan 2 should be adopted, the first providing for a term of two years for Mayor and a City Council of 36 members to be chosen in primaries. Plan 2, providing for City Council of 9 members, was adopted by a majority of 3,894.

Charter of 1909 amended later as follows: (1) By Chap. 437, Acts of 1910, exempting loans issued for Rapid Transit construction from the prohibition of the establishing of sinking funds, as contained in sec. 26. (2) Chap. 730, Acts of 1914, fixing date of annual municipal election on the sixth Tuesday after the state election instead of in the following January, as in sec. 32; changing the requirements as to signatures on nomination papers to 3,000 for Mayor and 2,000 for City Council and School Committee instead of 5,000 for all, as in sec. 53, also limiting the number of nomination papers issued to 300 for a candidate for Mayor and 200 for other candidates, referring to sec. 54. (3) Chap. 37, Special Acts of 1918, annulling the jurat at end of nomination papers. (4) Chap. 94, Special Acts of 1918, abolishing recall of Mayor and making him ineligible for re-election, i. e., establishing a single term of four years, but not prohibiting the election of any Mayor for other than consecutive terms. (5) Chap. 288, Acts of 1921, fixing date of the annual municipal election on the first Tuesday after the second Monday in December, also making slight changes as to nominations. (6) Chap. 133, Acts of 1922, changing publication of list of City officials and employees to every second year from 1923. (7) Chap. 479, Acts of 1924, providing for biennial City elections (dating from Nov. 3, 1925); for borough or ward representation in City Council; for a fiscal year dating from Jan. 1 to Dec. 31, beginning in 1926, also a municipal year dating from the first Monday in January, to begin in 1926; for election of the five members of School Committee in 1925, the candidates receiving the two largest votes to hold office four years, the other three for two years and at the election in 1927 and thereafter the term for all to be four years.

The only amendment of 1924 subject to a referendum was the alternative of Plan 1 or Plan 2 as to the City Council. At the State election on Nov. 4 Plan 2 was adopted, providing for the election by each ward in 1925 and every second year thereafter of one councillor for 2-year term.

SETTLEMENT OF BOSTON, 1630.

Effected by Puritan colonists under Governor John Winthrop in the latter part of August, 1630. The name of the original settlement was changed to Boston from Trimountaine by order of the Court of Assistants on September 7 (O. S.), 1630. This date was moved forward by the New Style calendar in 1752 to Sept. 17, the recognized date of the founding of Boston. The name, Trimountaine, had been given because of the three peaks of the most prominent hill, afterward called Beacon Hill, much higher then than now. By the Indians the place was called Shawmut. The name, Boston, was derived from the English town of Boston in Lincolnshire, the home of some of the leading colonists and promoters of the enterprise.

MOVE TO SPEED TAX COLLECTIONS.

The records of the Collecting Department indicate that up to the first of the current month the collection of poll taxes was apparently 5 per cent behind the record of last year on the same date.

The actual poll tax collections in 1926, up to and including July 31, were $163,344, or a percentage collection of the total warrant of 33.8. In 1925 the figures for the same period show collections of $186,026, or a percentage of 38.8. Because of this discrepancy, it has been deemed necessary to start the immediate issuance of poll tax demands. These demands are now being prepared daily and will be issued through the mails as soon as prepared.

Under the statute, all outstanding real estate taxes must be cleared up in the year of commitment. For this reason it will be necessary to hold a sale on or before the 29th of September of all parcels of real estate on which the taxes for 1925 remain unpaid. The records of the Collecting Department are now being reviewed to ascertain the names and description of the various parcels of real estate on which there is still an outstanding obligation due the city. In accordance with the law, and as soon as this work is completed, these parcels will be advertised and the tax sale conducted.

FINANCE COMMISSION REPORT.

The Mayor has received the following report from the Boston Finance Commission concerning Schoolhouse Construction:

BOSTON, August 4, 1926.

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

SIR,—This report relates to the construction of school buildings in the City of Boston.

The responsibility for building schools in Boston is divided between the School Committee and the Schoolhouse Department. It is the duty of the School Committee to appropriate the money and to determine from an educational point of view the requirements of the buildings. It is then the duty of the Schoolhouse Department to construct them.

There are several underlying reasons for the abnormally high cost of school buildings in Boston. If school buildings are to be produced economically, three primary steps must be taken by the School Committee, or their educational experts; (1) the pupils must be housed in groups according to the educational divisions of instruction; (2) the educational requirements for the buildings of each group must be standardized and established; (3) adequate determination of the growth and movement of the school population must be made, in order that the nature and location of new buildings may be determined, and continual change of plans avoided. The Schoolhouse Department must establish standards of building construction and unit standards of cost. Only through the closest co-operation between the representatives of the School Committee and the Schoolhouse Department can the foregoing conditions be established and maintained. Such co-operation formerly existed but has for years been lost.

In the past there existed in Boston a system of independent primary, grammar and high schools. Gradually the primary school was subordinated to the grammar school and the two were put under one management. The three-year term of the primary and the six-year term of the grammar were retained, making a nine-year course below the high school. In 1906 the distinction between the primary and the grammar schools was abolished. The two were merged into what was called the elementary school, but the new group contained eight grades, instead of the previously existing nine.

The high school course was then increased from three to four years. This new division of grades, still influenced by the earlier nomenclature, was referred to as lower elementary, upper elementary and high. Beginning with 1914, a division has gradually been evolved consisting of six years of elementary work, three years of intermediate work (sometimes called junior high), and three years of high school work. This is briefly called the 6-3-3 system. Educationally the schools of the city are substantially on the 6-3-3 basis; in housing and equipment they are not.

The School Committee itself has never clearly recognized the establishment of the 6-3-3 system. The nearest approach to official sanction appears in a permissive vote of the committee passed March 22, 1917, which reads as follows:

Ordered, That the School Committee hereby approves of the general policy of establishing intermediate schools or classes to include seventh, eighth and ninth grades or seventh and eighth grades where it is not practicable to include the ninth grade, and the superintendent is hereby authorized to establish schools or classes as aforesaid in those districts in which he may, from time to time, deem it expedient.

The school authorities have not yet sufficiently assimilated the requirements of the class groupings of the new system to think clearly in terms of the 6-3-3 divisions, much less to act according to them. Terms describing the old system have persisted and apparently it has been difficult to learn to think in the new terms, much more to plan for new divisions.

The failure to distinguish between the different types of schools is most apparent in the Washington Irving School, which is referred to both as a high school and an intermediate school, and which apparently is a conglomeration of both. The educational experts of the School Committee try to excuse this confused lack of system by saying that Boston is conservative and slow to adopt modern methods. They also say that there is much opposition to overcome in the teaching ranks. But other cities and towns overcome such difficulties.

The commission finds no determination on the part of the educational experts of the School Committee as to what, from an educational point of view, should be put in the buildings of the three groups of the system. In the period during which the 6-3-3 system was first being evolved it is not surprising that confusion should be found. Thus, two intermediate schools, constructed at about the same time, have little similarity.

The educational requirements for the buildings to be used for each division of the 6-3-3 system should be standardized and these standards put into effect by the alteration of old buildings and in the construction of new ones. The elementary school requires a very simple building that should contain nothing except classrooms with their wardrobes, toilets, a room for teachers and perhaps for a nurse. There should be no expensive equipment.

As the intermediate school is on a departmental basis it should be planned and equipped on that basis. Pupils, at least above the seventh grade, need a home room only as a place to meet in the morning, from which to go to the various courses in the shops or recitation rooms. They spend very little time in their home rooms. The rooms should therefore be equipped for the work to be done. Thus, in classrooms devoted to recitation there is no need of the old, unwieldy desk and chair, occupying unnecessary space, but the modern desk-chair can be used.

It is obvious that in planning new buildings they should be divided into elementary, intermediate and high school groups and constructed according to the requirements of each group. The greater part of the school population, about 70,000 out of 115,000, is found in the elementary schools and requires only the least expensive buildings. The next largest group is found in the intermediate schools, consisting of about 25,000 pupils, and can be housed in buildings of comparatively moderate cost. Only the smallest group needs to be housed in the expensive high school buildings. Thus, a realization of a clear cut division in the educational system would enable the city to save substantial sums of money in the construction of school buildings.

The time has now come when out of its accumulated experience the School Committee should be in a position to set forth exactly what is required in the buildings of each group. If an elementary school of a certain size is required, it should be known immediately what accommodations go with such a building. If an intermediate school of a certain size is required it should be built according to the requirements already established. This would be true also of the district high schools, although in the case of city high schools for special purposes this might not be possible.

If the educational authorities adopted standard requirements for the buildings of the various groups, the present piecemeal ordering of school buildings would cease.

The School Committee or their representatives have had great difficulty in determining the size and location for future accommodations. This difficulty and the failure properly to analyze the situation has caused many changes in its program.

The first thing that a person studying the subject requires is a complete map of the whole city, with the schools and their boundaries located thereon. Strangely enough there is no such map in existence, either in the possession of the School Committee or the Schoolhouse Commission. It is impossible to understand the situation unless such a map is constantly before the authorities. Immediately such a map should be set up, the districts plotted and the schools marked. The population should be marked on it and changes in the population indicated as soon as known. It should be kept up to date.

As an intermediate school will serve several elementary districts, wise study will be necessary to fix the intermediate districts to include the right number of elementary groups. There are now according to the school manual independent intermediate school districts, elementary school districts with intermediate classes, and some elementary districts with no intermediate classes. A study to create a uniform system of districts, and the adoption of a scheme to be carried out as new schools are constructed are needed.

The Schoolhouse Department in its early days acted in close co-operation with the representatives of the School Committee. Under able management, standards of construction were worked out for the two lower divisions of the then existing system, and progress was made toward standardizing the high school. Costs of buildings were studied and, as experience was gained, costs per cubic foot and per pupil were established. In actual practice the prices varied little from the standards set.

A period followed when the Schoolhouse Department refused to co-operate with the educational authorities.

Though the old standards were kept on file, they were in fact abandoned. They have not even been printed for several years. During this period the 6-3-3 system developed. There was, however, no attempt to bring about standards. A strong commission would have refused to construct buildings for the new divisions until the educational requirements were fixed. But this department accepted what was offered it and, having forgotten early construction standards, failed to establish new ones for the newly developing system. The result was confusion and expense.

The Finance Commission has repeatedly requested the Schoolhouse Commission to establish standards of school construction. It now has in its possession the printer's proof of what purports to be a revised edition of the department's standard requirements for school buildings and yards. They are the old discarded form with slight and inadequate modifications. The Finance Commission has the assurance of the present Board that it will bring the standards up to date as speedily as possible.

The Schoolhouse Department should standardize its building requirements. It is entitled to receive from the School Committee the detailed educational requirements for each type of building. In its turn it must establish from a structural point of view what shall go into each building; from the foundation to the roof and from the outside wall to the final finish should be a matter of exact prescription.

Though the Schoolhouse Commission should not interfere with the educational program of the School Committee, it should be ready and able to give it such advice in regard to its building program as an architect would give to his client and to help it to avoid unduly expensive undertakings. An instance where such advice would be valuable is in connection with the custom of the School Committee of requiring the construction of schools in two or more instalments, a few years apart.

It is better policy to give adequate study for the needs of a locality and to postpone actual construction until provision can be made for the entire building. The whole structure could probably be provided in not much more time than is consumed by the piecemeal system, as through continued delays and changes of intention the contemplated unit is often not constructed until the complete building is needed. If, however, for any reason, building in instalments is necessary it should be done only after complete and careful study of the future building.

Another example where advice is needed is in connection with the construction of small school buildings. Such buildings should not be constructed except where by reason of the cheapness of the land, all the rooms can be built on the ground floor. Where land is expensive and more than one story is required, the necessary fireproof staircases, which could serve twice the number of rooms in a larger building without additional expense, make the cost disproportionate.

The Finance Commission recognizes that the Schoolhouse Commission now consists of an entirely new body of men. It will take considerable time for these new members to become familiar with the work of the department. The establishment of policies and standards will be difficult in the midst of the pressing problems of immediate construction, but they must not be postponed if the present excessive costs of construction are to be avoided.

The conclusions from this study are as follows: The School Committee should officially adopt the 6-3-3 system and cause its experts to establish from an educational point of view the requirements for each group of buildings. Thereupon, with the information before it, the Schoolhouse Commission should immediately establish standards of construction and equipment as complete as those which the commission had succeeded in establishing for the lower and upper elementary schools in the early days of the Schoolhouse Department.

A survey of the whole situation by the School Committee, with the co-operation of the Schoolhouse Department, is needed. This study should undertake to put the 6-3-3 system into operation, both in education and in construction. Due consideration should be given to the growth and movement of school population. The boundaries of districts, especially those for intermediate schools, should be given thorough consideration. The results should be tabulated on a map showing the whole of the City of Boston. Consideration should be given to existing buildings, to determine which schools can be adapted for intermediate use, and which can be made to serve for elementary schools.

Such a study will undoubtedly bring out that, by alteration at moderate cost, old buildings can be made to fit into the new groups. Some of the older buildings now classed as upper elementary by dividing the halls into classrooms and with very slight changes would probably make fairly good elementary schools; some of the latest of these schools could be adapted for intermediate schools. The complete establishment of intermediate districts would undoubtedly be hastened.

The opportunity of holding back the ninth grade from the high school and putting it into the intermediate school should make a substantial reduction in the high school population. Assuming this conclusion to be correct, the building program should consist largely in supplying a sufficient number of the less costly elementary schools. Until a review of the whole city is completed, the school authorities should go very slowly in planning new high school buildings.

In addition to this special survey a continuous and effective study of the growing and changing population should be kept up, a study of school organization, equipment and buildings in other cities should be carried on, that the latest and most desirable improvements and economies shall be made available in Boston. At present no one, for either the School Committee or the Schoolhouse Commission, makes studies of progress in other cities. Undoubtedly the educational experts of the School Committee are obliged to give the greater part of their time to the educational features of their work. This continuous study is of sufficient magnitude to require the entire time of some expert connected with the School Committee. Either an assistant school superintendent should be relieved of other duties and be required to give his entire time to this important subject, or the duty should be put upon some other well qualified person.

The Finance Commission recommends:

1. That the School Committee by vote direct the establishment of the 6-3-3 system throughout the City of Boston and order the adoption of a scheme for putting this vote into effect as soon as possible.

2. That an educational survey of the city be made under the direction of the School Committee and the Schoolhouse Commission.

(a) To determine what existing buildings can be so altered as to be adapted for the several groups of the 6-3-3 system.

(b) To fix the proper boundaries of intermediate districts.

(c) To prepare a plan showing on one map the whole city, with the location of schools, the boundaries of districts, and the density of the school population.

(d) To keep this plan currently up to date by noting thereon the growth and movements of the school population, the new schools, and changes of boundaries.

(e) To keep this plan constantly before the school authorities.

(f) To make sure that all future construction shall be in accordance with the 6-3-3 system.

3. That no more high schools be constructed until by the actual establishment of the 6-3-3 system it is determined what effect the system will have on the high school population.

4. That the School Committee designate either an assistant superintendent or some other skilled person to give his entire time to the study of the growth and change of population in the City of Boston, what school construction this population will require, and by familiarizing himself with the best practice of both public and private schools in Boston and elsewhere keep abreast with the times in the matter of equipment.

5. That the habit of setting up the requirements of buildings in a succession of letters covering the period of months be abandoned.

6. That, before any further construction is authorized by the School Committee, a complete study be made of the requirements of each group of the 6-3-3 system and that these requirements be set up as complete standards for the buildings of each group and be furnished to the Schoolhouse Department when buildings are required.

7. That the Schoolhouse Commission determine what buildings in size and type are economical to be constructed for schoolhouses and advise the School Committee thereof.

8. That the Schoolhouse Commissioners forthwith establish detailed standards for the construction and equipment of the three types of buildings which the School Committee may require.

9. That these standards be established, after conference and co-operation between the Schoolhouse Commission and the School Committee.

10. That no more buildings except those already ordered by the School Committee be constructed until the foregoing recommendations be carried out.

Respectfully submitted,

by CHARLES L. CARR,
Chairman.

MAYOR NICHOLS BELIEVES SUGGESTIONS CONSTRUCTIVE.

Following the reading of the Finance Commission's report on the school system the Mayor issued the following statement:

"I have read the report of the Finance Commission on the construction of schools, and believe the criticisms, suggestions and recommendations made therein to be highly constructive.

It is difficult in these days to secure perfection, but it is always well to aspire to it.

It appears to me that the criticisms are well intended. Many of the suggestions and recommendations made are on lines similar to those discussed with me on various occasions by the representatives of the Schoolhouse Department.

Comparisons of costs, however, are not as simple as they appear, because of the varying conditions, such as the differences in cost of labor, cost of site, cost of building on certain sites, and the different requirements set out by different school authorities.

The recommendations formally set forth should be helpful as a guide in the planning and construction of schools in the future, and will undoubtedly be of considerable profit to the educational authorities in their deliberations. I have the utmost confidence in the present members of the Schoolhouse Commission, and am pleased to find their judgment expressed in this report."

PUBLIC LIBRARY REPORT FOR JULY.

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—In accordance with your request, I send you herewith report of the activities of the Library Department for July, 1926.

ACTIVITIES DURING THE MONTH OF JULY, 1926.

During the month 6,548 books have been ordered; 8,791 volumes have been received and accessioned; 2,048 periodicals have been received and recorded; gifts of 759 volumes and 1,157 serials have been acknowledged to 671 donors. Two sales catalogues have been examined and fifty-three titles checked. Sixteen foreign invoices have been received as follows: Two from Holland, six from England, one from France, four from Germany, and three from Italy.

Exhibitions.—There were no exhibitions during the early part of the month. The room was repainted and the old hangings replaced. When this work was completed, the summer exhibition was installed. This was planned in connection with the fiftieth anniversary of the American Library Association to illustrate the growth of library work in the last fifty years. Part of the space has been allotted to the Massachusetts Library Commission and to an exhibition of posters and publications of the American Library Association. The rest of the space is used to show the growth of the branch service and to illustrate special features of the work of the Central Library.

Publications.—The only publication issued in July was the "Annual Report of the Trustees," 1925, a copy of which has already been forwarded to his Honor the Mayor.

Contracts.—A contract order for $530 was made with John A. Reardon Company for recovering walls of the Exhibition Room with selected material and for making and hanging two pairs of curtains.

The usual tables of statistics are attached to this report.

CONTRACT FOR HEALTH UNIT AWARDED.

At a meeting of the trustees of the George Robert White Fund held on Thursday, August 5, it was voted to award the contract for building the health unit in South Boston to the I. F. Woodbury & Sons Company at a cost of $237,528, which was the lowest bid. This health unit is to be located on Dorchester street, Fourth street and Gold street. The architects are Coolidge, Shepley, Bulfinch and Abbott, the architects of the two previous health units constructed by the trustees.

ADDITIONS TO CONTRACTS.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Richard F. Green Company has been allowed to make addition to repairs and renewals to Fireboat Engine No. 31 as indicated in the following communications:

Boston, August 4, 1926.

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR.—On June 5, 1926, after advertising in the City Record, a contract was made with the Richard T. Green Company for repairs and renewals to Fireboat Engine No. 31, in the sum of $3,170. The Richard T. Green Company was the lower of two bids received in response to the advertisement.

As the work progressed in the shipyard certain defects appeared which were not apparent when the original specifications were drawn up or when the boat was originally inspected by the United States steamboat inspectors. This work, and the cost for doing it, consisted of the following:

Renew forward deck plate, $490; calk main deck, $368; renew thirteen pieces decking, $114; labor, machine work on starboard engine, $77.73; stripping back the boat, $615.07; five and one half lay days at $25, $137.50. Total, $1,802.30.

On July 27, 1926, another inspection was made by the United States steamboat inspectors who issued an order to have the following work done on the boat:

Port Side. 1. Renew eleven frames. 2. About 12 feet of covering board. 3. Four stanchions. 4. Six feet of shelf and horn timber.

Starboard Side. 1. Renew eight frames. 2. Four stanchions. 3. About 12 feet of covering board. 4. Renew fashion piece. 5. Renew stern log full length. 6. Renew log rail around stern. 7. Renew one deck beam. 8. All deck planking and hull planking in way of new work to be renewed with proper distributed butts.

This was work which was not apparent when the original inspection was made, but when the repairs under the original contract were under way a condition was uncovered which was alarming. Because of the extent of the work to be done I asked Mr. Guy C. Emerson, consulting engineer of the Finance Commission, to go over the boat with me. After making two inspections of the boat we decided to engage an outside expert, and I secured the services of Mr. B. Stewart Murphy, consulting engineer and marine surveyor. Mr. Murphy made a survey and inspection of the boat, and for your Honor's information I am inclosing a copy of his report.

I have received a price of $5,350 for doing the work required from the Richard T. Green Company, which the consulting engineer, Mr. Murphy, states is fair and reasonable.

This work is urgent and all quotations were made for immediate acceptance. If the work was stopped and a delay allowed in order to advertise the job and prepare specifications the department would be subject to extra lay day charges of $25 per day. It was not possible to foresee all the defects, and the most of it could not be discovered.

I therefore respectfully request permission to make the following additions to the contract dated June 5, 1926, with the Richard T. Green Company for repairs and renewals to Fire Boat 31.

Original contract, $3,170. Additions: Renew forward deck plate, $490; calk main deck, $368; renew 13 pieces decking, $114; labor, machine work on starboard engine, $77.73; stripping back the boat, $615.07; five and one half lay days at $25, $137.50. Removing and renewing port horn timber of oak, removing and making renewals to frames and cants, as follows, on port side three full frames, two of which are stanchioned and parts of five frames; on starboard side, one full frame and parts of seven frames; renew stern log of oak with a knee on each end. Stern log approximately twenty feet in length; renew filler of oak between horn timbers; outboard plank. Renew sixteen strakes on port side and fifteen strakes on the starboard side; renew guard around stern of oak and replace guard iron; remove and renew covering board around stern, approximately 20 feet long; remove and renew log bulwarks around stern, approximately 22 feet long; remove and renew main rail and check rail around stern, approximately 25 feet in length; renew deck beam aft; renew decking aft; renew lazarette hatch; replace hauser platform over quadrant aft; refit and nail sleeve in rudder port lower end and connect up steering chains; painting on new work; refit old copper sheathing around water line aft; renew a short length of shelf on port side; all as required by the United States steamboat inspectors, $5,350; total additions, $7,152.30; total contract, $10,322.30.

Yours very truly,

E. C. HULTMAN,
Fire Commissioner.
